

EDITED BY MISS AVIS LOBBELL

RIGHT at the beginning the society editor wishes to apologize for any of the charming affairs of the week she may have overlooked, but when everyone in town does something, the hours in the days do not seem long enough to cover the round of social life, unless one chronicles a busier week, filled with scores of affairs from the "too informal to mention" sort to weddings, receptions and teas of moment.

One of the altogether brilliant events of the season will be the forthcoming at fresco production of Electra by Raymond Duncan and his original company of Greek players, at Rockholm, the beautiful place of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, on Riverside drive, Friday evening, June 23. A special train will convey the guests to and from the performance, which will be preceded by a short concert, introducing such music as the ancient Greek hymns and Chinese dramatic music.

A smart and very attractive affair was the French tea given Wednesday by Mrs. J. G. Gault when she assembled a large number of friends to introduce F. James who gave an interesting lecture in French, dealing largely with the life of Napoleon.

Luncheon for 25 at Waverly Golf club was the very pretty courtesy extended to Miss Genevieve Thompson's guest from Boise by Miss Cornelia Cook on Friday. The guests were seated on the veranda at five tables, each bearing an attractive Japanese banquet flowers.

It has been learned with regret by many that Lieutenant Colonel John S. Parke, U. S. A., has been sent as military attaché to Brussels instead of being stationed at Vancouver barracks.

Miss Marie Grunwald, of Chicago, was the complimented guest at an informal tea presided over by Mrs. Frank M. Warren Jr. on Friday. Miss Meta M. Buehner presided. Miss Grunwald.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Carey have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Louise Harrington, to Harold Merriam Sawyer, on Thursday evening, June 22, at the Carey home, on Riverside Drive.

who has been the Misses Buehner's guest, returned to her eastern home yesterday. Miss Ada Hampton, who was also a visitor at the Buehner's, departed Wednesday for her home in Seattle.

A son made his debut in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berwick Wood, at Ontario, a week ago Monday. Mrs. Wood was Miss Alice Howes.

A coterie of the younger set gathered at the home of Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox Thursday to enjoy an afternoon with Miss Edith Coburn Noyes, who gave an inspiring talk on "Womanhood" and read several dramatic selections. Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Kerr and Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth assisted Mrs. Wilcox in the dining room.

Mrs. Preston W. Smith was hostess at a delightful informal tea on Friday to meet her friend from New York Miss Ruth Clements. Sweetpeas adorned the table, which was presided over by Mrs. Lloyd R. Smith and Miss Gladys Weidner. The Misses Ruth and Genevieve Church with Miss Lesley Smith assisted.

Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke invited guests for luncheon Wednesday to meet her guest from San Francisco, Miss Helen Cleesebrough, who was one of the bridesmaids at the Brooke-Pomeroy nuptials in November. The guest of honor, Mrs. Hunt C. Lewis, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. David W. Honeyman, Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols and Mrs. Brooke made up the party. Last night Mr. and Mrs. Brooke entertained with a dinner dance at the Golf club for Miss Alice Carey, Miss Dorothy Holbrook, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Mila Wessinger, Miss Leslie Wedler, Miss Louise Carey and Miss Cully Cook.

Miss Isabella Gault was another luncheon hostess of the week for Miss Ridenbaugh when she invited guests for yesterday. Red roses graced the table. Today Leland Smith is host at a picnic party planned for the pleasure of Miss Ridenbaugh and Miss Ruth Clements. Mrs. Preston W. Smith's New York visitor.

Tomorrow Miss Thompson has asked guests to enjoy luncheon at the Golf Links with Miss Ridenbaugh, Miss Clements and Miss Alice Carey. Miss Gault's cousin from San Francisco, and on Wednesday Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyer will be another hostess honoring Miss Ridenbaugh.

It has been learned with regret by many that Lieutenant Colonel John S. Parke, U. S. A., has been sent as military attaché to Brussels instead of being stationed at Vancouver barracks.

Miss Marie Grunwald, of Chicago, was the complimented guest at an informal tea presided over by Mrs. Frank M. Warren Jr. on Friday. Miss Meta M. Buehner presided. Miss Grunwald.

Burgard, Mrs. August Lang, Mrs. Arthur Ballou, Mrs. B. F. Weaver, Mrs. Arthur Gilie, and Mrs. Alice Shannon. The dining room, Mrs. D. M. McLaughlin, Miss Francis Jeffery and Mrs. G. Hoffman, will be assisted by Miss Helen Cate, Miss Mary Brownlie, Miss Beth Ludlum, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Agnes McLaughlin, Miss Elizabeth McCullough. On the program, arranged by Mrs. J. P. Ludlum, will be Miss Maud Dammasch, Miss Zeta Hollister, Tom Dobson, Miss Alice Juston, Miss Cornelia Barkot, and Miss Margaret Egbert, with Mrs. H. A. Heppner and Miss Sadie Ford accompanists.

Miss Tessa Dent is home from the east where she spent the winter as a student at the New England Conservatory of Music. She has just returned from Salem after a visit of 16 days with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, who invited the Kensington club and a few of Miss Dent's friends to a picnic on Friday of five hundred Monday.

Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop was the most delicate woman—a 12-year-old child can handle the largest Sauch & Sons Electric with perfect ease. You merely push a handle forward when you want to start—pull it back when you want to stop. Pulling it back not only shuts off all power at once, but puts on a strong brake. The car stops almost immediately. You can use the foot-brake, too, if you wish, but it isn't necessary.

The Thursday evening riding class at Kramers enjoyed a ride to the Golf club Thursday evening for dinner and a dance. Making up the party were Captain and Mrs. William S. Biddle, Mrs. C. Edward Grell, Mrs. James A. Dougherty, Miss Lillian O'Brien, Miss Alta Rush, Miss Eleanor Gilie, Dr. J. N. Coghlan, Rodney Gilsan, Mr. Stewart, Stanley Jewett and Chester G. Murphy.

The post gymnasium at Vancouver barracks presented a gay scene Friday night when the officers and women of True Beauty Without Powders or Cosmetics (From Art in Dress.) "Much harm is often done by the too free use of powders and cosmetics," says Mme. Ferri, authority on beauty, "and when women learn to know the true value of a good lotion much of this will be prevented."

"Nothing equals a simple, inexpensive lotion made by dissolving a small original package of maystone in eight ounces of witch-hazel. This should be freely rubbed into the skin every day."

"After a short time using the maystone lotion the skin grows clear and healthy and blackheads, pimples and other blemishes are permanently removed, and the complexion takes on that rich embellishment which is the hallmark of true beauty. Many women use this lotion to prevent tan, sunburn or freckles."

winner of the high score. Miss Dent left Wednesday for Newport to spend a month at the Hofer cottage.

Mrs. Paul E. Frowlich has carried out for a bridge, June 23, in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. J. Mitchell, who is a Portland visitor for the summer.

In their home, embowered with hundreds of beautiful pink and white peonies, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis Mead Monday night received about 200 friends in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary. The Misses of the wedding were skillfully carried out in the decorations with chains of tin and in the refreshments which were served on tin. The reception hall and drawing room were all in white peonies with values and other beautiful greens for a background. About the walls were hung gorgeous floral offerings sent by the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mead. Pink peonies with electric lights gleaming through the green was the artistic plan of decoration in the living room and in the dining room the same artistic blossoms arranged in festoons with the tin chains were used. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Mead were Mrs. Mary A. Wells, an aunt from San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Norton G. Wells, cousins from Los Angeles. Mrs. Horatio Wells, Mrs. W. H. Fechtelner, Mrs. Henry Dickson and Mrs. Chester Deering assisted about the rooms. Rosebrook's orchestra was stationed in the hall on the second floor.

Mrs. Mead greeted her guests in an elaborate Paris gown of silver spangles with a floral applique. Mrs. Mary Wells wore pearl gray satin with diamonds.

Mrs. Norton Wells was in chiffon of a delicate old rose with real lace. Mrs. Fechtelner had on white satin. Mrs. Dickson wore a pale blue crepe. Mrs. Horatio Wells appeared in appropriate brocade with lace over dress. Mrs. Deering wore white chiffon over yellow.

Mrs. W. H. Patterson and Miss Vera Patterson entertained with a large and attractive at home Thursday. The porch presented a pretty picture with its groupings of flags and floral decorations and around the tables. Funch was served there by Miss Florence Davis and Miss Charlie Fenton. Caroline Testout roses were used all over the rooms in great clusters and banks. In the dining room Mrs. B. F. Pague, Mrs. E. E. Schloth, Mrs. L. Vanduyne and Mrs. Otto Rothschild presided. They were assisted by Miss Henriette Rothschild, Miss Leonide Fleury, Miss Evelyn Bridgett, of San Francisco, who is spending the summer with the Pattersons, Miss Frances Lackness, of Vancouver, Wash., Miss Laura Korrell, Miss Mildred Whittlesey, Miss Marguerite Getz and Mrs. Les Barnes, of Ellensburg, Wash. Little Miss Ada Otten took the cards at the door. Mrs. P. A. Getz and Mrs. W. M. Patterson received with Mrs. Patterson and her daughter, whose marriage to Leroy E. Getz will be an event of September 6.

An interesting engagement announcement is that of Miss Ella Mead Doble and Dick Alden Hathaway, the wedding to take place later in the summer. Miss Doble is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Doble, a University of Oregon girl and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta. Mr. Hathaway is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hathaway. He, too, is a University of Oregon graduate and a Kappa Sigma man.

Mrs. A. King Wilson, who will assume the presidency of the Portland Woman's club next Friday, expects to give much attention to the social side of the club this year, and the past week has been devoted to two club affairs. Thursday Mrs. Wilson entertained at her beautiful country home, Wilsonia, near Oswego, the present and incoming board, at luncheon. On Friday the psychology department of the club was held at a picnic, when about 25 guests were present. Lunch was spread under the trees, and a delightful day was spent. Taking advantage of the large number present, arrangements were made for next year's work and Mrs. M. A. Ogden was elected chairman of the department for the ensuing year. Next Tuesday Mrs. Wilson entertains the new calendar committee at luncheon, when the plans for the next year's work will be discussed.

Mrs. L. R. Hadley will give a Hellenic tea in her home, Council Crest, Monday afternoon to honor Raymond Duncan give a discourse on the "Elektra of Sophocles." Many of the patronesses for the Friday evening performance will be present and Greek delicacies will be served by young society girls in hand-woven Hellenic robes and sandals. Today at 5 o'clock Mrs. Duncan will lecture at the Museum of Art on "Greek Sculpture and Its Relation to the Drama," and Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, he will speak for the Collegiate Alumnae and all those who are interested in the Greek drama and give a resume of Elektra.

Mrs. John A. Reed entertained at bridge Friday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Wilbur S. Sample. Six tables were played and the prize won by Mrs. John Stogrood. It is deeply regretted by the many friends they have made during their sojourn in Portland, that Mr. and Mrs. Sample are returning to Chicago on Wednesday to reside there.
