The Weather-Fair tonight and

PRICE TWO CENTS OF TRAINS AND NEWS

VOL. X. NO. 91.

PORTLAND, OREGON, MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 19, 1911. - EIGHTEEN.PAGES.

Another in Hand in Fight Near Highbridge, Fremont County, This Morning.

HAD PREVIOUSLY SHOT FARMER; MAKE ESCAPE

Reinforced Posse Loses Two Hours But Expects to Catch Up Today.

(Special Mapatch to The Journal.)
Idaho Falls, Idaho, June 19.—A posse member was fatally wounded and another was shot through the hand in a battle this morning with the fugitives who Saturday killed Conductor Kidd and fatally wounded Deputy Sheriff Jones on an Oregon Short Line train. The fight occurred near Highbridge, Idaho, at 10 o'clock this morning. The desperadoes escaped.

The posse got on the trail after the desperadoes this morning held up a farm house near Highbridge, shot the owner, seriously wounding him, and escaped with a horse. The news was rushed to Highbridge and sent on to the posse, which was already in the Tracking the men from the farm house, the posse overtook them a few miles further on. The officers were met with shots. One member of posse, whose name has not yet been learned here, was shot through the temple. It is rehe cannot live. Another received a wound in the hand.

Reinforcements were at once rushed and the posse set out again. The robbers went in the direction of Rigby and the officers, two hours behind, are following them. It is believed the pur suers will overtake them before night and another battle is expected.

Edward McGill was the farmer shot This affray happened yesterday after-noon at McGill's home near Hamer, noon at McGill's home near Hamer, where one of the pursued men was taking dinner. The fight began when McGill realized who his guest was and when the latter dashed for one of the farmer's horses. McGill was shut through one lung. He was taken to Idaho Falls. His father was present during the shooting but was uninjured. One thousand dollars reward has been offered by the Oregon Short Line. offered by the Oregon Short Line.

WHEAT KING PUTS BEARS ON GALLOP INTHECHICAGOPIT

Hot Weather Reports Stir 'Change to Semi-Panic That Saturday's Close.

(Special Dispatra to The Journal.)
Chicago, June 19.—Lischstein, the wheat king, had all the bears running wheat king, had an the seasted a pen-today, and from each he exacted a penalty of about 2 cents a bushel. close of the market was 1% to 2% ments higher than on Saturday.

There was intense excitement in the wheat pit this morning when the weather bulletin was received. Hot weather in South Dakota is said to have ruined a large part of the crop, and no relief

This caused a semi-panic among sellers, and, led by Lanyon, the St. Louis short, there was a quick movement to Armour is reported to have been among those that saw the handwriting on the wall, and, while his losses are said to be much less than the St. Louis man, they are probably heavy.

There were rains in central Missouri and in Illinois and Manitoba, but the trade had its eyes glued upon the situa-tion in South Dakota.

SHOOTING DOWN 3

Shoot Officer in Temple and Henwood, Principal in Brown Palace Hotel (Denver) Bar Room Tragedy, Caused by Woman, Before Court.

> 'Special Disretch to The Journal.1 Denver, June 19.—The case of Frank H. Henwood, who on May 24 shot down three man in the barroom of the Brown Palace hotel, was called for trial today. Henwood's victims were Sylvester ("Tony") von Puhl, who had a national eputation as an aeronaut; G. E. Copeland, a mining man of Victor, Col., and J. W. Atkinson, a wealthy contractor of Colorado Springs. Von Puhl and Cope-(Continued on Page Rine.)

SLAYER SUSPECTS

Family May Be Found by Elimination Process—Close Search to Be Continued.

With the failure of the Draper bloodhounds to point out the hiding place of Boosts Up Price Above process of elimination whereby everyone who could possibly have any knowledge of the crime will be examined once more and be required to make careful explanation of his whereabouts the night the four were killed in their little cabin near Ardenwald.

The man who is supposed to have attacked Gus Obrist last week and who was seen by several people skulking about the houses of the neighborhood after dark has falled to put in an appearance since his attack on the dairy-

Will Reep (Watch.

Deputy sheriffs and police have watched every night for some sign of him, but whether he has left the neighborhood or was scared off by the pres ence of the officers is unknown. Watch will be maintained about the nouses in the neighborhood until some levelopment either shows the man has left the district or that he was no connected with the killing of the Hills. Meanwhile the sheriff's men are look ing for the stranger who told them Sat urday afternoon he had seen this prow (Continued on Page Eleven.)

ORDINANCE CALLING FOR SPECIAL ELECTION TO BE VETOED; DEFECTIVE

paged at the last meeting of the city prepared, calls for a special election council for the purpose of calling a special election January 9, to give voters submitted." an opportunity to cast their ballots for the former ordinance and will per-or against an amendment providing for mit of the present charter being com a commission plan of government. The pletely revised into a commission plan veto will be submitted on the advice I believe it will be advisable for Mayor of City Attorney Grant, who says the council can then pass a new one providordinance calling the election was not properly drawn.

The city attorney has drafted a re pealing ordinance, and another ordinance rectifying the legal phraseology in the former measure. These will be presented to the city council next week, and will, in all probability, be passed unanimously, so that there will be no delay on account of the mistake, Defects Seen.

"The ordinance passed last week," said City Attorney Grant, "called for an election at which a charter providing for a commission form of governan election at which 'a charter providing for a commission form of government' was to have been placed on the ballot. The legal phraseology was not sufficient to cover the case. We already have a charter provided by legislative act, and we cannot get rid of it except by amending it.

January 9, at which 'general amend-ment to the present charter may be This cures the defect in ing for the same thing."

Pears Criticism. "I dislike to veto the ordinance," said Mayer Simon, today, "for the reason that my action may be misinterpreted However, if the city attorney advises me to do so, I will. The ordinance call-ing for the special election was intro-duced so suddenly that I had no op-portunity of giving it careful consider-ation, but although I feared that it might not have been drawn properly. I did not make any strenuous objection, Principals in Springer Tragedy at Denver the fatal row started; at the left her husband, president of the Continental Trust Company of Denver and one of the most prominent men in the Rocky Mountain city; on the right, Frank Harold Henwood, who will stand trial within a week for the double shooting of Von Phul and George E. Copeland, who was hit by one of Henwood's stray bullets during his quarrel with Von Phul in the Brown Palace Hotel; below, Sylvester Louis Von Phul, St. Louis millionaire sportsman and aeronaut, who had words with Henwood about Mrs. Springer just before Henwood fired the shot that caused his death. The photograph of Henwood is the one that Von Phul tore to bits during the quarrel. It was pieced together.

'LIFE'SREVEALER" ONTRIAL; COUNSEL FLAYS ACCUSED

Evelyn Arthur See, Founder of Havemeyer Manufactured a "Junior Commonwealth," in Court; Girl Priestess Stands By Staunchly.

Chicago, June 19.—When the trial of Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the junior commonwealth," charged with centributing to the delinquency of Mil-dred Bridges 17, opened today, the court room was crowded with girls and women. It was reported that most of them were former followers of See. Mildred Bridges, one of the high priestesses of See's absolute life cult, sat in court, refusing to desert Sec. She refused even to glance toward her father, Stephen Bridges, who was ready to appear as first witness for the state. Attorney Cantwell, representing See, opened for the defense. His statement was confined to an attack on Mildred's

(Continued on Page Two.)

OWNERS GIVE IN AS SHIPPING IS PARALYZED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, June 19.—That the striking seamen will win their demand for increased wages is the general belief here today. Several owners have yielded. The strige is becoming better organized and shipping is practically at a standstill. Offices of the Seamen's union assert that the steamers Megantic, Celtic and Dominion will be tied up until their crews are given an increase of 10 shillings monthly. The original demand was for 20 shillings.

Shipping on the clyde is paralyzed. Allied unions are threatening to strike

THIN AIR NETTED SUGAR KING SUM

Testifies.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, June 19.- James

Post, at one time an agent for Henry O. Havemeyer, told the Hardwick sugar investigating committee today how $10,-000,000 had been manufactured from thin air for Havemeyer and dividends of $2,500,000 drawn from the manufactured capital. Referring to the organization of the National Sugar Refining company of New Jersey, he said:

"I had secured, as Hevemeyer's agent, options for the purchase of three concerns that went into the National-the National of New York, the Mollenhauer plant and the New York Sugar Refining company. The National of New Jer-(Continued on Page Two.)

HUSBAND KIDNAPS OWN WIFE; WARRANT IS OUT

(Special Disputch to The Journal.)
Hillsboro, Or., June 19.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of James
H. Wilson on a charge of assault on H. Wilson on a charge or assault on his bride of a month. In reality, how-eyer, the charge is kidnaping. On May 3 he married 17 year old Vida Lewis but the girl was taken from him by her parents. The same day she at-tended a local theatre, and it is charged that on leaving the building she was seized by Wilson and despite resistance was hustled into a waiting automobile and taken to Portland. This was Saturday night. The sheriff is bunting for them today.

HOLDUPS MAY BE

Hounds Now Have Good Scent With Stage Being Set, Frowsy From Discarded Mail Sacks and Are Pushing on Very Swiftly.

TWO OF DRAIN GANG ARE CAUGHT: EHNERT BOYS

From W. W. Kent's Store With Them.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., June 19.—Bloodhounds and posse are following what is beleved to be the hot trail of the Shasta Limited robbers, about eight miles west of Yoncalla, today. The posse started at 3 o'clock this morning. It searched all day resterday, finding two stolen registered mail pouches on the trail followed. Only part of the mail had

Drain, Or., June 19.-The sheriff's posse in pursuit of the men who robbed the mail car of the Shasta Limited near here Friday night yesterday, which found four rifled mail sacks a short distance west of Yoncalla, found also $20 overlooked by the holdups. Taking their retinues scent from the sacks, the bloodhounds were making good progress on the trail police are watching only those who are at last reports and Sheriff Quine thinks suspected of designs on royalty and the the chances are good for capture be others are left pretty much to them-

Two of the three men who robbed the hardware store of W. W. Kent last Friday night were caught at Albany last night as they were trying to board a completely to reap the commercial harsheriffs of Linn county, assisted by a to the enormous prices charged by the deputy sheriff of Lane, who happened to merchants, who are boosting prices unbe on the train and recognized the burg- reasonably. county jail whose description tallied with that sent out from here of the men seen here the day of the burglary. (Continued on Page Two.)

LONDON MAKES UP

Crowning Event.

TOWN NOW TOPSY-TURVY; MILLION SPECTATORS UNSIGHTLY STANDS RISE

Clothing, Knives and Razors Enormous Crowds Throng Line Accidents Came Almost With Coronation Pageant Is to

> London, June 19 .- All London is now in curl papers, awaiting the gorgeous spectacles of the coronation. The present aspect of the town is rather topsyturvy, but a day or two more of work on the decorations is expected to transform everything,

Two days' rain has played havoc with the decorations displayed for the coronation week. Bunting and flags today are flapping dismally from the buildings, the colors run together, the pennants faded and forlors looking, Envoys Arrive Today.

Thirty-nine envoys arrived today, including 20 princes and princesses with train. The capture was made by deputy vest they expected. This is due chiefly lars as recent occupants of the Lane cut in prices many merchants will go bankrupt.

Pickpockets and crooks are busy. The selves

FOR BIG HEADLINER

Old City Puts on Finishing Touches of Gay Garment for

Take on Thursday.

Unless there is a radical

At present the sight and smell of many miles of new timber flung against (Continued on Page Two.)

LLOYD LIGHT'S CAREER ENDS; DIES FROM TAKING POISON, BELIEVED

Man Who Posed as Writer of Stories in Saturday Evening Post Thought to Have Had Long Criminal Record—He Passed Many Bad Checks, Alleged—Claimed to Have Had Wealthy Relatives in the East.

Lloyd Light, aged 33 years, who posed as the author of the famous "Blue Envelope" series, recently published in the Saturday Evening Post, and a scion of alleged wealthy families in New York and Florida, who recently gained con-siderable notoriety in Portland through nis arrest at the Oregon hotel on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper, died this morning on the way from the city jail to St. Vincent's hospital, from what is believed to have been a dose of strychnine.

On the police docket this morning was the name of Lloyd Light, charged with "after hours," in order to hold him for investigation of a charge of passing a worthless check on John Anderson a waiter at the Oaks restaurant. This case has been dismissed.

The death of Light is sensational, in that it is believed that the man has a long criminal record, and that his arrest last night was the climax of a series of criminal operations from which he realized he could not escape punish-

When Captain of Detectives Moore entered the prison cells this morning to summon those arrested the past 24 hours for the usual morning line-up, Fortune Out of Nothing, According to His Agent, Who Testifies unconsciousness, from which he went into convulsions. Dr. Ziegler ordered him removed to St. Vincent's hospital. He died on the way.

Light was brought to police headquarters at 12:30 this morning by John Anderson, who accused him of giving him a check on a local bank for $5.50 in which he had no funds. Sergeant Joe Keler who was in charge of the station, re-fused to book Light on the charges made by Anderson and told Light to leave the

Patrolman Epps was instructed to (Continued on Page Two.)

WHITE SLAVE ACT

Utah Judge Says Government Has Every Right to End Traffic in Women.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 19.—Upholding the federal "white slave" laws as constitutional and asserting that the government had as much right to end the traffic as it had to interfere with lotteries. United States Judge Morris today sentenced a number of convicted white slavers.

William Siegel was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary for placing a swedish immigrant in a resort. Eugene Hughes was given a six months' sentence and Herbert Gould, convicted, was ordered in court tomorrow for sentence.

Lloyd Light, who claimed to be magazine writer.

FIVE ARE INJURED European Circuit Contest Already Fatal to Trio of Birdmen - French Officer Is Cremated in Midair.

SEE TWO PLANISTS DIE

Starting Gun, Being Ascribed to Nervousness.

Aviation in heavier than air machines has claimed a total of 64 deaths. Twenty-six have been killed during the last year. Paris, June 19 .- Three deaths and the injuring of five aviators already mark the Paris-Belgium-Holland-London aero-plane race, which started from the Aviator field at Vincennes yesterday afternoon. Cremated in Midair. Accidents came almost with the starting gun. In the sight of the million people assembled at the aviation park at Vincennes, Princetau, who had been gazetted captain only a few hours be-fore the start for his notable services when the engine of his monoplane ex-Bleriot became unmanageable and fell as he was over a forest a quarter of a mile from the start. His head was crushed against a tree trunk and he died within a few minutes after he was in aviation, was cremated in midals

Dashed to Barth.

M. Lendron was the third victim. After he had made 30 miles of the first leg of the journey the gaseline tank of his machine exploded and he crashed to earth, was struck by a part of his en-gine and killed. He was severely burned by the flaming gasoline. M. Gaubert, who entered under the

(Continued on Page Five.)

MUST BE TRIED

Judge Carpenter Denies Rehearing of Arguments in Demurrer at Chicago.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, June 19. — United States Judge Carpenter today denied the mo tion of the packers for a rehearing of arguments in demurrer, based on a recent decision by the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases, which it is alleged materially affected the packers' case,

The decision today was a blow to the packers as there is no appeal from Judge Carpenter's ruling and the trial must proceed. The court gave no reason for the decision, merely announcing that the motion was overruled.

WEDDING GUEST HITS FOUR WITH BULLETS

San Francisco, June 19 .- Early today at the new California hotel, where the wedding of Joseph Ghorocoi was pro-ceeding, one of the guests fired a pistol into the crowd and four persons were injured. Two of them are probably fa-tally wounded. In the panic that folllowed the culprit escaped.

LONDON'S PRICES FOR BIGGEST SHOW FRIGHTEN AWAY GREAT GAPING HORDE

By Charles P. Stewart, London Cor- out. With the decline, however, of its respondent of the United Press.

Mary. Not that the crowning of this royal pair is of any greater importance than similar events in the past, but that the king and queen, both with a love for ceremonials, and England and the world at large apparently clamorous for such a pageant, have combined to make the function the most sumptuous of its

Arrangements are today completed After months of planning and execu-tion, those in charge of the affair, real-ise, although with nervous apprehen-sion, that all has been done that can be done. So much ado has been made over the coronation that it is only nat ural that the expectancy of the people should not be unmixed with misgivings. Impression Its Object.

London, June 12.—England is today has any been turned so effectively to commercial account as the present one on the eve of the most spectacular commercial account as the present one event in her history, the crowning on From all over the world tourists and money have been pouring into England money have been pouring into England. For weeks to come the tourists will re-main, and the sum which London merchants and landlords will gather in from them is incalculable.

In their greed, the traders have, in fact, to some extent, overreached them

The throng of visitors in the city is, to be sure, enormous, but there is little doubt that it would have been far greater had not so many people been frightened into remaining away by advance news of the remorselessness with which they would be bled if they came.

London Is Mideous. The commercialism of the coronation of the commercialism of the coronation of the co

(Continued on Page Five.)