HENDERSON CAN'T FOOL HOOLIGANS

Beavers Drop Third Straight Game When Batsmen Fail in Pinches.

Los Angeles, June 20.—The Beavers lost their third straight game to Hogan's Hooligans yesterday by the score of 4 to 2, although they won four games of the seven by taking the odd game of the series.

Benny Henderson broke his winning streak and was wild and ineffective during the three innings that he pitched being touched up for four runs and five hits.

Lefty Henkle, who relieved him was hit but three times during the remainder of the game, fanned two men and did not allow a base on balls.

Hogan's men started out in the first inning and tallied once, repeated in the second inning and scored twice in the fifth. This proved enough to win the game.

Chadbourne Scores Clean Bags. The Beavers scored two in the fifth on Chadbourne's triple, after Sheehan and Peckinpaugh had singled. It looked as though Portland would score in the first when Ryan tripled but Krueger fouled out to Patterson.

Pinch hitting was lacking yesterday. In the sixth inning with two men on the base, Peckinpaugh failed to hit. The same thing occurred in the third inning.

The Beavers left last night for Oakland, where they will meet the Oakland team in a series of seven games, starting today.

Annies was woody at times and the Nicks took every advantage of the southpaw's unsteadiness. In the fifth only a lightning peg from center field by Mike Lynch after that husky gobbed Harris' fly saved Annis from being nicked still deeper.

MERKLE GOING GREAT GUNS.

Fred Merkle, he of "touching second" fame, who has fully redeemed himself in the eyes of New York fans and has started out this season to vindicate McGraw's judgment in keeping him by playing as good ball as any first sacker in fast company, barring possibly Hal Chase.

The battery, composed of Sugase, the giant pitcher, and Fukuda, catcher, is the pride of the Japanese team. Fukuda, the catcher, is the best hitter on the team and at the same time one of the most versatile players.

McFARLAND'S WEIGHT FRIGHTENS K. O. BROWN

Buddy Ryan Jumps in Front of Mates

New York, June 20.—Asserting that Paeky McFarland would be transformed from a lightweight into a welter between three and six o'clock Danny Morgan refuses to allow his meal ticket, "Knockout" Brown, to meet the Chicago scraper and allow McFarland to weigh in at 123 pounds at the earlier hour on the date of the fight.

Morgan's alleged reason for allowing Brown to meet Matt Wells or Al Weigast at 133 at 3 o'clock is that the latter two "are champions and in a position to dictate terms."

Fighting men here suspect that both Morgan and Brown, knowing that McFarland cannot make the weight demanded by them, are using this quibble as an "out" for refusing to fight him.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

Tacoma played a nice game and out-hit the Nicks but they failed to bunch their hits and the Nicks took advantage of their weak spots and romped home with the game to the tune of 4-2.

It wouldn't do the grounds any harm if they were sprinkled. The dust yesterday was distressing at times.

Johnson, the recruit from Whitman college played the outfield in place of Billy Spears, who was suddenly called home on account of the dangerous illness of his mother.

Just to show you what a base on balls will do; Pettigrew was accorded the privilege of first base by Annis, stole second and scored on Harris' single to right. It is seldom that a base on balls does not figure in the run column.

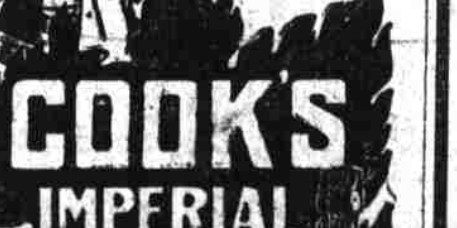

Annis pitched a nice game for the Tacomaites but was out of luck. There is another chance left for this lad to try and that the Nicks and with a little more luck might get away with the job.

If Kennedy is an Irishman I wonder what Annis?

In the second inning with the bases full and two out, Pearl Casey lost another chance to be a hero when he hit a dinky grounder to Coleman who threw to the plate forning Harris.

Just to show the bunch that there was no ill feeling between himself and his brother pitcher, Mister Bloomfield, Annis let Billy have his base on balls.

Its delicate flavor and bouquet delights the taste, affording exquisite pleasure.
