

Largest Attendance in Years; Sessions Close With Camp Fire and Singing of Chinook Songs.

Oregon pioneers are separating today, bing to their homes, after one of the happiest sessions they have ever en-joyed. Even oldest residents do not rember when there was a larger attendance of the Oregon Ploneer association than that which closed with a camp fire and the quaint singing of Chinook songs last night.

No haste in parting is visible. The first comers to Oregon would like to be the last to return to their homes. Only a start, they say, has been made in recalling the early days and the pleasant and bitter memories of them. Separations of years cannot be recompensed by meeting so short a time, they omplain.

Sing Chinook Songs. Cyrus H. Walker, Professor Parvine and others of the oldest ploneers sang with volces frequently husky with more than age, this song last night from the Chinock:

"Nika mitlite yakwa alta, Kopa iliahee: Wako Jaja nika hale, Kopa iliahee; Kah nika klatawa, Nika lala halo kumtux; Kiale nika tumtum kopa, Kiale nika t Siah illahee.

And the meaning of the song, sung "There's & Happy familiar tune of Land," is:

"I live here now, On this earth: Not long and I shall be gone From the earth: Where shall I go For a long time I didn't know; Dark was my mind about The far-off land.

Every one who had a voice capable of carrying the sweet old tune came in on the last verse, keeping measured time and producing an indescribable effect upon, one who for the first time had heard such singing-

'Kloshe tillikums mittite si-ah, "Kloshe tillikums mitlite si-an, Kopa saghalle; Cultus tillikums mitlite keek-wi-lee; Kopa hiäs pi-ah. Kopet spose nika kloshe; Mash mesachle konoway; Delate ok-oke Tyee, Lolo nika yah-wa."

The translation of this verse is:

"Good people live far off "Good people live below " In heaven; Bad people live below " In the great fire; Only if I am good, Throw away everything bad, Truly this God Will carry me there."

"Oneen Mother of Oregon." When the election of officers was held last night it resulted in the placing of the crown of reverence upon the head of the oldest mother ploneer, Grandma Kincald of Eugene, and her title is "Queen Mother of Oregon." She is 32 years old and came to Oregon in.

Colonel R. A. Miller, '54, was made president to succeed P. H. D'Arcy of Balem. Joseph Buchtel, '52, one of Orecon and Portland's best kno chosen vice president. and George H. Himes, for the twenty-sixth consecutive time, was vested with the honor and toil of the secretaryship. Charles E. Ladd, '57, and a native son of the state, was chosen treasurer, and as directors, N. H. Bird, '43, Portland; Cyrus H. Walker, '88, Albany, and A. L. Carten, '45, a native of Oregon, living in Hood River.

can be fluffed up and made to appear abundant without the sid of false hair. Try shampooing your hair with a tea-speonful of canthrox dissolved in a cup of hot water. This shampoo produces a rich, creamy lather that cleanses the hair and scalp as no other shampoo will. If makes the hair beautifully lus-trous, soft and fluffy. It dries very quickly and after using it you will find your hair easy to do up and will stay in place without the aid of a net or vell, and look nice much longer than ever be-fore. You will no longer be bothered with dandruff and itching scalp. You can get a canthrox shampoo at any first class hairdresser's or buy the canthrox at your druggist's and do your own shampooing. Never shampoo with soap. The alkall streaks, bleaches and eats the very life out of the hair, making it dull and lifeless.

S. M.: To purify the blood, tone up the system, sharpen the appetite, and get new life and strength, there is noth-ing like taking a good tonic. If you will go to any drug store and get one-half pint alcohol and one ounce kardene and mix them together, then add one-half cup sugar and bolling water to make a full quart, you will have one of the best inexpensive and by taking a tablespoon-ful before each meal, you will soon get that of perfect health. This excellent tonic has a most beneficial effect upon the complexion and will brace you up from that "played out" feeling.
