WOOLY GAME GOES TO OAKLAND CREW

Gunner Koestner No Deceiver in Face of Ravenous Wolverines.

San Francisco, Cal., June 22.—The Beavers slipped down another peg in the Pacific Coast league race yesterday when they were defeated by the Oakland nine in a one sided game, 8 to 1.

The Oaks had the better of the argument from the first inning until the last man was retired. Elmer Koestner, one of the Beavers' superior pitchers, lacked control and walked five men and his curves were hit by all the Oaks.

Maggart, who was recently reinstated by Wolverines, celebrated his return to the game by putting the ball over the fence and scoring a runner ahead of him.

Portland's only run was made in the first inning on Chadbourne's hit, an error by Warren and Buddy Ryan's first single.

The Oaks scored in the fifth, two in the sixth and one each in the seventh and eighth.

The Oaks outbatted, outfielded and ran bases better than the Beavers, who were off color for the day.

Tom Seaton will likely work against Ables this afternoon. The score was:

Garrett started the whirligig for the locals, but the hilltop is no place for a fellow who has just kicked out of the hospital traces, and Jesse was bumped for two home runs and a number of other things in the third inning, that all told gave the visitors seven runs. On the other hand Higgins, the Lynch medic, had such a lead after the disastrous third that he let up on his pitching, and as a result the Nicks copped three in the fifth on four clouts, including a double by Williams and a triple to Pettigrew; one in the sixth and four in the eighth on a walk, two singles and doubles by Moore and Casey. Maxmeyer, a southpaw recruit from up the valley, relieved Garrett, and Maxey only allowed four runs and eight bingles while he was on the mound. Maxey's mound manners tickled the Tigers so much that quite a few of them fanned. Maxey will never be a Babe Waddell, but at that he is a bear-cat in the amusement line.
