four straight games for the Oaks, Maggart's double to the right field wall after Pfyl was on base scored the Oaks first run and in the fiext frame Pfyl's home run gave the Oaks three more tailies, for two men were on the bases when the ball went sating over the fence.

Another tally was made in the fifth by the Caks and still another in the sixth. Ryan made two beautiful pegs from the field, Pfyl beating the first them. But Moferen being caught out throw but Hofman being caught out by 10 feet on the second. - Beaton was ineffective and the Oaks pounded out 11 hits, ran bases well, played a bang-up game and deserved The teams will play the fourth gam

Elks Issue Baseball Call, Manager Potitz of the Elks' baseball team has issued a hurry up call for men and Canucks broke even in yesterday's He says that the Elks do not necessarily be on hand.

Player They Owned in 1907.

The Boston Americans are after Buddy Ryan. Judge McCredie yesterday received a tello-gram from John I. Taylor of the Red Soxs asking him to put a price on his budlets, who is just of minor league baseball with his .353 batting avearge and his almost perfect fielding percentage. But John I. is no doubt wasting money on the telegraph companies, for he has as much of a chance to secure the services of the noted Mr. Ryan as he has to take an aeroplane trip to Mars. Buddy is going to Cleveland if Judge McCredie and Nephew Walter know what they are about.

That "gentleman's agreement" between Bomers of Cleveland and the Mc-Gredies of Portland is a fine thing for the Naps as well as for the Beavers. But Boston is taking a chance. Boston in Speaker, Hooper and Lewis has one of the best outfields in baseball, but Taylor is a magnate who doesn't hesitate with "well enough." If he sees a chance of strengthening a few degrees he goes at it. Cleveland needs an outfielder or two. Right now the Naps would give $10,eighth when Stovall doubled to right, took third on a wild pitch and registered on another wild pitch.

Description of the Coast McCredies think too much of the Coast league pennant to part with Ryan even Graney is a little better than Easterly but hardly fast enough to satisfy the demands of Somers. With Ryan playing alongside of the sensa-E. tional Joe Jackson and hitting like he is now, Cleveland would have one of the best outerworks in baseball ranking along with the Bostonians and Deroit's Cobb and Crawford.

Strange enough Boston once had a string on Ryan. That was in 1907, when Buddy was a sensation with the Pueblo club of the Western league. Boston purchased Buddy for $1530 and then turned him over to Portland along with Tom Raftery and Hal Danzig in part exchange for Catcher Pat Donahue. Buddy came to the Beavers in 1908 as third baseman, but after an indiferent showing was switched to the outfield, where he has played regularly since. Buddy wanted to go to Newark of the Eastern league and played more r less in a mediocre fashion, but after being here for a season he grew pleased with the coast climate and now he hates to leave. He is the most popular player Portland has had in years. perhaps in history. He has steadily improved until this year, when, by taking better care of

New York, June 23.—Records com-pared of the Harvard and Yale athletes with those of Oxford and Cambridge show that the Americans will have the better chance to win the Anglo-American meet in England July 11, if past achievements of athletes can count for anything. The four entries in the 100 yard dash have marks of 10 seconds American athletes are credited with the best time in the quarter, half mile and mile events. The Englishmen hope to discard the shotput and two mile run and substitute the three mile event which is unknown here.

Dubious About Fourth. Chicago, June 23.-While a match between Packy McFarland and Harlem

Highlanders Are Active.

New York, June 23.—The effective work of the Highlanders has caused a revival of pennant gossip in New York. Optimists have already decided that the world's championship will be played be-tween the Yanks and the Giants. A 16 to 1 bet against this proposition probably would not bring out a dollar.
