SLUGGING BOUTS PLEASE RING FANS

Five Knockouts Recorded in Smoker Given by Catholic Club.

Tripe into dreamland were quite nu mercus last evening at the boxing smoker given by the Columbus club at Merrill's hall. Of the seven bouts staged, five of them terminated via the "knockout" or "guit" route. The whole affair was nothing but a succession of biff-bang-bings, now you're on your feet and now you're on the canvas,

What promised to be the star bout of the evening's entertainment ended in the second round, when Billy Stevens of the Columbus club remained on the mat after Kid Eyeman had slapped him on the proboscis twice in succession. Stevens started the bout by showing the fans some real classy boxing. He seemed to be making a monkey out of Eyeman, when the latter sent Stevens to the mat with a poke on the kisser for a short count.

When the gong sounded for the secend stanza Stevens rushed over to Eyeman's corner, and before the latter was entirely out of his chair slapped Eyeman on the 'think tank." Eyeman was cool-headed and finally sent Stevens to the mat for the count of nine. Referee Quinn induced Billy to get up and take another wallop on the smeller, and then was good-night for the Columbus

O'Meara Opens Up.

The rough house affair of the evening took place when O'Mears, of the Columbus club, covered up for half a round while a lad named Short wal-loped him all over the ring. It appeared to the fans as though O'Mears was doomed to take a sleep pill, but the unexpected happened when O'Meara let ose a pair of right and left swings that carried Short off his feet and outside of the ring. That was enough for

Meibus and Hanns started out like a couple of champions, but a right swing which landed flush on Hanns' jaw settfed his aspirations for the evening The other bouts of the evening ended with Wand of the Columbus club getting a decision over McNeil, unattached Mahoney of the Columbus club was handed the verdict at the end of the third round over Sam Gross. Archie Swain was handed the decision by the referee in the first round, after Arndt was satisfied that he was never cut out

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

Roth Portland teams had a day off yesterday and found pleasure in a few games of hearts and casino.

The Beavers left Frisco this morning for Sacramento, where they start a seven-game series. Six of the games will be played at the capital and the other on Sunday morning at Stockton.

John Bradley left last evening at 7:40 and will arrive in Sacramento early tomorrow morning. Bradley will have lots of work if that is what "Jawn" cares

Happy Hogan released Willett, who formerly played with Portland. Roy's work has not been up to the standard but a change of clubs may make quite a difference with him.

Fullerton, played with the Portland Coasters, is along with the Seattle team and has four wins dangling to his belt. This kid is a sweet pitcher and is something or any pitcher in the American league, fact that on his first entry into the Northwest league the first man up put one out of the lot; the second man doubled, and-well, before Fully knew it he was three runs to the bad. That wasn't anything for him, so he started ing home on the pitcher's windup. The local fans are sure to give this young ster a good reception.

Huge Vote Brought Out by Mud-Slinging and Bitter Campaign.

Corvallis, Or., June 27.—Possibly not in the history of Corvallis has there been such a large vote polled at a city election as yesterday. Owing to the fact that rain stopped laborers from work the vote was somewhat augmented, but the real cause was a bitter contest beween the conservatives and the progressives of the city. The contention arose over the fact that the present city counoil has laid much hard surface pavement, bonded the city for trunk line sewers and has aroused the ire of the Third warders because the sewer laterals were ordered laid in the streets instead of through the centers of the blocks. Two full city tickets were named and for the past week a mud slinging campaign has been in progress The results are: Mayor, J. F. Yates; chief of police, J. D. Wells; councilmen, Thomas H. Cooper, M.
