

VICTIM OF STRANGE SHOOTING RECOVERS

Edward L. Naylor, Shot carelessly last December by Frank Lenoeker, who at once committed suicide.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Forest Grove, Or., June 27.—After more than six months spent in a Portland hospital suffering from a pistol wound occasioned in a most mysterious shooting affray, Edward L. Naylor, wealthy contractor, has returned to his home in this city. While not fully recovered, Mr. Naylor is practically convalescent.

In an interview Mr. Naylor stated that the story of the shooting as published in The Journal was substantially correct, and that The Journal was the only paper that printed an authentic and ungarbled account of the affair. Mr. Naylor was shot one evening last December, just as darkness had fallen. He had gone to his barn to feed his stock on his farm west of town, and upon leaving the barn observed a man walking some distance from him. Mr. Naylor would have thought nothing of the matter had the man proceeded on his way, as people frequently walk through "Naylor's grove" after dark, but when the man came opposite Naylor he turned and walked toward him. The contractor then asked the stranger in a pleasant tone of voice if he was looking for someone. The man replied with an oath and demanded that Naylor throw up his hands. The latter resented the demand and replied in kind, and immediately thereafter the man fired two shots, one aimed high and the second striking Naylor in the abdomen.

The wounded man then turned and walked toward a dwelling house, calling for assistance, while the gun wielder walked some distance under the trees and fired a shot through his head, dying instantly. The sheriff and coroner were summoned by the aroused citizens, and when the pockets of the dead man were examined papers were found proving him to be Frank Lenoeker, a wealthy fruit raiser of North Yamhill. Lenoeker had just returned from a trip east and on the day of the shooting had purchased a ticket in Portland for his home. Why he came to Forest Grove will ever remain a mystery, as he was absolutely a stranger here. His body was claimed by his family.

Edward L. Naylor, who so nearly lost his life at the hands of Lenoeker, is a native of Forest Grove, being the son of Thomas G. Naylor, one of Oregon's earliest pioneers, who took up a donation land claim here, and donated 80 acres to Pacific university, part of it being the present townsite of Forest Grove. Ed Naylor, as he is known to everyone in Washington county, graduated from Pacific university in 1892. He followed abstracting and notary work for several years, and then took up the raising of Angora goats. He has one of the finest flocks in the state, and took the grand prize with his mohair at the Seattle fair. He is vice president of the Northwest Angora Goat association.

TIMBER LOSS IS SMALL IN CROOK FOREST FIRES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Bend, Or., June 27.—The first forest fires reported in this vicinity this summer have been extinguished before they did any great damage. Near Pine mountain, 30 miles southeast of here, two blazes were started in the Deschutes national forest by lightning, burning over about 1000 acres. They were got under control by two forest officials, and with the aid of a good rain, were put out.

Another fire, 16 miles north of here on the Deschutes, burned over a small stretch of timber owned by individuals. Little difficulty was had in quenching it, owing to the absence of underbrush. Strict patrol of the valuable timber in this section is being kept by the fire wardens, and this, together with the absence of brush, makes a destructive fire unlikely.

TWO WOMEN AND A BOY BADLY HURT IN RUNAWAY

Coquille, Or., June 27.—A very serious accident occurred last Wednesday on the road between this place and Myrtle Point, when a team which Mrs. Ben McMullen, Miss Gamble, who is a nurse from Marshfield, and a small boy, were driving became frightened, capsize the buggy and threw the two women several feet against a fence, fracturing the skull, breaking the collar bone and three ribs of Miss Gamble, and hurting Mrs. McMullen and the boy quite badly.

Horseman Falls Into Deep Ditch.

Salem, Or., June 27.—An independence, Or., race horse man who refused to give his name went into a ditch and was knocked unconscious on a jagged rock at midnight. A river boat landed and a party started uptown. Beebe & Stevenson, contractors, had left a sewer ditch unlighted and the stranger fell in. The ditch was 12 feet deep and has sharp rocks protruding from the walls, so the man was badly lacerated and rendered unconscious. Friends rushed to his rescue, but were tripped over a low cable, thrown into the mud and completely besmeared. The chief of police carted the injured man to a hospital, where he was cleaned and his wounds dressed. As soon as he came to his senses he rushed from the hospital to prevent his name being given publicly.

ANGRY GIRL SHOTS, THREE MEN MAY DIE

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, June 27.—Antonio Fiverone is dead and two other men may die from bullet wounds inflicted by Alitena Saglino, a young girl to whom Fiverone had been paying attentions. The shooting occurred in the street last night when the girl unbraided Fiverone for concealing from her the fact that he was a married man.

A crowd collected and some one urged the angry girl to avenge herself upon her false admirer. She drew a revolver and began firing rapidly. One bullet struck Fiverone and killed him. Two others found lodgment in the bodies of two bystanders and both may also die. Following the shooting, the girl, throwing away her pistol, fought off with a hatpin two policemen who sought to arrest her. She was finally seized from behind and overpowered.

San Diego, Cal., June 27.—F. W. Elliott, chief machinist; J. Q. Jeffries, machinist's mate; and Electrician L. B. Walker, severely burned when the gasoline engine on the submarine Pike "backfired" late yesterday afternoon, will recover, according to reports from the parent ship Iris today.

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do if we were not certain that it would do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.
