

FORMER PORTLAND GIRL, MONA REES, IS WITNESS FOR SEE

She Admits Having Participated in Some of Rites of Apostle's Cult — Tells of Purifying Self of Shame.

Chicago, June 26.—Mona Rees, formerly of Portland, disciple of E. V. Arthur, the "revealer of absolute life," resumed the stand today at the session of the trial for having contradicted the statements of Mildred Bridges, 17, the girl who testified as the coming mother of a perfect race.

Denies Beheading Statement.

The Rees girl was nervous and anything but confident as she related to the jury another day's trial for having contradicted the statements of Mildred Bridges, 17, the girl who testified as the coming mother of a perfect race.

Purified Beliefs of Shame.

Asked if purifying meetings were held in Rees' home, she said she had read in Rees' book, "Absolute Life on Trial," the statements, "With free women and motherhood, absolute life will come to its full strength in the world," or "In the house of the Lord, sex shall not be repudiated."

The state alleges that these expressions by the "revealer" are the foundation of the free love doctrine through which he accomplished the downfall of the Rees and Bridges girls.

STOLE STAMPS TO GET REVENGE ON P. M., AVERS BOY

Charles Bradt, Arrested by Federal Men, Says He Believed Postmaster Responsible for Death of Mother.

Charles F. Bradt Jr., a 17-year-old lad, was arrested by federal officers last night charged with the robbery of a postoffice in North Carolina. When questioned by the deputy marshals the boy broke down, admitted he had stolen from the postoffice, and said he had done so because he believed the postmaster was responsible for the death of his mother.

Between his sobs the boy told the officers how the postmaster at Cronly, a little town near Wilmington, N. C., who was also the village doctor, had treated his mother through a long illness, how she died and that he believed the doctor's carelessness was responsible for his mother's death.

He said the only thing that occurred to him was to get even with the doctor in some way for allowing his mother to die. He thought if he broke into the postoffice and stole the stamps he might bring discredit on the postmaster. He took $25 worth of stamps and with some money that he had made his way to Portland, which seemed to him far enough away from home to be safe.

Through letters he wrote to his father and brother in Cronly the federal officials traced the boy to Portland. He was indicted by the grand jury at Wilmington and United States Marshal Colwell was asked to have him arrested. The deputy marshals looked up the boy's record since he has been in Portland and found it to be excellent. He got work the day after he arrived and has kept his place since then, giving satisfaction and proving himself trustworthy.

DERELICT HUSBANDS MUST PAY $25 EACH

Frank L. Flondon and Dudley Beamer were ordered yesterday afternoon by County Judge Cleaton to pay their wives $25 a month for support, or go to the rockpile. The men asked for a little time to get friends to go on their bail so they can go back to work and earn the required amounts.

The wife of Beamer told the judge that her husband has refused to support her and their three children for several weeks. She said she had to work to get money to keep herself and little ones. He is a plumber and about 30 years old.

Mrs. Flondon said her husband squandered $5000 belonging to her and now refuses to work. The judge severely lectured Flondon, and told him if he does not go to work, he would go to the rockpile.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nelson settled their trouble, and he agreed to support her. The judge asked him to put up a bond to keep the agreement.

"MEDDLED" WHEN HE SHOT VON PHUL — MRS. SPRINGER

Society "Woman in the Case" Says There Would Have Been No Tragedy If Henwood Had Kept Still.

Denver, Colo., June 27.—Declaring that if Frank H. Henwood had not "meddled" in her affairs the Brown Palace hotel tragedy in which George Copeland and "Tony" Von Phu were killed, would never have occurred, Mrs. John Springer, society woman, told her own story of her connection with Von Phu here today at Henwood's trial.

Henwood admitted he was married, but estranged from his wife and two children, who are in New York.

In rebuttal of Henwood's story of what occurred the night he shot Von Phu and Copeland, Van R. Hall testified that a few minutes before Von Phu was shot Henwood told him "stick around. There is liable to be something doing with Von Phu."

Henwood was cross examined today. He admitted that while he was in New York with Springer from April 29 to May 12 he exchanged frequent telegrams with Mrs. Springer, although he scarcely knew her then. He denied a question by the prosecutor, who asked if he was not in Mrs. Springer's room at Springer's ranch near here on May 19 until 3 o'clock in the morning, when he sent the maid away and then "tore off Mrs. Springer's nightgown."

Lillian Robbins, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. A. L. Robbins of the Kern Park district, eloped last night with John Beers, a plumber, who has barely reached his majority. The Portland police and the county clerks here and in Vancouver, Wash., and in Oregon City, have been asked by Mrs. Robbins to aid in finding the pair.
