

W. MCCARTHY GETS ONE TO 20 YEARS

Judge Gantenben Holds Man Not Worthy of Parole—Scores Prisoner.

An indeterminate sentence ranging from 1 to 20 years in the state prison was given William McCarthy yesterday by Presiding Judge Gantenben of the circuit court. McCarthy was found guilty by a jury last week of enticing girls to Alaska for immoral purposes. In passing sentence, Attorney John Stephenson, representing the man, asked the court to take into consideration the recommendations of the jury and the standing of the three women who testified against McCarthy.

"While the three witnesses against this man were women of questionable character I believe they told the truth," said Judge Gantenben. "However, this defendant knew their reputation, and by his own admission he chose their company. I believe he has been dodging around the danger line for some time. I do not think a parole in this case proper. A man who attempts to do what he did deserves little or no consideration. Two of these women are under 18 years of age, and he would have taken them into the Alaska mining country to ply an immoral trade for his benefit."

Sheriff Stevens arrested McCarthy early this spring in his movement to stop the practice of chauffeurs enticing girls of tender age to the road-houses. The sheriff arrested the man the day before he planned leaving with the girls for Seattle, where they would take a boat to Cordova, Alaska.

GREAT AREA DRENCHED BY HEAVY FALL OF RAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.) Winnipeg, Man., June 27.—Heavy rains have visited many parts of the west. Winnipeg, Brandon, Saskatoon, Lethbridge and many other places being deluged for several hours on Saturday night and Sunday morning.

At Shoal Lake and Stony Mountain, both in Manitoba, buildings were fired by lightning, while at many places cellars were inundated and much damage was caused by goods being spoiled by the water.

The rain seemed to be heaviest in southern Alberta. It is reported, however, that crops suffered but little from the excess of moisture due to the recent frequent rains, and in some cases phenomenal growth has resulted, a case in point being Saskatoon, where in some sections the grain is almost 36 inches high.

BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS DRAW PACKED HOUSES

Those who go up to the Baker to see a small vaudeville and motion picture show are invariably surprised at the really big bill that is being offered. Three or four vaudevilles acts and at least two reels of first run motion pictures mark each performance.

Packed houses greeted all the performances yesterday while the new vaudeville acts were well received, some of them with great enthusiasm. Corriani's trained angora goats is the headline act, and is highly pleasing and amusing. Other acts are James Riley, an entertaining monologist, who tells stories and sings character songs, the Three Eldorado Sisters, in a lively acrobatic dancing with gorgeous costumes. Sergeant Mears the bugler giving bugle calls and imitations showing life in a military camp. Larose brothers in a novel knock about tumbling act introducing the trick house and comedy stunts. Four of the Baker company appear in an interesting sketch, written by Melville Brown of this city.

NEXT BOZORTH REUNION WILL BE AT VANCOUVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Woodland, Wash., June 27.—The Bozorth family reunion was attended by about 100 of the members of the family, the meeting taking place in the hall above the store of A. L. Bozorth. Reports of the various officers, speeches, singing and general felicitation were the order of exercises until noon when dinner was served. It was decided to hold the next meeting, which will be the eight annual reunion, at Vancouver, Wash., as while the Lewis river valley is the scene of the first settlement of the family a good many of the members live in Portland, Vancouver and sections of Oregon, so it was decided to hold the meeting at a more central point for the convenience of all concerned.

Bakowski's blankets on the line.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Medford, Or., June 27.—Snow is now going out fast at Crater Lake and the body of B. B. Bakowski, the daring Bend, Or., photographer, who died in the great snow drift in some Crater Lake chasm while on a trip to take winter pictures around the great Oregon wonder, will possibly soon be found. Search by Superintendent F. W. Arant and several others while the snow was deep proved futile, although Bakowski's blankets and other camping paraphernalia were found. The accompanying pictures show his equipment just after being taken from the snow and placed on a sledge and after being stretched on a line to dry.

HARRIS' DEATH NOT DUE TO SUICIDE; HEART FAILS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hillsboro, Or., June 27.—Unfounded rumors of suicide and death by poisoning prevailed at the funeral of W. H. Harris, which took place Sunday. Harris went to a Hillsboro drug store for medicine Friday morning and died the same night. The death certificate gave angina pectoris as the cause, and it was to relieve the pain that he purchased anti-pain tablets at the drug store. The attending physician who was called later gave the opinion that death would have followed in any event from the attack, but the fact that the tablets had been taken prevented the use of drugs to relieve the pain.

Harris was 64 years old and came to Hillsboro last spring from Albany. He had had previous attacks of the heart affection.

DRUNKEN GUARDS SLAY AMERICANS

Mexican Soldiers, Celebrating, Alleged to Have Killed Citizens of United States.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Diego, Cal., June 27.—That the United States government will take action following the reported atrocities committed upon innocent American citizens at Alamo, Lower California, is the prediction of authorities here today. Following the failure of the federal district attorney to act, H. B. Utley, district attorney of San Diego county, has taken the depositions of D. W. Church, one of the witnesses of the killing of Dr. A. L. Foster, John G. Carroll, Patrick Glennon and Constantine Dubola at Alamo, and this, with the depositions of other witnesses who escaped a similar fate when the Mexican guards became intoxicated, will be sent to the authorities at Washington.

Army officials and immigration men here refused to take up the case when appealed to. In taking Church's deposition, District Attorney Utley stated that he was "doing no more than any American citizen should do under the circumstances."

Governor Vega of Lower California has announced that there is as much security for the life and property of American citizens in Lower California as in the United States.
