IN SOCIETY

It is the desire of The Journal to cover as wide a range as possible in its social department and to that end the readers of this column are invited to send in any items of interest, such as guests in town, journeys taken and entertainments incident to social life. Such news should be addressed to the society editor and must reach the office before 10 a. m. If it is to appear in that day's issue, it is imperative that such communications be accompanied by the name of the sender, which does not mean that it is to be published in connection with the item.

Mrs. F. M. Tuttle was hostess at a large affair last evening given in honor of Mrs. Frank Kelsey, of Tacoma, who has returned to make her home in Peace land, the Misses Ruth and Genevieve Church, who have completed a tour of the world, and Dr. J. C. Elliott King and Dr. F. A. Kiehle, who are about to leave for Europe. Japanese lanterns lighted the Tuttle grounds with pretty effect. In the music room near the piano a beautiful wall panel was designed of marguerites on a background of green. A cluster of Chantney roses centered the table in the dining room, where Mrs. J. C. Elliott King and Mrs. W. A. Leidy served tea, assisted by Miss Lucy Powell and the Misses Rachael and Constance King. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Jacob Hill Cook, Mrs. J. H. Haak and Mrs. Joseph A. Applewhite. During the evening Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. F. P. Dabney read letters from the Misses Church written from India, Japan and Spain. Kelsey read a number of poems with piano accompaniment by Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, and Judge C. U. Gantenbein did some verses to the guests departing for Europe. An orchestra, stationed on the second floor, added to the enjoyment of the affair, which is the fifth of a series given by Mrs. Tuttle since her return from New York. Mrs. Tuttle's guest list includes Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bitts, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hill Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Powell, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Dabney, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Nash, Prof. and Mrs. D. A. Groat, Mr. and Mrs. Lyell Baker, Judge and Mrs. C. U. Gantenbein, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Mr. and Mrs. William Leidy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haak, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bunker, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Applewhite, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Chance, Miss Laura Fox, Misses Rachael and Constance King, Miss Lucy Powell, Miss Dorothea Nash, Mrs. Simpson, Miss Horrook, Mrs. Alice E. Runyon, and Mrs. R. D. Cannon, for a month. Mrs. Cannon was a luncheon hostess today, complimenting Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Sterling Campbell of Eureka, Cal.

An interesting personage who will arrive in Portland on Friday is Madame Elsie Duncan, the brilliant lyric soprano, who will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Gardner. Madame Duncan is better known abroad, where she ranks among the great artists. She has spent many years in England, only returning to America some two years ago. This will be the first time that Mrs. Gardner and her sister have met for over 20 years.

Miss Marguerite Bosche has invited guests for a luncheon on Friday honoring Miss Blanche Dorothy Schott, whose marriage to Walter H. Yerlan will take place July 12. Miss Mabel Weed is complimenting Miss Schott this afternoon.

Robert R. Boyer came down from Vancouver last week to join Mrs. Boyer and remain for a time as the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. O. Wold.

Mrs. John West will be a hostess at military whist Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Antia R. Hill arrived yesterday from Santa Rosa, Cal., and will visit her sisters, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, and Mrs. R. D. Cannon, for a month. Mrs. Cannon was a luncheon hostess today, complimenting Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Sterling Campbell of Eureka, Cal.

Mrs. J. Horace Luckett has planned an afternoon of five hundred tomorrow for her sisters, the Misses Ruth and Sam Montgomery, of Fort Worth, Texas, who are spending the summer in Portland. Mrs. Luckett returned a fortnight ago from Fort Worth, where she had been visiting for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duncan are giving a studio at home tomorrow for their friends at their Ford street studio. The performance of Elektra, to be given at Rockholm, has been set for Saturday night. In case of more inclement weather Mr. Duncan is considering giving the performance in Portland that night and inviting the public.

Mrs. M. E. Steinfeldt arrived Saturday from her home in Los Angeles to spend a week as the guest of Mrs. J. O. Tremblay, who entertained about 25 guests in her honor last evening.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, who has been reelected president of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, at the sixth congress of the alliance at Stockholm, Sweden. A thousand delegates from Europe, the United States, Australia and South Africa were present at the opening of the congress.

THE BATHERS' PARADE

Written for The Journal by DARRA MORE.
A read: "The increasing custom of enjoying the pleasures of the beaches without bathing brings into the season's modes many more elaborate designs than we have known for many seasons. Designers have been most happy in many effective combinations in which hats, shoes, sun shades and costumes are all made of the same material. We might describe many entirely new features we have brought out this season both in beach costumes and bathing suits."

All of which means that it is no longer so ringer to bathe in the billowy surf. All real bathing is to be done in private, behind the four walls of a salt water sanitarium and the like. It is to be strictly conventional. The smart thing is to "beach" it, which phrase translated means the donning of a fascinating bathing suit, fashioned of the most expensive and sheersat materials, together with the thinnest of silk stockings, the smartest of smart footwear, a dream of a coquette's cap, topped by a "swagger stick," some times known as the flirt's sunshade. The rest consists of parading up and down the beach attracting all the attention that can be gathered together. Thus, the oldest joke in the English language is no longer a joke, but the very latest demand of "Correct Deportment at the Seashore."

"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Oh, yes, my darling daughter; Hang your clothes on a hickory limb. But don't go near the water."

And, now comes the real answer. It comes straight from the women who know, too. She is the head of an up to the minute shop, and she says:
"Women have always known that the water makes them look like drowned rats. Sensible women that like to swim, do so in private. Strolling on the beach in a sublimated bathing costume, however, is different. It is not only harmless and pleasant, but it is a positive advantage in the setting forth of a good figure."

If You Have No Ice.
The July Woman's Home Companion contains a suggestion for the housekeeper who gets along without ice: "Obtain a large, common flower pot and seal the hole in the bottom with plaster of Paris. Place in the pot the bottle containing butter, or a covered crock containing butter, and fill the pot with water to a great depth as possible without the bottle or crock floating. Cover the pot with a board or plate and set out in the open air, away from the direct sunlight, and preferably where there is a current of air. The evaporation of the water from the surface of the porous pot will keep the contents several degrees colder than the outside air, when there is the slightest amount of air stirring. The higher the wind, or the drier the air, the greater will be the cooling effect."

Dishes From Cherries

By Mrs. Anna B. Scott.
New in cherry season, and let us enjoy them while we may. There is nothing that we can make at this time of the year to beat cherry pie, roly poly or dumplings. We can also use left-over cereal cream of wheat or puffed wheat with cherries, and make a delicious luncheon or supper dish.

In the morning when we are preparing cereal for breakfast, and want enough to have cold for luncheon, use two cups instead of one. Take that which is left over, put into a mold that has been rinsed in cold water and set in an ice-cold place until ready to use. Take two cups pitted cherries and one cup sugar, mix and set in cold place until ready for use. When ready, turn the mold out into a deep dish, put the cherries around and pour the juice over the top. If the large, black cherries are used it makes a very attractive-looking dish. The amount of sugar used depends on the cherries; if they are very sour, more sugar is needed.

Following are some good recipes for cherries:

Cherry Pie.
1 1/2 cups flour.
1/4 teaspoon lard.
1 1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 1/2 cups pitted cherries.
1 1/2 tablespoons sugar.
1 teaspoon milk.
Sift flour and salt into bowl, add the lard and rub in lightly with the tips of the fingers, add ice water, just a little at a time and just enough to hold the dough together. Divide the dough into two parts, roll out one part on floured bakeboard and line pieplate, which has been dusted with flour, then sprinkle one tablespoon flour on the lower crust, add the cherries and sugar, roll out balance of the dough, wet the edges of the lower crust with a little water, cover and press the edges firmly together, put three or four airholes in the top of pie and brush with the milk. Bake about 40 minutes and be sure that the cherries are well cooked and the pie well baked on the bottom. The amount of sugar used is a matter of taste, and if more is desired it can be added.

Steamed Cherry Pudding.
1 cup flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1/4 teaspoon salt.
1/2 cup milk.
1 egg.
1 cup pitted cherries.
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon butter.
Sift flour, salt and baking powder into a bowl, add the milk and egg-beaters, then the cherries and sugar, mix all well together, butter small mold or pan, put in the pudding and steam 2 1/2 hours. Serve with any sauce desired, or with a sauce made as follows:

Chop one cup pitted cherries very fine, add one cup sugar and boil 10 minutes; serve with the steamed pudding.
Cherry Roly Poly.
1 cup flour.
1/4 teaspoon baking powder.
1/4 teaspoon salt.
1 cup sugar.
1 cup pitted cherries.
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon butter.
1 teaspoon milk.
Sift flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl, rub in the shortening very lightly with the tips of the fingers, add just enough cold water to hold the dough together, dust the bakeboard with flour, roll out the dough about an eighth of an inch thick, cover with the pitted cherries and sugar (serving one tablespoon sugar to sprinkle over the top). Roll the same as a jelly roll, put into buttered pudding pan, brush the top with milk and sprinkle the tablespoon sugar over, take the butter that is left and put over the top in little bits, cover and bake 30 minutes, then uncover and bake 30 minutes longer. When you uncover you can add one cup of milk to the roly poly if desired. Serve with brandy or wine sauce.

Cherry Dumplings.
1 cup flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1/4 teaspoon salt.
1 cup sugar.
1 cup pitted cherries.
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon butter.
1 teaspoon milk.
1 teaspoon lard.
Sift the flour, salt and baking powder into a bowl, add the lard and rub in lightly with the tips of the fingers, add just enough cold water to hold the dough together, roll out on floured bakeboard, about an eighth of an inch thick, cut into eight parts. Divide the cherries and sugar into eight parts, and put one-eighth on each piece of dough. Wet the edges of each dumpling with a little cold water, so that they will stick together, shape in the hands, put into a buttered bake-dish. Brush the tops lightly with milk and sprinkle a little sugar on each one, put the balance of the butter on in little bits. Cover and bake 30 minutes, uncover and bake 30 minutes longer. When uncovering the dumplings, you can add one cup of milk. Serve with any sauce desired.

Burning Money.

From New York Press.
A Georgia woman sent for the colored man who has been her servant for many years. She sent for old mammy, and the servant arrived in due season. It so happened that the Georgia woman had to leave town the very day mammy arrived. Before departing she had just time to explain to mammy the modern conveniences with which her apartment was furnished. The gas stove was the contrivance which interested the colored woman most. After the mistress of the household had lighted the oven the broiler and the other burners and felt certain her old servant understood its operations, the mistress hurried for her train.
She was absent two weeks and on one of her first questions to mammy was how she had worried along.
"De fines' ever," was the reply. "And dat air gas stove—oh, my. Why, do you know, Miss Fio-ence, dat fire ain't gone out yit!"

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions.

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview on the subject, made the following statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that, judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—fifty-cents and one-dollar. However, if you wish first to test its wonderful merits, send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, absolutely free. When writing be sure and mention the Portland Daily Journal.
