SOLONS CAPTURE OPENING CONTEST

Three Runs in One Inning Shove Champions Back Into Third.

Sacramento, Cal., June 25.—The Sacramento team grabbed the first game of the series from the Portland club yesterday afternoon 4 to 3. The Beavers machine, with the addition of Richard Neibinger, formerly of the Boston Red Sox, went to pieces for a moment in the fourth inning, and when they settled down the locals had tied the score by making three runs.

The Beavers tallied on three occasions in the second, third and fourth innings, but after that byram was invincible. The Senators could not do anything till the fourth, when Van Buren beat out a hit, Danzig was out and then the blowup was started. Neibinger muffed Mahoney's grounder and Kuhn dropped Peck's peg of Heister's grounder. Van Buren scoring. La Longe stroled and Lerchen filed out. Byram bunted and Koestner in throwing to first hit the pitcher on the shoulders, and the ball bounded off and two more tallies were counted up, tying the score. The game was even till the last half of the ninth, and then after two were out, Lerchen singled and Koestner could not locate the plate and caused his defeat by walking. Byram. Shinn won the game after Byram was walked with a dinky single over the second base. Manager McCredie will rely on Benny Henderson to save the Beavers from getting further away from first place today. The Beavers are now in third place by two points.

GRESHAM FOURTH TO BE BIG AFFAIR

Driving Club Will Race Fast Horses in General Sport Program.

Gresham will be a sport center on Independence Day, when the Gresham-Riverside Amusement association holds its first program of the season. One of the chief events will be the opening of the new half mile race track. Horses belonging to members of the Riverside Driving club of Portland, will race. Races will be hung up, and friendly rivalry has already cropped out. The members are training their fast going steppers at the Country club track, awaiting the complete finish of the Gresham track.

The Gresham track is declared to be one of the best in these parts. A number of prominent horsemen were in Gresham Sunday inspecting the track, and declared themselves well satisfied that fast time would be made. The meet is being given jointly by the Gresham-Riverside Amusement association and the Gresham Grange, and they are going to extremes to make the meet a successful one. An automobile race will also be staged, four fast cars being entered. Several broncho busting features will also amuse the crowds during the intervals between the racing heats. This will go along with the tedious waits that so many of the race followers dislike. Several other features will be pulled off in the afternoon in conjunction with the race meeting. To morning hours will also be filled with amusement, a big parade being pulled off. There also will be running races, including a fat man's race. The heaviest men in Gresham and vicinity have promised to enter and this will serve to amuse the crowds. The committee have other plans under consideration and they will be announced later. Dancing will be in full swing in the afternoon and evening.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power company will run cars every half hour, and the trains will be large enough to accommodate the crowds. Also the new Mt. Hood Electric company will run a special excursion train out of Portland and also out of Bull Run, so that people from both sides of Gresham will be accommodated.

FANS REGARD SWITCH OF TIGERS AS JOKE

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—Reports that the St. Louis Browns and the Detroit Tigers would switch cities are branded as a joke today by the men who would be involved in the deal, should such a move be made. The local fans are not alarmed over the possibility of losing their team. President Navin says there is nothing he knows about the situation which would warrant taking the Tigers away and Ban Johnson says there is no foundation for such a rumor. Owner Hedges of the Browns laughs at the report.

VICTORIOUS CREW IN POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA

Poughkeepsie, June 25.—Cornell's great eight won the annual intercollegiate rowing race by two lengths yesterday with Columbia second and topped off the afternoon by capturing the varsity fours and finishing second to Columbia in the freshman eights. The big eight race of the afternoon between Cornell and Columbia was the most exciting seen in years with both in the lead time and again until Cornell sprang in the last quarter of a mile and beat Columbia by two lengths in the fastest time of 20:10. Columbia was second, Pennsylvania third, Wisconsin fourth and Syracuse fifth.

After a big spurt by Wisconsin at the start the Badgers were soon left behind and were never again a factor. Fighting every inch for the victory, Cornell and Columbia roared ahead of each other and time again, until at the last the superior power of the Ithacans told and they captured the blue ribbon of the Hudson, crossing the line in 20:10 4-5. Columbia was second across in 20:16 4-5.

Cornell's magnificent effort at the close of the race landed the Ithacans a winner by two lengths, with Pennsylvania second, Wisconsin and Syracuse following in the order named. So severe was the pace set by Cornell that Columbia was utterly rowed out at the finish. Just at the New Yorkers crossed the line their bow collapsed and in a minute more than half of the crew were in a state of complete exhaustion in the bottom of their shells.

Badgers Jumped into the Lead. When, at the crack of the starter's pistol, the varsity crews swept past the starting line, Wisconsin for a short time was in the lead. The Badgers soon fell back however, and Pennsylvania and Columbia began drawing away. They held the lead for only a few minutes, however, Cornell soon passing them. The Ithacans led at the mile, with Columbia second and Pennsylvania third. Cornell and Columbia were fully three lengths ahead at the mile with Wisconsin slightly ahead of the tail enders. At the two miles Cornell was a scant half length ahead and soon after Columbia crept into the lead, with Cornell, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Syracuse following in the order named. Soon after Columbia, pulling well together, hit up the stroke and opened a clear length ahead of the Ithacans, the New Yorkers at that time being fully 10 lengths ahead of Syracuse. For a few seconds Columbia showed great speed and Pennsylvania, putting their backs into it, began pulling up on Cornell, seemingly seriously threatening to head the favorites.

While no official time was taken of the varsity fours, it was a great race. Courtney's Cornell wonders were hard pressed by Syracuse and succeeded in winning by half a length. Columbia was two lengths behind Syracuse and Penn was beaten badly, being 20 lengths in the rear. Columbia came into her own in the freshman eight, winning for the first time since 1895. Cornell was a close second. Fifty thousand people saw the races.

M'CARTHY DEFEATS FORMER NEGRO STAR

San Francisco, June 25.—Youth, ruggedness and weight won for Johnny McCarthy in a decision here over Rufe Turner, the old time negro lightweight. In a four round battle, McCarthy was always the aggressor and before the battle had well started, he sent Turner to the floor. The decision was the only one that could have been made.

Fritz Holland was given the verdict over Rufus Williams, another negro pugilist, after four rounds of milling. Roy Moore and Kid Barnes broke even in their bout, while Ed. Petrovsky beat Jack Drumgoole, of Chicago. Johnny Murphy, Billy Holmes and Solder Quinn won their matches.

Delhi Sold to Chicago. Los Angeles, Cal., June 25.—Lee Delhi, mainstay of the pitching staff of the Los Angeles club, today is the property of the Chicago White Sox. Although he refused to name the figure, President Berry declared he received the highest price for Delhi ever paid for a Coast league pitcher. The amount is believed to be around $6000, and in addition Berry is to get a White Sox recruit. Delhi will not be delivered to Comiskey until after this season.

Packey Offered Fight. Chicago, June 25.—Although the match between Packey McFarland and Tommy Murphy has been called off, Packey need not loaf, for he is today in receipt of a wire stating that he is wanted to go on July 4 with Young Ahern by the Knickerbocker Athletic club of New York.

Brown Will Referee. Chicago, June 25.—Everett C. Brown, president of the National Amateur Athletic Union, will referee the national championship games in Pittsburgh, June 30 and July 1. More athletes than ever before will be seen at these games.

HITCH IN REFEREE FOR FOURTH SCRAP

Wolgast Asks for Welch But Mason Has Mentioned Another Official.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, June 25.—Selection of a referee to arbitrate the Wolgast-Moran bout here July 4 probably will be made late today. A meeting to settle the question is to be held as the sequel to an abortive discussion yesterday afternoon. Wolgast's manager, Jones, is holding out strongly for Jack Welch and while Moran's manager Hanvey, has mentioned Eddie Smith, Jack Root, Ben Belg and others, it is probable Welch will be chosen.

Neither Moran nor Wolgast is expected to go any boxing today. Moran will ease off as he is now at 180 pounds and Wolgast will give his face a chance to heal. It has been much cut up in hard workouts with his sparring partners, Marty Kane, Hobo Dougherty and "One Round" Hogan. Yesterday Wolgast went nine full rounds with the trio, three each, and showed fine form. The betting today is still 10 to 1 in favor of Moran, but the British short order, as Moran's training has undoubtedly tightened up his arms and body and has done him a great deal of good.

The advance seat sale for the bout has been so good that one of the biggest crowds on record is likely to see the fray. American Yacht Wins. Kiel, Germany, June 25.—The Bibilot, owned by Harry Whitney of the New York Yacht club and R. E. Emmons of the Eastern Yacht club, won the fourth of the series of international races here for second class yachts.

NICKS CHALLENGE BEAVERS TO JOUST

Manager Nick Williams of the Portland Northwestern league team, hereby issues a challenge to Manager Walter McCredie of the Portland Coast league team, to play for the championship of the city of Portland, provided a suitable date can be named on which to play for the title. Williams and his men are serious in this matter. They think they can trim the Beavers before a home crowd and would like nothing better than a chance at their senior brethren.

But just how a game can be arranged has the fans guessing, unless there is some special dispensation on the part of somebody. About the only convenient date late in the season is September 25, which marks the beginning of the last week of Coast league baseball in Portland and the last week of the season in the Northwestern league. The Beavers will have this Monday as a day of rest pending the arrival of San Francisco on Tuesday for the closing series, while the Nicks will be scheduled to open in Spokane. The Northwestern league closes its season October 1 with Portland at Spokane. There will be no chance to play October 2, for on that date the Beavers will be aboard the train for Los Angeles, where they are scheduled to open up with Vernon Wednesday, October 4.

From the looks of things it will be impossible to get the two clubs together. The Nicks are a bit resentful because somebody with more time than anything else, wrote a challenge on the club house door when the champions were here last and signed it the "Unbeatable Beavers." "Nerve," the Nicks snort, and they want to take the conceit out of the club that humbled the Spokane Northwestern league champions last year. But evidently the schedule makers forgot about these inter-league rivalries and failed to provide a loophole for a game. It is out of the question to keep the Nicks together to play a game against the present Coast champions after the season officially closes.

Bloomy Has Best Curves. But in a discussion of pitchers in the Northwestern league yesterday afternoon when the rain was falling hardest, Flieder let out two interesting tidbits. One was that Fred Annis, the Tacoma southpaw was the best portside flinger in the league because he had nice breaks to his balls and knew what he was about when he was in the center of the diamond. The other is the information that Billy Bloomfield has by far the best curves in the league both from a standpoint of width and sharp-breaking tendency.

Old Ball Player Here. Edwin F. Chapter, who used to be a college ball player and a mate of Charley Ziegler and Bob Brown at Pen-dleton in the old Eastern Oregon leagues, and who might have become a star in upper class baseball, had a few games with Nick Williams yesterday with the ivory bulbs. Chappie thought being a commercial traveler was more prosperous than baseball and stuck to peddling his wares. Now he is running a cafe in Montana and doing well.

Flieder Jones Cautions. It is only once in a while that Flieder Jones, the former manager of the White Sox, can be jimmied out of an expression of opinion. Flieder is one shrewd judge of human nature and a close companion can't find out anything when he chooses to be close-mouthed. Relative to this attribute of Jones, nothing illustrates it better than an argument between two fans as to whether or not Bill Rapps was the best first baseman in the league. It was decided to leave the matter to the judgment of Flieder after a bet had been placed. Neither better knew Jones well enough to ask him his opinion outright, but one was acquainted with a very good friend of the man who led Chicago into a world's championship. This person was approached and volunteered to give the information. Imagine the Net-tors' surprise when their emissary came back with the information that all Jones would vouchsafe was that Rapps was as good as any of them.

Nebinger With Boston Team. Nebinger, who played second base for the Beavers yesterday, can't get to the coast in the first place with the Boston Red Sox and was tried at third. After Boston had settled on its infield he was turned over to Sacramento from whom he was secured by McCredie. He showed pretty well in the training tour in the games the writer saw in California.

Tighe Looks Like Seybold. Jack Tighe, the Seattle manager, when dolled out in his uniform, is a dead ringer for Socks Seybold, the former Athletic outfielder, according to "Lammy" Lamline, the Nicks' clever right-hander, who is a great friend of Seybold. "Sam" Kennedy has discovered that Lamline resembles his old friend "Red" Ames, the New York Giant. All of which reminds one that ball players like ladies of the chorus, are known by their shapes.

Lobbing Doesn't Go. Ole Olson isn't making such a hit in the fielding line with the Naps, and may be benched until he learns how to cut loose after fielding the ball. Olson has been lobbing the ball over from deep short the same as he used to do out here and fast men have been beating his throws and chalking them up as hits. It is likely that he will be switched to short as soon as LaJole gets back in the game and played regularly there, Ole being compelled to warm the bench.

Alvord Would Be Umps. Billy Alvord, the former big leaguer, who made his headquarters in Portland last winter, is now in Los Angeles and is anxious to hook up with some league as an umpire.

Ariett Making Great Record. Here's one from the San Francisco Chronicle relative to a California boy we had with us at the Santa Maria training camp: By his nine consecutive victories "Pop" Ariett has again attracted the attention of Manager McCredie, who is seriously thinking of giving the stalwart young pitcher another chance. Ariett continues to conquer them all, and has really made himself a sensation in the Central league race.

Hope Berry Gets Better Deal. The sale of "Flame" Delhi to the Chicago White Sox for a big price and another pitcher recalls the sale of Walter Nagle to Pittsburgh for a price and a pitcher. It is to be hoped that Henry Berry gets a better deal from Comiskey than he did from Puyfues. The Pirate manager turned Couchman over to Berry in exchange for Nagle, and he was a bitter disappointment. Right here it might be remarked that the Coast league is too fast for a lot of these fellows the majors think of turning over, as in the case of Fanwell, who performed for a while with Cleveland late last season, but who was knocked gallely west every time he started for the Beavers.

No Sentiment in Baseball. There is no sentiment in baseball. Tommy Leach, who has given the best years of his life for the Pittsburg club, is the subject of a request for waivers. Barney Dreyfus, owner of the Buccaners, requested Manager Clarke to tell Leach about it. Clarke approached his long time friend and as gently as he could broke the news to him. "That's all right, Fred," said Leach, "go ahead and ask waivers. I'm getting sick of this thing." Leach injured his leg and was "laying down" on him and wanted him to work anyhow, but Leach refused. Clarke doesn't say whether he will leave the Pirates.
