

LATEST Ring : Track SPORTING Field : Diamond NEWS

NICKS AND TURKS BREAK EVEN WITH GARRETT WINNER

Frank Eastley Arises From Sickbed and Pitches Great Gamé But Is Outlucked by Zacher.

Manager Nick Williams sent two cripples to the firing line yesterday—Jess Garrett and Frank Eastley—and one delivered in great style, while the other was beaten out of his game by the narrow margin of one run.

A large Saturday crowd saw the double header yesterday and no doubt the largest crowd of the season will be out today to witness the double header, the first game starting at 2 o'clock.

Except in one inning Garrett was the master of the situation in the first game. Of course Jess was helped by the great pinch hitting of Pettigrew, but from the kind of ball he was pitching he deserved to win his game.

One Turk reached third in the first inning, with two out, but the Texan fanned Bues when he goes to the New York Giants this fall. In the second Weed opened with a single and took third on Ort's single, but Mentor saved the Nicks by relaying Raymond's grounder to the plate ahead of Weed.

Pettigrew started the run-getting and incidentally his timely clouting in the second inning. He rode a two-bagger to left field fence, took third on Coltrin's sacrifice and galloped home on Harris' slam to left. In this inning Ort, the ex-Nick, robbed Mundorff of an extra base hit by stabbing a liner over first and pulling a regular circus stunt before he finally held fast to the globe.

Seattle nabbed the lead in the third, when they made their brace of scores. Bues was a flyout to Mundorff, and Weed was caught stealing after he singled. Ort smashed a two-baser to left and this was followed by Raymond's walk on a beautiful third strike.

Seattle nabbed the lead in the third, when they made their brace of scores. Bues was a flyout to Mundorff, and Weed was caught stealing after he singled. Ort smashed a two-baser to left and this was followed by Raymond's walk on a beautiful third strike.

(Continued on Page Five.)

PORTLAND WILL MAKE STRONG BID IN OAR REGATTA

North Pacific Sculling Titles Will Be Fought Out by Three Clubs on Willamette This Month.

Preparations are practically complete for the rowing regatta of the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen which will be held here next Friday and Saturday, July 7 and 8.

The course which is to be gone over is one and a half miles in length and extends from the old White House to the Sellwood ferry. The pleasure boat house of the Portland Rowing club will be taken to the ferry for the convenience of the oarsmen.

Three Events Each Day. Three events, fours, doubles and singles, will be rowed in each of the two divisions, seniors and juniors.

Portland will also have an extra entry in the junior single and two extras in the junior four race.

The Portland crews have been working for this regatta since early this spring and are in excellent shape. Ed Gloss, the veteran single sculler, is in the best condition and highest he has been for a number of years.

Paul Weesinger and Henry Wagner have presented the association with a beautiful silver cup, valued at $200, to be known as the Henry Wagner perpetual rowing trophy for junior fours.

Each of the other events has its perpetual trophy and in addition there are medals for the individual members of the winning crews.

If the Portland senior four wins their race the club is planning to send them back to the national regatta, which will be held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 28 and 29, where they would meet the greatest oarsmen in the United States and Canada.

The visitors are to be the guests of honor at a dance at the Portland clubhouse Friday evening and after the races are completed there will be a banquet at the Commercial club Saturday evening.

The annual meeting of the association will be held Friday morning, at which officers for the coming year will be elected and all business transacted.

Senior Fours. Vancouver Rowing club—G. N. Stacey, stroke; A. C. Black, No. 3; F. H. N. Whiting, No. 2; G. E. Chaffey, bow. Portland Rowing club—J. J. White, stroke; J. Helwig, No. 3; E. A. Hanson, No. 2; A. A. Allen, bow.

Junior Fours. Vancouver Rowing club—E. Meachen, stroke; B. E. Scott, No. 3; R. H. Gales, No. 2; A. Marbacher, bow. Portland Rowing club, No. 1 crew—

(Continued on Page Five.)

CREWS WHICH TAKE PART IN COMING CHAMPIONSHIP REGATTA

Crack junior oarsmen of the Portland Rowing club who will row July 7 and 8. Above—J. H. McDonald, bow; A. R. Lewellen, No. 2; R. Z. Myers, No. 3, and D. G. Cooper, stroke. Middle—V. D. Stone, bow; L. R. Prater, No. 2; P. DeMarr, No. 3, and H. G. Chickering, stroke. Below—V. Dent, bow; E. O. Gloss, No. 2; O. J. Hosford, No. 3, and E. S. Tuck, stroke.

TENNIS TITLES TO BE SETTLED ON LOCAL COURT

Great Plans Being Made for Tournament and Entertainment of Racquet Guests by Irvington.

The tournament of the North Pacific International Lawn Tennis association, which will be held at the Irvington Tennis club courts July 13-15, is attracting a great deal of attention throughout the entire northwest.

Seattle will be represented by a very strong team, in all probability the winners of the Treat cup in 1909, Russell and Fitts. They are very strong and consistent players and are very anxious to retrieve the coveted trophy.

Gorrill and Wickensham, another strong team, and the present holders of the trophy will represent the Irvington club and will do their utmost to retain possession of the cup. They will also have the advantage of a familiar court.

Schwengers May Come. Victoria will undoubtedly be represented by B. F. Schwengers, the singles champion of the association for the past two years and he will have as a team mate either J. F. Foulkes or F. A. Macrae.

Vancouver's team is more in doubt and will be selected by the local committee. The most prominent candidates are Cardnell, Rhodes, Montgomery, Jukes and Gilliat, all of whom are strong players.

Percy Gardiner and Walter Ericson are practically sure to represent Everett. Spokane has already chosen its team in Joe Tyler and Earl Fulton.

Multnomah club has chosen its doubles without any contest and there is a feeling in several directions that the committee did not pick the strongest team that might have been selected, although Goss and Wakeman, their choice, are both very good players.

The winners of the doubles will receive, for their club, the beautiful cups presented by H. W. Treat of Seattle in 1909. These cups must be won three times in succession by teams representing the same club, before the club can retain the trophies permanently.

Each of the eight clubs in the association is allowed two entries in the singles and one in the doubles. The drawing will take place at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, July 13, when all entries must be in and play will begin immediately. No referee has been chosen yet, but the committee will probably select some local man. The matches will be decided by the best three out of five sets.

Entertainment Extensive. The entertainment committee is planning a smoker for Thursday evening, July 13, and Friday evening the visitors will be the guests of honor at a dance in the Irvington clubhouse.

The officers of the association are: Honorary president, Arthur Remington, Olympia; president, F. H. V. Andrews, Portland; vice president, Judge Lapham, Victoria; secretary-treasurer, E. Cave-Browne-Cave, Vancouver, B. C.

GOLDEN SMILE STARTED IN PORTLAND

Champion Jack Johnson's Teeth Received First Gold Here.

Ever hear the story of the origin of Jack Johnson's 'golden smile,' a characterization of Jack Johnson's that has almost become a byword? The negro champion's metallic snicker had its start right here in Portland, according to Dudley Evans, a former Portlander but now a resident of Pendleton, who was visiting here last week.

"I don't know for sure who coined the golden smile term," said Evans, in talking over the Johnson incident, "but I do know that the first precious metal that went into the colored champion's teeth was stamped in here in Portland several years ago. The matter had entirely slipped my mind until this 'golden smile' talk became common, and then I happened to remember it.

"When Johnson first came to Portland some eight years ago, he had as fine a set of teeth as the eye ever gazed upon. There wasn't a flaw in either the upper or the lower set and Jack was very proud of them. One day while training with Joe Walcott for the fight with 'Mysterious' Billy Smith, the 'giant killer' uppercut Johnson and when his teeth came together a slight portion of one of the upper incisors was chipped off. Jack was downcast and complained about the marring of his teeth by the Barbadoes wonder.

"Johnson grew so moody over it that finally I volunteered to take him to a dentist and have the tooth repaired. He was only a dub trial horse with no money and little prospect then and had to be led around more or less. I guess it is somewhat different now he is champion and rolling in wealth.

"After much persuasion we got the dinge into the dentist's chair and an examination was made and the dentist said he could fix Jack up and suggested that he could keep the gold filling out of sight. I noticed that Johnson was squirming around and trying to overcome a tinge of bashfulness and suggested that maybe Johnson would rather have the gold show. Jack's vanity overcame his timidity and, sweating the dentist back with one movement of his brawny arm, he straightened up in the chair and said, chipper as a robin in cherry season: 'Yeh, doctah, you all let dat gold show; let dat gold show!'

"Well, the tooth was fixed up with the shining yellow metal stood out like a house a-fire in Johnson's estimation. He was smiling all the time after that. It was a good start for some dentist, for although I have not seen him in seven years, I understand that he now has every one of his upper and lower teeth capped with gold, which must make a peculiar sight. Under that Australian sun of December 24, 1908, Johnson's gleaming teeth must have thrown a blinding reflection into Tommy Burns' eyes. But that's the real story of Jack's start toward cornering the uncoined gold supply."

POLO LOVERS TO START CLUB HERE

Ponies Have Been Imported and Enthusiasts Await Formal Organization.

Polo, which has taken such a strong hold among the sportsmen in the east and Europe, is to be taken up here if plans which are now being made are carried out. A number of ponies have already been brought from the Burns district in eastern Oregon, and are being kept temporarily at a barn near the Waverly Golf club links.

Dr. George S. Whitelaw, Harry Corbett, Roderick Macleay, Gordon Voorhies, W. H. Warrens, Joe Willey and Ben Norden are the men who are interested at present, but others are expected to take up the sport when it is started. Nothing definite has been done toward organizing a club or securing grounds to play on yet, and for the present the players will practice and train their ponies on an unused part of the Golf club grounds. A club will undoubtedly be formed and permanent grounds and stables secured within a short time.

TURNBULL BREAKS RECORD ON LINKS

Waverly Golf Club Professional Makes New Course in 72 Strokes.

George Turnbull, the Waverly Golf club professional, broke the northwest record held jointly by Barnes, the Tacoma professional, and himself of 74, making the circuit of the local links in 72 last Tuesday.

The new Waverly links are much longer and more difficult than the old ones. The club will not send any official representative to the Potlatch tournament in Seattle unless it be Mr. Turnbull but several members who are going to the celebration will probably take part in the play. In the way of entertainment the club is following its regular custom and is giving informal dances each week during the summer.

WOLGAST-MORAN FIGHT PROMISING

Tuesday's Mix Between the Doughty Little Fighters Will Be Active Bout.

(Publishers' Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, July 1.—Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast and his little game challenger, Owen Moran, are both trained to the hour. Each is counting the minutes ere the bell will sound the start of the great match at the Eighth street arena Tuesday afternoon. The men are ready now, and each would much prefer that the battle take place today instead of three days later. Each is confident, though the champion is the favorite.

If this battle does not prove one of the most interesting and exciting ring affairs that has ever been known since the day when Wolgast won his title from Nelson one and a half years ago, great disappointment will be in order all along the line in sporting circles. The fans throughout the country look for this coming affair to be replete with every sensation known to the ring with the possible exception of a knockout. Although both men are strong, sturdy little fellows and each is possessed of a fair punch, still the careful students of the game see visions of the fight progressing the limit of 20 rounds. But few of them look for a knockout and

BASEBALL TEAMS TO BE FORMED IN LEAGUE

An association of baseball teams is being planned, the object being to assist teams in booking games and, in a general way, to get lines on all teams in Portland and vicinity. A meeting of the association will be held each week when games will be booked and all matters thrashed out. Membership is open to all. Any managers or players wishing information concerning association can secure same by calling on J. A. Addleman, care Archer & Wiggin company.

PORTLAND STICKING IN NORTHWESTERN

Table with columns: Players, AB, R, H, 2b, 3b, HR, SB, SH, PC. Lists statistics for various players including Mensor, Williams, Casey, Coltrin, Stovall, Mundorff, Spens, Pettigrew, Harris, Bradley, Moore, Jensen, Eastley, Archer, Lamline, Garrett, Bloomfield, Tomneson, Maxmeyer, Johnson.