CARLISLE'S HOME RUN BEATS LOCALS

Circuit-Cleaner Closes Great Pitchers' Battle and Gives Vernon the Game.

It took Walter Carlisle's home run over the right field fence in the eighth inning—the only score of the day, to beat Tom Seaton and the Beavers yesterday. Castleton, the barboard flagger, opposed Seaton and together they allowed 18 players but nine bingles. Both were in excellent shape and both tight in pinches, and it took something sensational like a circuit smash to win the game. It was crowded full of sensational catches, the work of Peckinpugh who accepted nine hard chances perfectly standing out, although McDowell, McKune and Stinson figured in the sensational column.

Happy Hogan, the noisy, irrepressible Happy, worked overtime both behind the bat and with his jaws. Happy is a great drawing card and yesterday's crowd was largely due to his personality. Seaton was a trifle off color in the first inning, when he walked Carlisle and whanged Kane in the back of the head but good fielding saved him, Carlisle being caught between third and home with Kuhn, McKune, Sheehan and Rapps taking part in the putout.

In the seventh frame the Hooglanders had the bases full with one out, when Hogan sent a short, twisting liner in to the left hand of his castoff, Terry McKune, who doubted Burrell out at first.

In the eighth after Castleton fanned, Carlisle kited one out of the lot via right field fence. McDowell hit to left and stole second, but Patterson and Brashear were easy outs.

In the second and eighth innings, and in the fourth and sixth after two buggers by Chadbourne and Ryan, but that was as far as they got. Score: VERNON. A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Senators Are Beated. Los Angeles, July 12.—The game between Los Angeles and Sacramento was not played yesterday because Sacramento was unable to make the long jump between Portland and Los Angeles in less than two days.

Vancouver Trims Tacoma. Vancouver, B. C., July 12.—In a heavy hitting 13 inning game Vancouver slugged the bases and won by a score of 13 to 11. Score: R. H. E. Vancouver 13 17 5 Tacoma 11 15 3 Batteries—Brinker, Gervais, Belford, Erickson and Shea; McCammet, Hall and Burns.

Victoria Wins Another. Seattle, July 12.—The Victoria bunch hit in great shape yesterday and this, mixed in with the wildness of Seaton, gave them the game. Score: R. H. E. Victoria 7 13 2 Seattle 4 5 2 Batteries—Furchner and Devogt; Seaton and Shea.

Magee Out Indefinitely. Philadelphia, July 12.—Indefinite suspension was the punishment handed out to Sherwood Magee, left fielder for the Philadelphia Nationals, today by President Lynch for his assault on Umpire Fineran during yesterday's game with St. Louis. Magee was called out on strikes and, turning to Fineran, laid him low with a blow in the face.

Here's a peculiar coincidence: Just before the game opened Johnny Kane was asking Elmer Koestner if he was the one who "beated" Jimmy Lewis and inquired how Jimmy was getting on. A minute later Johnny was nursing a sore head, where Seaton struck him with a pitched ball. He didn't go down, but after running the bases suffered so much from headache that he retired from the conflict.

Roger Peckinpugh sauntered into Honeyman's this morning, picked out a 48 ounce Mike Donlin model bat and toted it out to the bar. Roger says he is feeling stronger these days and believes he can swing it on the Vernon pitchers. Wonder if Carlisle's homer isn't making Rodge a bit jealous?

WOLGAST'S EARNING POWER HIGH

A street car conductor draws down 30 cents an hour, or half a cent a minute, for his work. A carpenter working on union scale is paid $5 a day, or approximately 62 cents an hour, and 1 cent a minute. A bricklayer is good for $7 a day of eight hours. A teamster, if he is handling a single horse, will be paid $2 for more than ten hours of work, something like 20 cents an hour, or one-third of a cent every 60 seconds. Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, when he boxed Owen Moran last Tuesday afternoon, was being paid at the rate of $431.70 a minute, which would increase to $25,902 for an hour's toil, or the appalling sum of $297,210—a fifth of a million—for a full working day of eight hours. Estimated in weeks and months, and it would set you crazy. Wolgast drew down $12,500 for his reward. He was given, in addition, $500 for his expenses, and won something like $1805 in bets. During the time he was in the ring Wolgast even put John D. Rockefeller's great income on the blink. John D.'s perpetual income is $25 a second or $122,564.5 a minute, or not one-third of Ad's condensed power. Every hour Rockefeller's income is $7420.08.

ONE LONE RUN ALL THAT NICKS GLEAN

Willis in Great Form While Jensen Is Pounded at Will.

Spokane, July 12.—Jensen had poor support in his game with Spokane yesterday and although he managed to hold the Indians down pretty well until the seventh and eighth innings, the score was very low, 10 to 1. In the first frame things started out badly as two runs were brought in by some pretty playing by Spokane. In the seventh and eighth, however, they waded right into Jensen's pitching and made enough runs to put the game on ice. Jensen pitched rather poor ball in a number of places and this caused as much trouble almost as did the poor support offered him. In trying to convince the umpire that what he had called a foul ball was a fair one, Harris talked too volubly and too heatedly and was sent out of the game. In two innings Portland got a number of hits, when two were out. Spokane made one run without a hit when Mundorf and Stovall made a place for themselves in the error column. In the ninth with nothing as yet chalked up for them, Portland got a man on third base and scored with a pretty bunt. This saved them from a shut out. Willis tried hard for a shut out and it looked as though he would succeed for he had great backing until Portland slipped the lone run over.

WEINGARTEN TO RACE J. BODINE TONIGHT

What promises to be the most exciting roller skate race that has been held in this vicinity in some months will take place this evening at the Council Crest rink, when Melville Weingarten and Jim Bodine clash in the first of their three matches over the two mile route. Weingarten has just returned from Spokane, where he won the six day race and carried off two cups for the best speed made each evening. He holds the two mile record for the Pacific coast and will return to San Francisco next Monday evening to race Winfred Stoutenberg for the one mile record. Weingarten has yet to taste defeat and will use all the reserve speed he has stored away in his legs to make Bodine look like a novice.

Bodine has just arrived from the east where he has participated in some very interesting matches. He holds several state championships throughout the coast and his friends claim that he will take two out of the three matches with Weingarten. The race starts this evening at 9:15 and ends Friday night.

GAMBLER COULDN'T BRIBE BERGER

As evidence of the fact that Joe Berger, premier twirler of the Blue Mountain league, is a square and honorable man as well as a brilliant pitcher is a story which gained circulation today, to the effect that Berger was offered $500 to "throw" the post game between Pendleton and Walla Walla, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. The game was won by the former by the score of 4 to 2. To make the offer more reprehensible, it is claimed, it was made by a Pendleton man who thought thereby to rob Pendleton fans of all their money. Berger confirmed the story but declined to divulge the name of the would-be briber although he was strong in his condemnation of that person. He stated that it was on the morning before the game that he was approached by the individual whom he characterized as a "horn gambler," with a proposition to allow Walla Walla to take the game. Berger's answer is said to have been emphatic and his indignation at the alleged attempt to bribe him may have been largely responsible for the fact that the hard hitting Bears were shut out without a run and allowed but one hit during the game. During his stay in this city Berger has always conducted himself as a perfect gentleman and he has been admired as much for his qualities of manhood as for his fine pitching arm.

Bart's Semi-Pro Gossip

The Willamette Valley league seems to be in a bad way, owing to poor management on the part of some of the directors. Our old friend, Jerman, seems to be "bad" again, this time with shabby, which claims that the schedule has been switched to suit the purse of the Salem manager. Jerman displayed his lack of sportsmanship in the Tri-City league here, last season, and it is likely that he will find trouble in any league he enters, until he learns how to run a ball club.

Manager Sherrett of the Pickwicks has lost his crack twirler, Sieberts, who has gone to Rainier to finish the season. Sieberts is one of the most promising of the younger pitchers around Portland.

Parks and Pembroke, the Walla Walla battery in the Blue Mountain league, are in Portland and are open for an engagement with some town in the bushes for the rest of the season. Pembroke has had an offer from Centralia but desires to stay around Portland.

"Cady" Roberts, whom the East Oregonians tout as the fastest infielder in the Blue Mountain league is in Portland, and will probably finish the season with the Gresham Giants.

Alex Donaldson is pitching great ball for Camas this year. "Red" Mullen is his battery partner. The Dilworth Derbies are figuring strong on winning the Chautauqua championship this season, after which they are desirous of meeting either the Gresham Giants or Rupert's club on the Vaughn street diamond, some Sunday morning for a side bet.

"Bill" Robbins is playing bangup ball for the Wabash team. "Billy" Kelt, the peppery little backstop of the Gresham team, is hitting the ball to the four corners of the lot and is at present leading the team in batting. James "Chimmie" Richardson is satisfying the Willamette Valley league fans as "umps" these days. Jim knows the game and should make a good official. Fritz Cohn is fielding in fine style around the third sack for the Columbus club. Sigbee and Chapin of the same team, are among the star hitters.

GREGG BEST MOUND MAN IN BIG LEAGUE

Former Portlander Tops Alexander and Christy Mathewson's Record.

Vean Gregg has a better pitching record than Grover Alexander, the sensation of the National league, and a better record than the peerless Christy Mathewson made the first season he started in the National league up to July 6, says a Cleveland paper. Gregg has won 13 out of 16 games, Alexander has won 16 out of 20. On July 6, 1901, Matty's record was 13 victories, 6 defeats and 1 tie. Gregg's average is .812, Alexander's is .800, and Matty's was .854. Gregg has made his record with a team that has lost more than half its games. The Phillies, Alexander's team, are leading the National league, and when Matty made his record the Giants were going fairly well. Gregg's average is 360 points better than that of his team. Alexander's average is 177 points better than that of his team.

All three of these stars have hoodoo clubs, and Matty lost three of his six early defeats to St. Louis. Gregg's first defeat was by the Tigers, 6 to 5. The Naps made five errors. His second defeat was by the Tigers, 6 to 5. The Naps made two errors and the Tigers none. The Naps made 10 hits and the Tigers eight. Gregg's third defeat was by the Yankees, 3 to 1. He allowed four hits, while the Naps made six off Warhop. Gregg and Willie Mitchell are the only lefthanders who have gone through full games against the White Sox this season.

Here are the records of Gregg and Alexander, and Mathewson's 1901 record up to July 6: Gregg W. L. SO. BB. H. Av. Alexander 13 3 123 73 124 .800 Mathewson 16 6 101 37 123 .854 Since the above averages were compiled Gregg shut out the Philadelphia world's champions, making his real average .824 for the 14 games won and three lost.
