

COFFEE VALUES AGAIN ADVANCE

Lower Grades Cost Twice as Much as Ten Years Ago.

New York, July 12.—It was another day in the stock market, with no special feature. Trading was not so large as it has been recently, but a professional character. Traders in general are waiting until the news from the corn belt is more reassuring before committing themselves on either side.

POULTRY MARKET STEADIER

The poultry market has improved considerably this week, although it is not brisk by any means. Old hens do not appear to be in very big demand, but there is a fair call for good spring chickens.

EGGS, CHEESE AND BUTTER

The egg market is stiffer than for several days and Oregon ranches are particularly firm with a much larger demand than can be filled.

BEERRIES ARE PLENTIFUL

The berry market is well supplied and prices are about the same today as for several days in the past, the ruling price being about $1.50.

CANTALOUPE AND MELONS

While watermelons are plentiful enough to readily meet all demands cantaloupes are not so plentiful and prices have stiffened some during the past two days.

VEAL ON FRONT STREET

Quite a quantity of veal in good condition was received on front street this morning. The demand for it is expected that the stuff will clean up readily at 12 cents.

Heavy Run of Livestock Today at the North Portland Yards.

Chicago, July 12.—That the United States and Canada will have 355,000,000 bushels of wheat for export this year is the prediction of John Inglis in a telegram to this city today from Grand Forks, N. D., in which he says: "Allowing for no further deterioration in the spring wheat outlook in my judgment the total yield for the North American continent will approximate as follows: Total spring and winter wheat, United States, 700,000,000; Canada, 200,000,000; total 900,000,000. Add to this a carry over in the United States and Canada of 100,000,000, and you have a total of 1,000,000,000 bushels. Domestic requirements are 610,000,000, leaving a grand surplus for export of 355,000,000 bushels, a quantity never before equalled for the two countries."

PLAN EXTENSION TO MOUNT HOOD CAMP

Mount Hood Line to Cooperate With Portland Auto Club.

Before leaving for the east on a business trip, General Manager C. B. Smith of the Mount Hood Railway & Power Co. announced that it is planned by his company, in cooperation with the Portland Automobile club, in the near future to place Government camp, on Mount Hood, within easy reach of Portland. The means will be the building of the planned extension of the company's line to Sandy postoffice and thence by macadamized road and regular auto service between the terminus of the road and the camp. These autos will be operated by the railway company. With fast electric cars in service between Portland and Sandy and large and commodious automobiles covering the remainder of the distance, the famous camp near the snowline on the mountain can be reached in a couple of hours from Portland.
