Weather Conditions.

A small low pressure area is central over eastern Washington, and the barometer is relatively high along the slope of the Rocky mountains. Another small disturbance is central over the lower St. Lawrence valley. During the past 24 hours numerous thunder showers occurred in the Rocky mountain states and in Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas and Missouri. The highest temperature of the season occurred yesterday in many places on the Pacific slope, and the 100 degree mark was reached or exceeded in the interior of northern California, southern Oregon, eastern Washington and southern Arizona. The temperatures in the Mississippi and Missouri valleys, as well as in the Lake region and Ohio valleys, are below normal this morning.

Conditions favorable for showers and thunder storms tonight or Tuesday in northern Oregon, Washington and Idaho, with cooler weather except near the coast.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity—Showers tonight or Tuesday; cooler, southwesterly winds.

Oregon—Fair south tonight and Tuesday; showers north portion tonight or Tuesday; cooler except near coast; southwesterly winds.

Washington—Showers west, showers and thunder storms east portion tonight or Tuesday; cooler east portion; south to west winds.

Idaho—Showers and thunder storms tonight or Tuesday; cooler.

Famous Surgeon Coming.—Dr. John B. Murphy, president of the American Medical association, whose attendance at the Oregon State Medical association was prevented by sickness, is coming to Portland and Housatonic streets and physicians of the city and state Saturday evening in the convention hall of the Commercial club on the "Work at Mercy Hospital," Chicago, where he is chief surgeon. The Saturday meeting will be held under the auspices of the City and County Medical society. Announcement of the famous surgeon's coming has caused the greatest interest and the officers of the medical society anticipate a large attendance.

Took Bread; Arrested.—Otto Scholer, a recent deserter from a German ship, fearing that he would be returned to the ship on which he had received ill treatment if he were seen on the public streets was forced to search at night for food. At 3 o'clock this morning, Patrolman Myers saw the man take two loaves of bread from a bread box in front of Miller & Jefferson's grocery, at Larabee and Housatonic streets and arrested him for larceny. While on the way to police headquarters, Scholer consumed a large portion of the evidence. Judge Tazwell gave him a suspended sentence this morning and sent him to the German consul.

Sue to Collect Man's Wages.—Suit against the county to collect the wages of J. C. Wilson has been started in the circuit court by E. A. Gray. He alleges Wilson owes him $150, and that the county failed to hold up this amount on his salary. The salary was attached three months ago, but at that time it was not known that Wilson had any salary due him. The salary warrant had been made payable to Aldrich and Lenet, merchants at Bridal Veil. Wilson is working on the roads in the vicinity of Bridal Veil.

Dr. Scoville to Leave.—Dr. Charles Reigen Scoville, the great evangelist, is just closing a remarkable week of evangelistic services with the Central Christian church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets. During this time more than 100 have been received into this church. There will be a great baptismal service this evening, at which Mrs. Scoville will sing and Dr. Scoville will speak. He will leave the city at 11 p. m. for New York city, where he will participate in the Loyal Men's Movement.

Raymond Sees Astoria.—R. W. Raymond, manager of the Portland Commercial club's industrial bureau and convention bureau, returned this morning from a visit to Astoria. Mr. Raymond states that good progress is being made in getting ready for the Centennial celebration and it appears that Astoria will be well equipped to properly take care of the big crowds that are expected to flock to the city by the sea and join in observing the commemoration of the establishment of the city.

Proceed Against Oil Company.—City Attorney Grant is making a thorough investigation of the records of the city previous to bringing a suit against the Union Oil company to compel the company to discontinue the use of its ruined warehouse for the storage of gasoline and other explosive oils. Acting Fire Chief Landenkowsky is urging haste in proceeding against the oil company, as he is in constant fear that another disastrous fire may break out there.

Canoe Throws Two in River.—George Farnsworth and Frank Mahauer, both aged 19 years and living at 254 Ross street, were thrown from a canoe into the Willamette river last night when waves from the steamer Monarch capsized an old canoe in which they were riding. Patrolman Grism of the harbor patrol, who was in the patrol boat at the time, was informed of the accident and pulled the boys from the river just as they were about exhausted. The canoe, an old affair, was destroyed by Grism when it was pulled to shore.

Catches Alleged Thief.—A man giving his name as William Frazier was captured last night by A. E. Whiteside of 680 Quimby street, after a chase of several blocks which started at the Whiteside home that Frazier is said to have juts ransacked. When Whiteside returned home shortly after 8 o'clock he heard a noise in the house. Walking to the back of the house he saw a man leap over the fence, and the chase, which ended six blocks away was on. Frazier returned all the alleged stolen property, and was taken to police headquarters. A quantity of jewelry found on him, he declares was given him by his parents. He stated that he just arrived in Portland from Oakland, Cal. A chisel with which he states he intended to pry open windows was found in his pockets.

Dr. White at La Grande.—Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer, returned yesterday from La Grande where he addressed a large audience on the subject of "Fly Pest Suppression," last Saturday night. The address was illustrated by a number of views such as Dr. White has exhibited to Portland audiences during the course of the state board of health's campaign against the "typhoid-tuberculosis fly." "I was delighted with La Grande," said Dr. White. "They have four miles of paved streets and macadam streets as good as paving; they have a splendid water supply brought 19 miles and they have a standard of municipal self respect that is particularly pleasing in the city of but 5300 population."

Kennessy Sends Message.—"We love Jersey City, but oh you Portland!" is the sentiment expressed in a message from Frank Kennessy, deputy district attorney, who is with the Board of Alders at the annual meeting of the antiered tribe in the far east. The police reporters of the various newspapers received a card this morning from Kennessy, in which he says he yearns to be back here. "Everybody is anxious to come to Portland next year," he said.

Would Remove Coats.—Four young men, in an effort to cool themselves off, started to remove their coats while sitting in the Empress theatre yesterday afternoon and Manager Ryan, objecting to the men "undressing" in the show house, called Patrolman Blackman who compelled the boys to either put on their coats or leave the theatre. No arrests were made.

Intimidates Family.—Bert Keyser of 211 Hooker street was arrested at an early hour this morning by Patrolman G. H. Riley for intimidating his family. He had the family locked in a room, from which escape was impossible. He was arrested on a drunk and disorderly charge, and will be given a hearing tomorrow.

Says Man Kidnaped Child.—Mrs. W. H. Hogan of 27 North Ninth street, reported to the police this morning that her husband whom she parted from some time ago, came to the house last night, and after assaulting her, left the house with her three year old daughter. The police have been asked to look for father and daughter.

Water is scarce. and, until new Bull Run pipe is finished, it must not be used for sprinkling, including that metered; except between the hours of 8 and 8 a. m. Where water is wanted in any way it will be shut off. Police department will assist in enforcing this rule. By order of the Water Board.

Eyebrows Burned Off.—S. E. Sorenson of 680 Gantenbein avenue is minus his eye brows and a part of his hair today as the result of a fire which broke out in his clothes closet last evening. The house was damaged to the extent of about $400. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

O'Brien to San Francisco.—J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Hariman lines in Oregon, left for San Francisco Saturday night to attend a meeting of general managers of the big system for the purpose of adopting standards. Mr. O'Brien will probably be gone ten days.

To Fill Vacancies.—It is probable that a special meeting of the civil service commission will be called some time this week to adopt a scope for examinations to be held to fill five vacancies in the department of buildings. These vacancies are now being filled temporarily.

RETURNS TO SCENE OF OLD TRIUMPH

Izetta Jewel.

Unable to return to Portland as a stock star, Miss Izetta Jewel has completed arrangements with Manager Coffinberry to appear at the Orpheum during the week of July 24. Miss Jewel has been appearing in Oakland during the summer, and has been the recipient of many requests to visit the scene of her former triumphs before returning to the east. The Orpheum management received a wire from her yesterday morning stating that she would arrive here Saturday next via automobile and would open an engagement for one week only, beginning the following Monday.

Izetta Jewel was perhaps the most popular star of the old Baker stock company, her admirers in this city numbering the entire theatre going public, while many of them became her warm friends because of the personal charm of the woman. She is in fact, a "Girl of the Golden West" and no one here begrudges the great success which she scored in New York last season as the leading woman for Otis Skinner.

Miss Jewel has not entered vaudeville with any intention of making a business of that branch of her profession. Her week in this city will be her only engagement, and she is attempting in order to play once more in Portland. During the week Miss Jewel will give impersonations of many of the characters which Portlanders liked best in her former engagement, with monologue interspersed.

PORTLAND TO CAPTURE GOOSE LAKE TRADE

That the immensely valuable trade of the Goose Lake country in northern Oregon need not be lost by Portland to San Francisco is the belief of M. B. Rice, leader of Lakeview Commercial club activity. Gloomy predictions to the contrary due to railroad building from California may be kept from coming true, he says in a letter to The Journal. The solution of the problem is an auto truck freight route between Lakeview and Bend to connect with the Oregon Trunk for Portland, he asserted.

Portland to Bend and then via auto truck to Lakeview at maximum auto charges will equalize freight rates from Portland to Lakeview besides being approximately 5 cents difference in delivery," writes Mr. Rice.

"The auto truck haul from Bend to Lakeview would be practically the same as horse freight from Lakeview to Altura, 55 miles, and the same time would be used in delivery."

Mr. Rice believes that the auto truck line which he says is being seriously considered by central and southern Oregon business interests would not only save southern Oregon trade to Portland but equalize freight rates on the Hariman lines between Portland and Klamath Falls. The auto truck line, he feels sure, would develop so much business that it would be but the forerunner of railroad extension.

"The business people of southern Oregon would rather deal with Portland if possible, and we have been working for the means for three years," said Mr. Rice.

Recent visits of Portland business men to southern Oregon have resulted in gloomy apprehension that San Francisco inevitably would win the rapidly developing business of the rich Goose Lake trade territory. An excursion of San Francisco business men to Klamath Falls recently had much to do with confirming this gloomy outlook. Mr. Rice now says that prompt action can win for Portland a due share of this business.
