Canadian Reciprocity Bill Passes Senate .. Mrs. Ortie McManigal Said to Be Paralyzed Playwright Wins Duel : "Alaska's Growth Retarded by Big Interests"--Roosevelt

PASSED BY HOUSE

With Practically No Change, President Taft's Pet Measure Goes Through Upper House by Vote of 53 to 27.

EXECUTIVE'S SIGNATURE TO BE AFFIXED SOON

No Time to Be Lost by the Nation's Chief in Making the Act a Law.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, July 22.—Reciprocity with Canada, President Taft's biggest project since he assumed office, was assured today when the senate passed the measure in practically the same shape in which it had passed the house. The vote was 53 to 27. There is hardly a doubt but that the president will get the measure for signature and will sign it when he returns from Beverly Wednesday

The McCumber amendment to the reeiprocity measure was defeated by a vote of 64 to 15 just before the measure itself was put on its passage. The amendment provided for the reduction of duties on various household articles Melson's Amendment Lost. Nelson's amendment placing duties or grain, butter, cheese, horses, cattle and sheep, and the Simons' amendment placing meat products on the free list also, were defeated. Nelson's amendment went from 56 to 23 and Simons' 64 to 16. A number of amendments offered by Senator Cummins were defeated on a viva voce vote.

La Follette called up for the sixth defeated 16 to 64. Borah, Bourne, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Gronna, Kenyon, McCumber and Velson were the Republicans supporting the amendment.

Amendment Is Rejected.

La Follette's amendment reducing the on cotton goods was rejected, 15 to 63, and his amendment for the free listing of wood pulp and print paper after January next went down, 11 fected.

Bailey's amendment placing on the free list numerous articles, was beaten, 15 to 63; McCumber's amendment putting harness and saddlery on the free list, was lost, 15 to 64, and Bailey's Young German Woman Will Be Sent Back to the Old Country.

New York, July 22 .- Marian Lerner, s young woman of Berlin, was driven insane by the band music aboard an cean liner on her way to this country to live in New York with relatives. On account of her condition of mind upon arrival she will be deported by the immigration officials back to Germany. When Miss Lerner's aunt, Mrs. Louis Epstein, met the boat at New York, she was informed by the immigration offi-

Sale of Fir in the Archipelago.

Laden with a precious cargo of choice hardwoods, a sailing vessel will soon leave Fiji Islands and spread her white wings for the Columbia river and Portland on a trip that will mark the beginning of what promises to develop into tremendously important commercial relationship between this city and the South Sea archipelago.

Convinced that Portland will prove the most logical distributing point for high grade hardwood lumber, J. S. Emerson, a wealthy lumber manufacturer of Vancouver, B. C., will erect a large modern hardwood mill here and establish a line of sailing vessels between this port and the Fijis, where a number of immensely valuable hardwoods are native.

The transportation line will be established without delay and the first timbers brought here will be sawed at the plant of the Pacific Lumber & Manufacturing company on the waterfront in North Portland, which has been puruse. Heretofore this mill has cut largely Japanese oak for which an active demand has been found on the coast and far into the interior in competition with eastern hardwood.

Controls Big Timber Interests. The proposed new mill, with greatly enlarged facilities, will cut all varieties of hardwood, including oak from Japan, which for the past two or three years, (Continued on Page Twelve.)

WAY NOW FULLY CLEAR FOR SPEEDY CONSTRUCTION OF BROADWAY BRIDGE JOHNSON BELIEVES

Bridge Committee Recommends That Engineer Prepare the Plans Immediately, and That Thereafter Bids for Steel for Structure Be Invited-No More Obstructions Are Feared—Other Important Features of Meeting.

What Bridge Committee Did. Recommended to the city executive board that Engineer Ralph Modjeski proceed at once to prepare plans for the superstructure of the Broadway bridge.

That these plans provide for the widest possible competition in bids for bascule draw spans. That as soon as the superstructure plans have been prepared and adopted by the board, bids for the steel to be used be invited so as to take advantage of the present cheap steel market.

That the plans include an adiditional approach on the east side at Crosby street, and if the property owners affected fail to donate the necessary right of way for this approach that the property needed be acquired by condemnation. That the streetcar tracks be arranged as are those on the Morrison bridge, with the rails in the center of the roadway and vehicle paths on the outside of the tracks That the city provide trolley poles and electric lights to be used on the bridge and that the draw be operated by electricity.

Solls Cohen, other member of the committee, together with repre sentatives of the city engineer's office and the city attorney's office, were present. Modjeski stated that the maximum cost of the superstructure will be $800,000, that figure, he said, being very liberal estimate for the main viaduct and approaches, including the cost of necessary rights of ways and minor details of construction. The substructure, which is already nearly half completed, will cost $557,000. This will bring the total cost of the great Broadway span to $1,357,000, or $543,000 un der the amount provided for by the $2,000,000 bond issue.

More Bids Invited.

Two installments of the bond issue, sales of which have already been consummated, have netted the city nearly $750,000, and bids are now being in vited for another installment of $600. 000. Prominent bond dealers of the city are unanimous in expressing the opin on that the city will experience no further difficulty in disposing of the re-maining boads and that the Duniway-Kiernan obstructionists have been forced to cover for all time. Nothing now seems to be in the way of the speedy completion of the viaduct that has caused more trouble than any other municipal project in the history of Port
