advance of 10c in is addition to the rise of a similar amount exclusively reported by The Journal yesterday.

The cause of the advance in the sugar market recently has been a matter of speculation among the trade. With the consumptive demand increasing year by year and with a short crop expected in some of the leading centers this season, the upward movement was quickly the upward movement was quickly arted.

The following special cables have sen received regarding the outlook for the coming sugar crop: Havana, Cuba—Weather conditions favorable for the sugar crop.

Magdeburg, Germany—Weather is unfavorable for the coming crop.

Amsterdam—The continuance of hot

Amsterdam—The continuance of hot and dry weather with consequent fear of damage to the sugar crop, is causing prices to harden.

The market for sugar is now absolutely under control of the beet production. While the United States as a whole has excellent crop prospects, the output in Europe, where the bulk of the beet sugar crop of the world is grown is far from being favorable.

The production of beet sugar is growing larger each season, while the cane crop has either decreased in certain districts or is standing stationary. This

With a further advance in the price of swine at eastern centers, it is quite natural that a further advance will be forced here in addition to the rise of 10c reported exclusively by The Journal yesterday. Top hogs are now quoted on the basis of $7.75 in the North Portland yards although no sales have been reported beyond $7.65. This was for Willamette valley stock which always sells 10c under the price of eastern Oregon or Idaho tops.

On the basis of the South Omaha price local hogs of top quality should be commanding $7.95 in the North Portland yards, therefore there is some room for a further advance here unless the eastern situation eases off at once.

At South Omaha there was a firmer forced here in addition to the rise of

BIG WHEAT CROP IS ASSURED - PATULLO

LIVERPOOL WHEAT MARKET Liverpool, July 28 .- Wheat opened %d higher and closed 16 to 36d above yesterday. July 7s 14d, October 6s 10d,

That the Pacific Northwest will harvest this year one of its greatest, if not its greatest crop of wheat, is the report brought back to this city by D. A. Patullo, of the big grain exporting firm of Balfour, Guthrie & Co. In company with one of the leading members of the foreign firm as well as local representatives Mr. Patullo toured the grain sections.

sentatives Mr. Patuilo toured the grain sections.

"I find," he says, "that all of the good wheat lands will produce a very favorable crop of wheat this year. This applies to Umatilia county, Walla Walla, Columbia county, Camas Prairie. Nez Perce and the Palouse.

"In the Big Bead the crop will not be so heavy but it is quite fair—I should say a good average production. The wheat in the Big Bend was hurt somewhat by the hot weather."

The wheat market is again sagging and while some interests have reduced their bids another cent a bushel, the general market is unchanged.

The securing of the government contract for 7,000 tons of oats by Balfour. Guthrie & Co., at $27.40 a ton, indicates that the market is better than some had expected. The price includes double sacking and free delivery Seattle, July 27.—Exceedingly favorable crop reports have been received by M. J. Costello, assistant traffic manager of the Great Northern Railroad, from the company's agents along the line in the eastern Washington wheat belt. Mr. Costello recently wired his agents asking for this information and the replies have confirmed previous estimates of a large yield.

Among the replies are the following: Odessa—Farmers are now cutting spring wheat. The grain is not damaged by the hot weather.
