New Church House

Plans for the new church house of the First Presbyterian church, Thirteenth and Alder streets have been accepted and work will be commenced at once. The new house wil be used for Sunday school, social affairs and banquets. The building is to be 60x100 and will cost in the neighborhood of $60.000. It is located on the quarter block west of the present church. Work be rushed and it is hoped that it will be ready for occupancy within six months. It will be three stories high, with a basement.

The old chapel will also be remodeled and made modern. A new lighting system will be installed in the church proper. change.

Bible Study Courses

R-The adult Bible study courses, recently instituted by the Portland branch of the International Bible Students' association, are meeting with general approval and encouragement. This move ment, adopted here for the first time, as launched in Brooklyn, the city of churches a year or two ago. The desire promoters, who constitute many of the advanced Bible students from all denominations, is to foster a spirit for doctrinal study among thoughtful Christian people. Many adult Christians have deplored the lack of facilities for investigating those doctrinal points so vitally connected with their denominational his tory. Every auxiliary of the home church is engaged in arousing and maintaining the interest of the young or newly con-Thus the average advanced verted.
