Two Carloads of Famous "Lifetime" Mission Furniture Third Off

FOR years Barber Bros., of Grand Rapids, have been building Mission Furniture that gained and held a reputation the country over for its splendid sturdiness and artistic designs.

The name "Lifetime" was adopted a short time ago, when the Barber Bros.' factory consolidated with the Grand Rapids Bookcase & Chair Company. Our Furniture Chief knew that a factory surplus of "Lifetime" Furniture was awaiting the concern that could handle immense quantities for ready cash. He bought two solid carloads, in the latest designs for the August Sale at a discount of one third from wholesale cost.

The entire shipment goes on sale tomorrow morning at the same proportion of saving—a straight reduction of 1-3 from regular selling prices! Over 150 different patterns in Rockers, Chairs, Settees, Bookcases, Library Tables, English Breakfast Tables, etc.—a showing of Mission Furniture without equal in the Northwest. Ask any salesman about our Club Plan of Payment on Furniture.
