PORTLAND'S NICKS CAPTURE 2 MORE

Maxmeyer and Eastley Too Much for Mike Lynch in Moisture.

Thanks to the great pitching of a recruit and a veteran, Portland took four games of a doubleheader yesterday afternoon, advancing their percentage to .529, three points behind the Tacoma Tigers.

The awkward recruit, Maxmeyer, pitched the first game, and allowed the Tigers but five hits, and these he kept scattered.

In the second inning Annis lost complete control and walked Mensor. Then Harris grounded out and Coltrine walked.

The rain began to fall in the third inning and it rained so hard in the fourth that the game became canceled.

Stolen bases—Hoffman, Krueger. Sacrifice hits—Coy, Lindsay, Cutshaw. First base on balls—Off Seaton 1, off Ryan 2, off Seaton 3, off Koestner 2.

FEAR JOHNSON MAY CANCEL HIS FIGHT

Dingie Champion in No Shape to Meet Bombardier Wells, Briton.

Paris, Sept. 4.—Jack Johnson says he may enter the ring with Wells weighing 211, or 11 pounds more than his best fighting weight.

This fear is heightened by the fact that while Johnson will get $50,000 win, loss or draw, for his fight with Wells, he has a contract with Hugh Mcintosh, the Australian fight promoter, for two fights in Australia this winter.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 4.—The short fence of the Seattle grounds gave the Giants another victory over the Canucks by the score of 3 to 2.

BEAVERS TURN AND TAKE BOTH GAMES

Seaton and Koestner Outpitch Ables and Gregory in Close Contests.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Portland crept back into the Coast League lead again yesterday when Koestner and Seaton pitched the northerners to victory before an aggregate crowd of 20,000 people.

Had Seaton not walked a man and then contributed a wild throw, the Oaks would never have seen the rubber in that game.
