3000 QUARTS BEER

Six Horse Freight Team Required to Haul Evidence to Lakeview; New Chewaucan Hotel at Paisley Is Victim.

(Special to The Journal.)*
Lakeview, Or., Sept. 5.—Another raid was made by Sheriff Warner B. Snyder, acting under instructions from Assistant District Attorney John Venator. which 37 barrels, or about 3000 quarts of beer was seized at Paisley. The district attorney's office proposed to stamp out the illegal sale of liquor in dry precincts and to arrest every dealer in these precincts.

The reizure was made at the Chewaucan hotel, the new hostelry com-pleted a short time ago. George Cooley and George Ranney were charged with, selling liquor and held in $500 bonds to the next session of the grand jury. Last week the officers arrested D. Biggerstaff at the same place and obtained over 1000 bottles of beer and many gal-lons of liquors. The goods seized were brought here to be used as evidence and after the last seizure it took a six horse team to haul the freight from Paisley here.

Lakeview Wants Developers Next.

(Special to The Fournal.)
Lakeview, Or., Sept. 5.—The Eastern Oregon. Development league meeting at Burns, October 2 and 3, will have a large delegation from Lakeview and Lake county. The work of the league has been neglected from this end in the past but the leading citizens are awakening to the needs of this portion of the state and a concerted move will be made on their part to get in touch with development work. Lakeview will ask for the next meeting of the league. Dr. B. Daly, V. L. Snelling, M. B. Rice, W. Lair Thompson, F. Light, A. W. Orton, M. Miller, G. W. Rice, W. Roche Fick and many other leading spirits in development work will be in the party representing this part of the state.

WEBB SAVED FROM HANGING: ROPE CUT

Laren asked the press to say that Webb never cut up the body of Johnson when putting it in the truck.

After the scene was over it was an-nounced that Governor West had exacted a pledge from Webb, his wife and his daughter never to ask for another consideration.

Webb is therefore unalterably a pris oner for life.

Chaplain Bauer broke the news to Webb and his family at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Webb and her daughter came back to Salem this morning. They went in to see him at 12:40 o'clock.

At that time she was hopeful Justice Eakin would grant the appeal. Soon after hearing that the appeal had been denied the girl left Salem with her mother, and the two remained in Portland, not seeing Webb again. Webb at that time had sent them an urgent request to see him no more.

Declaring that the newspapers were responsible for his conviction, Webb requested that reporters not be permitted to interview him in his cell. It has been the custom since Governor Chamberlain's administration not to admit newspaper interviews with prisoners. In the case of condemned men these interviews are allowed, however, upon the

The Crime in Brief. The body of W. A. Johnson, a farmer from eastern Washington, was found crammed in a trunk at the union station and was tagged for North Puyallup, on the night of June 20, 1910. It was later found out that Johnson had been murdered about 2:30 the afternoon of the day the trunk was discovered in a room in the New Grand Central hotel.
