SHOWER CAUSES DOUBLE-HEADERS FOR TODAY, TOMORROW AND SUNDAY

Father Time yesterday afternoon at the Vaughn street baseball veldt, and although the Villagers and the Beavers waited 30 minutes beyond the regular hour for starting the rain did not permit them to start. Hogan had Aloysius Carson warming up, while McCredle was intent on using Tom Seaton, whom he had limbering up, when the drizzle opened into a regular deluge and the jig was off.

Instead of reading the account of the baseball game, the fans fell to devour-ing the news of the men Judge McCredle put in drafts for, which was printed in The Journal sporting extra last

This is the list, which McCredie forwarded to Secretary Farrell of the National association:

Bancroft, shortstop, Superior, Minesota-Wisconsin league. Manager McCredie tried to get young Peters, who is a Santa Clara college graduate, last year, but while Peters was debating the question an ofly tongued emissary from Connie Mack, Philadelphia Americans, talked the youngster into signing a contract. He was gent to Scranton by the Athletics for further development. Manager Mac says he is faster on his feet even than Metzger of Los Angeles or Oscar Vitt of the Scals. McCredic has been following his work with Scranton and says he is well up in the batting line. Greenwell is a southpaw pitcher, who was tipped off to Manager Mac by an old league mate, Roger Peckinpaugh. Peck says with such schooling as Mac can give him he will become a strong adjunct of the Beaver pitching staff. Byrd, a big, husly hurler, had a trial with Los Angeles a couple of years back and was later with one of the teams in the Northwestern league, being released Helena to get some needed experi-

Here's One for Happy.

"Well," remarked Walter McCredie, the manager who is fighting hardest for the pennant this year, at the billiard parlors yesterday during a lull in the fanning, "If I can't win the Coast league pennant this year, I would rather see Happy Hogan take the flag than any other manager. That might seem strange, but Happy has been working his head off to get up near the top and his hard work deserves some of the fruits of victory. There are thousands of fans all over the circuit pulling for Happy. Down south they seem to look upon the Oakland club, except at home as a bunch of upstarts. I don't know why this should prevail, but that is human nature, I guess. In San Francisco they are pulling for Vernon and Port-land as against Oakland, figuring that the Seals are out of the race. We have always been strong in the city."

No Games in Northwestern

Rains caused the postponement of all Northwestern league ball games yesterday and double-headers will be played this afternoon, provided the weather

Tacoma and Vancouver teams have been unable to play one of the scheduled games this week, and will have to play double-headers today, Saturday and Sunday, in order to get half way through their schedule, Spokane has played two games with the Bees, and has lost both.

Bacigalupo Released.

John Bassey, former Portland player, has been released by Manager Mike Lynch of the Tacoma Tigers. The wonderful showing made by Howard Guyn, another former Portland player, caused the dismissal of the ex-Beaver, whose real name is Bacigalupo.

Bassey will have no trouble catching on next season, and it is likely that the Victoria team will hook onto him. Ash-E. G'dner, N. W. J'nson, W Butcher, Cle. er, a late addition to the twirling staff, was also handed the blue slip.

Scottish Bowler Challenges.

Gust Schwab, ex-champion bowler of Scotland, has issued a challenge to any local bowler to a series of games. Ar rangements to meet the challenge can be made by phoning Marshall 889, or
