Unsurpassed Showing and Sale of the New Season's

As illustrating the worth of the values, we quote the following specials:

Last year we considered our opening display and sale of the new season's Silks for Fall and Winter of surpassing interest, but we confess that by comparison the present one belittles all past efforts. And by that we mean that this 1911 showing excels in variety as well as the liberality of the price range, which is an extremely broad one. The artistic designs, new weaves and beautiful colorings contribute to make this the BEST Fall exhibit this store has EVER made.
