That You May Know the Miller Clothing Co.

Figures Don't Lie!

Granted; but liars use figures sometimes—to say an article that has sold for a given price will be sold for much less, may or may not be true. Price quotations convey little actual knowledge. To be positively certain, to be sure,

You Must See for Yourself

We are not using price quotations in this advertisement, but we show the goods and make the prices—money-saving prices—below your UTMOST IMAGININGS!

If you will not improve this golden opportunity, it's your misfortune, also your fault. We invite you to secure the benefit of our sacrifice. We have the goods you need. We have them at lower prices than elsewhere. If from prejudice or any other cause you remain indifferent, you stand in your own light and you lose out. Need we say more?

The Overcoat Problem

Must be settled—time has arrived—is here—chilly days. Better put your money in an Overcoat than in the doctor's pocket. Whether you want light, medium or heavy weight, the Miller Co. has the garment that will fit your frame and your purse. Hardly necessary to mention latest shape and the clothes that wear so well. Best of all, you get the cut price of the sensational sacrifice sale. It's up to you to save dollars in using a few.

Wishing AND Having

Wishing gets nothing without doing. DO IT NOW is the best motto. Don't procrastinate. Jonah did, and took 40 days' solitary confinement to repent. Better get 'em now and not repent. You feel better — you need wearables. Why not get them and save big money? To deny the body means to starve the soul. Don't put your wishbone where your backbone should be—GET YOURS NOW!
