

CIRCULATORS OF PETITIONS TO BE CALLED IN, BELIEF

Men Whom Detectives Are Unable to Locate May Now Come Forward and Testify in Referendum Case.

Counter attack upon the work of the detective employed by friends of the University of Oregon in the investigation of frauds committed in circulation of referendum petitions against the university appropriation bill is foreshadowed by the announcement that Attorney General Crawford and his associates will call the circulators of the petitions for "verification."

and is interpreted correctly would prevent the wearing or having in possession of any feathers but any one having feathers in their possession or wearing them which were taken from birds killed during closed season.

WARDEN TO ENFORCE CHINA PHEASANT LAW

In answer to the question which has been raised in regard to the wearing of hats trimmed with feathers of the China pheasant, State Game Warden William L. Finley made the following statement:
