haps we would better say, Christendom is suffering from letting loose its hold upon the Bible. The Bible theory, that all the sin and death manifest in the world resulted from Adam's disobedtence, is now generally denied. Consequently, those whe still preach a forgiveness of sins and an escape from the penalty of sin are in the minority.

But those who heed the Bible find a more satisfactory explanation in its teachings, that we are in the dawning of a New Dispensation—the Messianic period so long promised of God as the time in which all the families of the earth will be blessed The Bible theory of man's sin and condemnation to death and of a re-demption of Adam's race from the power of death by the blood of Jesus is one consistent marrative. Because one man alone was the original sinner and the sentence came by one, therefore it was ossible for divine mercy to arrange that by the sacrifice of the Righteous One, the Just for the unjust, the entire race of Adam might be judicially freed from the death sentence and be per-mitted to have a resurrection of the dead and the opportunity of restitution and to approve themselves to God for everlasting life. This, the Bible theory, lays the whole stress of salvation upon the work of our Redeemer. Without it Adam's race would have been as dead as the brute creation. By it a way of among men is inferior in scope to that has been opened up. This is the mean-

The trend of all scholars within the text, that the life is in the blood and past forty years in particular has been that by blood reaction it can readily be away from the Bible. Even those few determined which animals belong to a who still contend for the Bible concede certain species and which do not. The strive to retain a hold upon certain animals by their bones and nature, shreds of truth. The Bible is suffering which has always been more or less unat the hands of Christendom. The Divine arrangement that infectious germ diseases such as syphilis will die out in the third or fourth generation is a most merciful one.

Thus God shows mercy unto thousands of them that love Him and seek to keep the Divine commands. Thus the theories of man crumble, one after another as the decades slip by, and as they have been doing for centuries. Thus the Bible is seen to stand preeminent above all other teachings, demonstrating itself to be the word of God.

To realize the existence of this mighty God is but to dread His omnipotent strength, unless we can see Him possessed of benevolence ani goodness corresponding to His power and wisdom. Not only are we forced to the conclusion that there is a God, and that His power and wisdom are im-measureably beyond our own, but we are forced by reason to the conclusion that the the grandest thing created is not superior to its Creator; hence we must conclude that the greatest mani-

PRESIDENT TAFT FAVORS SUFFRAGE

Interview by James Hay to Woman's | that, as the opopriority and avenue a strong advocate of women exercising brought about I do not know, but carsuffragiet. I make no secret of the fact that I agree with the principle entirely, i, woman suffrage has not been a fall end its results have been tested only in those states where the population is sparse and where the problem of entrusting the privilege and the power to women in the concentrated populations of great cities is not presented.

"Any class seeking the right of suffrage should seek it as a whole and should create the beltef that it will exercise as a whole the political power conferred upon it. If it does not care enough about suffrage for the whole class to exercise the power, then it seems to me that there is always danger of the privilege being exercised by that part of the cases least destruble as political constituents. Also there is the further danger that the right to vote might be neglected by some of those who are highly intelligent and patriotic.

"As I have often said, the women will get the right of suffrage when they want it, and nothing on earth will prevent them from getting it when they really want it. But, saids from the ac tual voting power, the political influence of the women of this country is something tremendous, almost incalable. We know that women, by their influence on their husbands, determine how many of the votes are cast every election day. And there is no way of definitely estimating the tremendous influence of the woman who trains her boys to take a healthy view of politi-cal questions and to study all the issues which may come up to influence the county, state or nation.

"It is often said that women workers are underpaid and that, therefore, they to not have a fair show. This, I believe, is somewhat true today, but it is on the mend. Take the case of the women who are school teachers. There in no higher profession than that of teaching. If a man or woman finds himself or herself specially adapted to it, he or she should never leave it. It is the profession that calls for possibly the greatest self sacrifice, and it is the which is the greatest instrument for the uplifting of youth. In this way it is the ally of the work that is done by women in the home. And I believe

Borax, because of its oftening and cleansing properties, most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Effect of Great Kidney Remedy is Soon Realized

I feel it my duty to let you know what Swamp-Root did for me. I was bothered with my back for over twenty years and at times I could hardly get out of bed. I read your advertisement and decided to try Swamp-Root. Used five bottles, and it has been five years since I used it, and I have never been oothered a day since I took the last bottle of it. I am thoroughly convinced that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root cured me and would recommend it to others suffering as I did.

My husband was troubled with kidney and bladder troubles and he took your Swamp-Root and it cured him. This was about five years ago.
