

CALIFORNIA SUFFRAGETTES WHO FOUGHT FOR AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION

MEN WHO ELECTED LORIMER SENATOR AS GOOD AS GOLD

So Testifies Senator McCormick; He Never Heard of Graft; Thinks Representatives Were Frightened.

(United Press Special Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 11.—As a result of testimony of John Pfeiffer, law partner of Albert J. Hopkins, defendant opponent of William Lorimer as a candidate for United States senate, that five members of the legislature had suddenly switched to Lorimer when Lorimer's agent became active, state senators knowing Lorimer and State Representative White, and that the witness stood today in the investigation of the charges that Lorimer purchased his seat in the senate. Kern arrived today and the committee of the senate elections committee, before which the hearing is being conducted, is now complete.

Senator McCormick testified that he supported Hopkins on 187 ballots and switched to Lorimer in order to break the deadlock. He said he never received any money, as none was offered him, and that throughout his entire legislative career he had never heard of graft, corruption or bribery.

Questioned by Senator Kern, he said he believed that every member of the legislature which elected Lorimer was "honest and as good as gold." He said he did not place any money in the hands of any representative, and that he had taken the bribe he would have given to Lorimer for the money. "I do not know that Lorimer and Griffin to me, but at the time I thought he did."

Terrill continued that he regarded Griffin's remark as leading up to a bribe. He said "I believe he was representing Lorimer, and was offering me $1000 for my vote for Lorimer. If I had taken the bribe he would have gone to Lorimer for the money. I do not know that Lorimer and Griffin to me, but at the time I thought he did."

AMENDMENTS WIN IN CALIFORNIA BY LARGE MAJORITIES

of 12,503 against suffrage, and from indications at this hour this vote means the defeat of woman suffrage in California.

Details Tell Story. Following is the latest compilation on the four most important amendments: Amendment giving women the right to vote and hold office in the state—Yes, 60,948; no, 63,539.

Amendment providing for the initiative and referendum—Yes, 58,745; no, 57,747.

Amendment providing for the recall of all officials, including judges—Yes, 50,387; no, 53,725.

Amendment making the railroad commission one of five members, to be appointed by the governor and giving it certain powers over all public utilities—Yes, 51,671; no, 59,925.

These figures were obtained by partial returns from 143 out of 114 precincts. The amendments for the recall swept every county in the state from which fairly complete returns have been received.

The suffragists although defeated in every district of San Francisco city, were comforted from the fact that they were defeated worst in the tenderloin districts, where the vote was nearly 3 to 1 against them, and they ran best in the working-class districts, as for example the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth, where the vote was more nearly a proportion of 3 to 4. In the fashionable precincts the vote was at least 1 to 1 against suffrage.
