

COURT RULES GOWN
"TOO LOW"; WINS $6500

(United Press Special Wire.)
New York, Oct. 11.—Because the gown worn by Miss Dorothy Jordan in the "Vanguard" in "Madam Xanthos," Ignace Marilloni is today $6500 richer. Marilloni sued a doctor in the town of New York, who last fall in Chicago when he observed the gown, which he maintained was "shockingly low." He sued for damages sustained through the loss of employment.

RENO NO LONGER TO BE HAVEN FOR SOUL MATES

(United Press Special Wire.)
Reno, Nev., Oct. 11.—Reno's divorce colony is shocked today over the announcement that no more divorces will be awarded to men or women coming to this city with "affidits." This decision was made by Judge John S. Orr in the district court, following a motion to dissolve a divorce action in which affidits played an active part.
"I do not intend to be used as a trap and assist in securing a decree for a woman when she comes to Reno with an affidavit," declared Attorney Haven, attorney for the plaintiff in the action, and the court sided with him.

Outbreak in Turkey Feared.

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—It is feared here today that the reported declaration of an armistice between Italy and Turkey will start an outbreak of the people, as the young Turks are doing all they can to fan the war fever. They have so far been unsuccessful in Constantinople, except in influencing the army, which is clamoring to meet the Italians.
Fresh outbreaks of the young Turk party against the government are occurring about the country.
The new army corps at Salonika threatens to march upon the city if peace with Italy is concluded.

AFTER LOSING BOTH LEGS
JOHNSON SHOTS HAND

(Special to The Journal.)
Coeville, Wash., Oct. 11.—While clearing a rifle at his home in Coeville yesterday Olin Johnson, allowed the weapon to discharge, the bullet passing between the bones of his right hand and causing a dangerous wound. Johnson fell from the roof of a box car at Coeville some time ago and suffered the loss of both legs.

$1 a Week Buys the Planished Steel Peninsular Range

IS A RANGE WHICH WILL SAVE MONEY—its fuel consumption is surprisingly low. Most housewives don't realize this at first, and feed the Peninsular the same amount of fuel as they would the ordinary cast iron stove—but that's a mistake. In using the Peninsular keep your fire low and SAVE money. In time you will find that the Peninsular actually does pay for itself in this saving of fuel, which is due to its sound, thorough construction, which guarantees the same efficient economical service after 10 years' use as it did the first year.
