Vancouver council Bapors Appears O44. In view of the opinions expressed by Mayor Rushlight and City Engineer Huriburt this morning as to the quality of the Listle Falls sewer pipe, the re-port made by Inspector Wilheim seems introve and is directly at variance with the opinion given his superior. The re-port filed by Wilheim is as follows: To the honorable mayor and sity rouncil of Vancouver. After an ex-mination of the pipe delivered to this date I am convinced that it is pipe of second quality and not up to the speci-fications of the city of Vancouver." Depice Stories.

"When I saw this report." said E. T. Inspector Wilhelm also denied that he received $58 when called upon by City Engineer Hurlburt to explain why he had gone over to Vancouver. he had gone over to Vancouver. The city engineer administered a reprimand to Wilhelm, telling him at the same time that he has plenty of work to do in Portland without seeking amployment outside of this city. The city is growing—growing rapidly in various directions. The greatest growth, however, is and has for the past three years been Rose City Park way—in fact, 50 per cent of all residences built in the last two years have been in the Rose City Park district. Isn't it reasonable to figure that the greatest growth will still continue in this same direction? It can't help it. It's the ONE natural avenue in which to expand.

Then stop for a moment and realize that Parkrose lies just beyond Rose City Park—in the direct path of this growth. Realize that the Rose City Park carline will be extended to the center of the tract immediately. It all means that Parkrose will witness the greatest upbuilding and development that have ever been seen in this city.

But that's not all. While the investment features of Parkrose are most promising, you can in addition raise your own vegetables, fruits, etc., and actually cut your living expenses squarely in half. In Parkrose you'll have unexcelled streetcar facilities-you'll have water-you'll have telephones-you'll have electric lights-all the comforts and conveniences that make life worth while.

"I cannot consent to any attempt at legal lynching, and I feel that we can rely on this court to see that we have a fair and impartial fury — not one was destroyed by dynamite which was placed there by this accused man. This is not the trial of a chicken thief but the trial of a man for his life." Assistant District Attorney Ford then closed the argument for the state, re-iterating that it was the contention of the prosecution that McNamara was entitled "not to a safe jury, but to an impartion one." Nelson, he said, had agreed that he could give McNamara is fair deal and that certainly qualified him to serve under the code. Give him his constitutional rights and we'll be satisfied."

Judga Bordwell then announced that he would reserve decision until 2 o'clock, when he will ask Nelson some questions and then probably announce his decision.
