

DEPOSITORS MAY HIRE PROSECUTOR

Mass Meeting Called to Hire Man to Push Case Against Phillips, Daniels.

Special to the Journal. Vancouver, Wash., Oct. 29.—Having in view the employment of a special prosecutor to handle District Attorney Tamm of Clark county in the trial of Hugh C. Phillips and Gilbert W. Daniels, who are indicted on the charge of wrecking the Commercial bank, a mass meeting has been called for next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The call has been issued by J. R. Harvey, chairman of the committee of depositors of the defunct bank. With the trial one month away, there is a widespread feeling among the depositors that a lawyer of ability and experience in the trial of such cases should be employed. To enable this attorney to study the case and be prepared when the time comes, this time was set for the meeting.

CATCHER'S HIT FITTING CLIMAX TO THE WEST'S MOST EXCITING SEASON

(Continued from Page One.) stretch against the great Beaver machine driven by Walter McCredie. Portland has always been a contender in the race. A poor pitching staff, the Beavers gradually made up ground on the other side while the marvel of the league, while the hitting this year was above the average of Portland clubs of late years. Several "phenoms" were uncovered this season—Kuhn, Beckenbach and Rodgers standing out as the best of the league in their respective positions.

Expert Selected Portland. On the eve of departure to the baseball training camp at Santa Maria, The Journal's baseball expert selected Portland to repeat in winning the pennant, and this prediction has been justified in the work of the Beavers in capturing the championship yesterday at San Francisco.
