

WILLIE'S LATEST DEVICE CATCHES A CIGAR THIEF

DEAR TOMMY: Somebody in the office has been stealing Papa's cigars, so I made a contrivance like this to catch him. Jimmy, the shipping clerk, told me it was the office boy, and I tried it on him first. He was all right, but when Jimmy looked at the picture about a dozen perfectos popped out of his pockets. He's looking for another job now! Yours, etc., WILLIE.

FOR HE'S A JOLLY GOOD FELLOW—UNTIL HE GETS HOME

has ag...
 rev...
 el...
 the...
 alle...
 han...
 Tom...
 el...
 Stat...
 now...
 Yan...
 Jan...
 in S...
 this...
 In a...
 engo...
 near...
 year...
 freed...
 They...
 becoo...
 Pacif...
 Fre...
 ary...
 ep...
 utors...
 At th...
 of su...
 day...
 in it...
 read...
 ter...
 Mich...
 York...
 erican...
 Ther...
 trest...
 lution...
 than...
 States...
 Chinese...
 Picture...
 ing...
 mart...
 tal...
 gaudily...
 over th...
 war...
 gth...
 cidental...
 Tong... which...
 each...
 enough...
 been...
 newsp...