

pleted preparations for flight and are ready to fice following messages announcing one more decisive victory for the revolutionists. They will seek refuge temporarily in the imperial palat Je Hol, 120 miles north of Peking.

government is desperately The ressed for funds and is unable to pay alaries of the court attendants. The salaries of the court attendants. attendants are declared to be aware of this and disaffection is agitating them.

Officials Flee to Shanghai. Manchu officials are fleeing

Shanghai to escape massacre. General Feng had been newly pointed governor of Canton. His wife is said to have been with him and to have been killed when the bomb ex-ploded. He was chosen last spring to succeed General Chung, when the latter was assassinated.

Details of the assassination of the new governor state that he, his wife and an escort of 20 guards were leaving a steamboat at Canton when the bomb was dropped. The terrific explo-sion which followed hurled mangled bodies in all directions.

Messages from Hankow today say that the rebels are preparing to estab-lish a provisional republic headquarters at Kiukang.

Strengthened by Captured Artillery, Rebels Advance on Imperialists and Force Government Soldiers to Retreat

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 25.-Strengthened oy hundreds of pleces of artillery captured in engagements with the governent troops near Hankow at the beginning of the revolution, 15,000 Chinese rebels yesterday met and defeated 20,000 imperialists under General Ying Chang near the town of Wu Sing Kiang, in the mountains forming the boundary line between Hupeh and Honan provinces, according to a dispatch received here today by the Chinese Free Press from its Shanghai correspondent. The rebels advanced on the imperialists in face of fire from 170 cannon and forced the government soldlers to retreat in disor

A cable received by the Young China, another Chinatown publication, says a large body of imperalists in the province of Sin SI, one of the states near the Manchurian border in the porth-west, has revolted. If they carry Sin SI it will be the first state in the north that the rebels have gained and others are expected to follow.

tanks." Ipswich, Mass., Oct. 25 .- Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the president, fell from her horse here while following the hounds at the hunt of the Myopia club. She was unhurt.

The accident occurred yesterday but the news was suppressed until today for fear of alarming the young lady's We have complied with the law and mothers

ALTITUDE OF CLIFTON

Washington, Oct. 25 .- According to the United States Geological survey the and that our business is not a menace lowest point in the state of Oregon thus far marked by the survey is in the multy. But I would ask for our com-Cathlamet quadrangle, 80 feet north-east of the station at Clifton, 8.419 feet (Continued on Pare Two) above mean sea level.

Main Question. "The question to settle," said Attorney H. M. Cake, of the oil company, "is the correctness of the Union Oil company's contention that its business is not dangerous. This council has passed an ordinance creating oil tank districts.

have purchased a site and are constructing a plant. Whatever vested rights we can acquire we have already obtained. The only legitimate reason the council LOWEST IN OREGON can have to repeal this ordinance would be that conditions had changed since the ordinance was passed. We hold that there has been no change of conditions munity. But I would ask for our com-(Continued on Page Two.)

PRINCIPALS IN TRAGEDY INVOLVING MASSACHUSETTS BAPTIST MINISTER

The first examination was performed after finding the body in the bathroom on the night of the girl's death, and the second at midnight last night, when the coffin was opened. Police Captain Armstrong, head of the bureau of crim-Inal investigation, demanded the third examination, asserting dissatisfaction at the "haphazard manner" in which the first autopsy was made.

Reason Not Made Enown.

It is unknown just what the autopsy is expected to develop. All the internal organs have been removed and sent to the Harvard laboratory for quantitative and qualitative analysis. The police are unable to determine how Miss Linnell disposed of the bottle, and paper con which is in progress here today. This operation for the bullet, which was a is the third time the body has been ex-amined.

Sheriff Chrisman of Wasco county left Shaniko at 10 o'clock this morning with by the bank receiver in most instances. Howell, guarding him closely with the aid of deputies, for feeling at Shaniko was high against the slayer.

Howell has himself arrested and brought to justice many criminals. He had several pistol battles with bad men while deputy sheriff. He was removed by Sheriff Chrisman two years ago for drunkenness and overbearing conduct. He is a nephew of Tom Strickland, a noted race horse man of the early days. His father resides at Wamic, a hamlet in southern Wasco county. Howell was a prominent business man at Shaniko for several years. After accumulating a considerable fortune he removed with his wife and two children to Portland a year ago. He was in the wood business on the east side in Portland. His wife is a daughter of William Kelsay, a pioneer stockman of Antelope, Or.

A special train hurried Fowlie to The Dalles hospital.

FATAL ACCIDENT

ON GLIDDEN TOL

Killed When Car Turns

Turtle.

When the University referendum case "It would be difficult to prove the officers of the bank criminally liable or was resumed at 10 o'clock this afternoon County Clerk Fields of Multnomah was not placed upon the witness stand. His of the $344,000 of loans and discounts call to Salem will probably prove a flasco. was well secured, or was backed up by Arguments on the question of a contingood commercial paper, but such was not the case. Of the $344,000 above uance were resurced and continued until a late hour in the afternoon. Mr. Wood mentioned, approximately $200,000 was asks until November 25 to prepare to loaned to the following people: Phillips begin the state's story. The plaintiff & Aldrich, $98,000; Moore & Hardin, has not formally rested yet. Judge Sla-ter declared the attorney general told & Co., $41,000; Central Manufacturing & Co., $41,000; Central Manufacturing company, $13,000; W. S. Miller, $7000. (Continued on Page Four.)

"Moore & Hardin are in bankruptcy, with about $100,000 liabilities and but a few thousand assets. Rector & Daly have made a statement showing liabili ties of $100,000 with assets of but $15, 000 and are now in bankruptcy. While Swank & Co. is in far better shape than most of the other debtors, it is also in bankruptcy and will pay to the bank, but not to the other creditors, better than 50 cents of the dollar. "It is perfectly clear that this bank was badly insolvent December 17, 1910, when hundreds of dollars' worth of Chairman of Contest Board Is when hundreds of dollars worth of from many of you. "Phillips and Aldrich had been spec-ulating and running behind for years. They knew that their assets were all of doubtful character. Most of the other debtors were residents of Vancouver, and most of them were com-monly known to be in 'deep water,' and unable to meet their obligations."

Divorce!

The increasing prevalence of divorce invites the close attention of

Read the results of some of these studies as embodied in an article "The Doctor and The Divorce" in THE JOURNAL Magazine for social student and statistician.

Next Sunday

(United Press Leased Wire.) Tifton, Ga., Oct. 25.-S. M. Butler, chairman of the contest board of the American Automobile association, was instantly killed today when the Cunningham car, pacemaker for the Glid-den tour, turned turtle outside Tifton. Divorce! Divorce!

P. J. Walker, the referee, sustained a fractured collarbone, and Mrs. Walk-er's shoulder was dislocated. The in-jured were brought here. The tour has een postponed. Butler resided in New York. The Walkers are from San Francisco.

· San Francisco, Oct. 25.-Percy J. Walken is a prominent local contractor, president of the California State Automobile association and Pacific coast representative of the automobile asso-ciation. A telegram was received at his office today giving details of the ac-cident and advising his associates not to worry, against President H. C. Phillips and Cashier Gilbert Daniels at Kalama on November 23. The amounts will be deducted from the next dividend allowed The following report was made by the depositors' committee: f'When the Commercial bank of Van couver was taken over by Phillips and Aldrich in 1907 it had on hand shout $200,000 cash, $113,000 in loans and discounts and $325,000 in deposits.

"When it closed its doors December 17, 1910; its cash had shrunk from After getting three hits in the earlier $200,000 to $9000, its loans and dis-17, 1910; its cash had shrunk from ounts had increased from $113,000 to $344,000 (more than three times), while its deposits were but $390,000, very little more than when Phillips and Aldrich purchased it from Mr. Beard.

"In other words, while the money deposited under the new management was but little more than under the old, still the new officers loaned three times the money that the old officers loaned and during the four years in office using up all but $9000 of the $200,000 of cash on hand.

SLAYS RIVAL REPROVED BY GIRL

> Reprimanded in Other's Presence by One He Loved, He Kills More Favored Suitor and Shoots Maiden.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 25.-

Fighting desperately to the last minute, the New York Glants today plucked vic-tory from defeat and prevented the world's champion Athletics from again grabbing the title. The score was 4 to of the tenth inning. Doyle, the Giants' second baseman, was the hitting sensation of the day.

was first man up in the tenth. Then Snodgress, who had shown noth-

STABLEMAN LOVER

(Continued on Page Four.)

The final run came in the last half

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Jose, Cal., Oct. 25.—Manuel Gar-cia, a stableman, who early today shot and killed Simon Romero, a Monterey millionaire, and seriously wounded Miss Belle Quesada here, was captured before noon, after a desperate fight, in which he was mortally wounded. He died later in the county jail. Garcia took one of Miss Quesada's thoroughbred horses last night and re-turned to the house early today, find-ing Romere and the girl in the kitchen over a pot of chocolate. His intrusion was resented. The girl accused him of taking her favorite horse. He admitted it. Her answer was a hot reprimand, which was cut short when Garcia drew a revolver and sent a bullet through Romero's heart,

Then he turned the gun on the girl and shot her. She fell, and shot her. She fell. Thinking he had fatally wounded Miss Quesada, Garcia darted for the door, when another occupant of the house ap-peared and grappied with him. He pre-vented Garcia from firing another shot at the prostrate girl but the stablemap escaped into the darkness, mounting the horse, and galloping toward the foot-bills

News of the shooting was carried to neighbors and the alarm spread. Posses were organized and the sheriff's office was notified. Ranchers and the sur horities joined fore ict was be

SARA S and such

Above-Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Avis Linnell, whom he is accused of poisoning. Below is a picture of Miss Violet Edmands, wealthy fiancee of the minister, for whom he is said to have jilted the girl who took a fatal dose cyanide of potassium through ignorance,

(Continued on Page Two.)