

INDICT SLEUTHS FOR KIDNAPING

Maloney, Mallett, Also Rinker of Denver, Must Answer in Martin Case.

Detectives Maloney and Mallett and Deputy Sheriff W. A. Rinker, of Denver, Colo., were indicted yesterday afternoon by the grand jury for kidnaping Leo Martin October 14 and attempting to illegally take him to Denver. The two local detectives will be served with bench warrants today, and will be asked to appear at 3 o'clock tomorrow in Judge Ostrow's court.

The indictment in the Martin case is the result of Judge Ostrow's decision that the three officers should be punished. West really accused the sleuths of the court was the promise made by the three officers not to kidnap Martin, and then deliberately to plan to take the young man out of the state. It was through the efforts of Judge Ostrow and Attorney Brooking and Ostrow, who appeared for Martin, that the Denver officer and Martin were apprehended at Newport, Wash., and pulled from the train. The Denver officer went home.

John Hawkes and Louis Lockhart were indicted for larceny of furniture from the store of Dr. J. B. W. W. Lockhart has turned state's evidence and implicated Hawkes in many thefts. The two men were arrested by Constable Hall, of Lodi, after he had been on their trail for a week. Hawkes has property worth about $4,000.
