

SCENES IN HANKOW, GREAT FLOOD IN AUGUST

Above—Looking toward the customs building at Hankow during the great flood of August, which was followed by hardships that brooked the dissatisfaction leading to the outbreak of the present revolution, which has been smoldering in the minds of the people for years. Below—Rear of the British consulate at Hankow during the August flood. During the flood the city was turned into a regular Venice, but less damage was done at Hankow than in other parts of the flooded districts.

MACFARLAND WILL PLEAD NOT GUILTY; WRITES LIFE TALE

Accused Wife Murderer Writes History to Assist Attorney in Preparing Defense; State Makes Search.

(United Press Special Wire.) Newark, N. J., Oct. 28.—"Not guilty" will be Allison MacFarland's answer when he is arraigned in criminal court here Tuesday to face the charge of wife murder. Frank M. McDermott, MacFarland's counsel stated today that by that time the prosecution of the defense will be well under way.

FEDERALS OCCUPY HANKOW AFTER HOT FIGHT IN TRENCHES

(Continued from Page One.) don the trenches and the imperial troops then entered the native city. The second engagement was fought at the end of the bridge where the rebels were forced from their position at Li Chiu temple. This paved the way for entrance into the other division of Hankow and although possession was assured last night the city was not occupied until today.

Large quantities of guns and ammunition fell into the hands of the imperialists. The revolutionists have fallen back across the Han river into Han Yang.

Victory May Be Significant. It may be significant that this first victory for the government is coincident with the announcement that Yuan Shih Kai has received the full powers of a dictator. All the forces of the empire are under his command and the viceroys of all the provinces are subject to his orders.

REPORTS OF VICTORY NOT FULLY BELIEVED; SHANGHAI DOUBTFUL

(By the International News Service.) Shanghai, Oct. 28.—The dispatches telling of a government victory at Hankow are received here, even in official circles, with incredulity. The situation around Shanghai and along the lower part of Yangtze river continues desperate for the government. There are persistent reports that Chiang Kiang is about to fall into rebel hands. This is about 150 miles above Shanghai and is regarded here as the keynote of Shanghai's defense.

AUDITORIUM PLAN SELECTED; NAME OF DESIGNER UNKNOWN

(Continued from Page One.) ted during the latter part of the week. When first exhibited there were 63 plans submitted in competition. Twenty more were received and placed on exhibit and the sixty-fifth arrived in the city too late for consideration.

SUCCESS OF REVOLT FORESEEN; 90 PER CENT DISTRUST MANCHUS

(Special to The Journal.) San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 28.—The revolution had not broken out when the liner Mongolia, which arrived here today, left China, but there were indications on every hand of approaching trouble. Passengers on the steamer among them people who have spent many years in China, say that the sentiment throughout China is so overwhelmingly in favor of the insurrection that its speedy success is a certainty.

3 DIE, DOZEN HURT WHEN PASSENGER STRIKES FREIGHT

(United Press Special Wire.) Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 28.—Three persons were killed and a dozen seriously injured when Union Pacific passenger train No. 4 collided head-on with a freight at Rock River today while running 50 miles an hour. Four cars and the engine of the passenger went into the ditch.

BAY CITY CELESTIALS GIVE PLAY TO RAISE FUNDS FOR REVOLT

(United Press Special Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 28.—For the benefit of the revolution in China, local Chinese are presenting a play in a Chinatown theatre which bids fair to run throughout the time of the revolution to standing room only.

HUNTER PULLS RIFLE BY MUZZLE; IS DEAD

(Special to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Oct. 28.—Cesar Martini was accidentally shot and killed at Honey Creek, 30 miles east of Roseburg, yesterday afternoon as he pulled his gun from under a pile of harness.

JURY GIVES LANDOWNER $2500; HE ASKED $12,000

Albany, Or., Oct. 28.—In the Oregon Electric condemnation suit against D. M. Cooper, a verdict was rendered after the jury had been out six hours, and gave D. M. Cooper $2500. The Oregon Electric wanted about three acres of Mr. Cooper's place for a right of way and Cooper asked $12,000 for the property. The Oregon Electric, thinking the price excessive, began suit.

HEAD BRAKEMAN IS ARRESTED AS RESPONSIBLE FOR FATAL UNION PACIFIC WRECK NEAR LARAMIE, WYOMING.

(United Press Special Wire.) Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 28.—The head brakeman of the Union Pacific passenger train No. 4, which was involved in the fatal wreck near Rock River, today was arrested as responsible for the disaster.

HANDY INVALID'S CHAIR

The invalid's chair that a New Yorker has patented is especially designed for carrying a person up or down stairs, having handles for the purpose on top of the back and near the bottom of the front legs.

WOMAN'S NAME MAY BE CHANGED TO TAKHOMA

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Taft's recent sally on the long drawn out controversy between the cities of Seattle and Tacoma over the name to be bestowed on what is now officially known as Mount Rainier, will, in all probability bring about an early day an attempt to persuade the United States geographic board to reverse its findings.

PEOPLE'S RULE LEAGUE ALARMED

The People's Rule League of America, alarmed over the possible outcome of the suit pending in the supreme court of the United States attacking the constitutionality of the initiative and referendum, is appealing to the attorneys general of all states directly interested to prepare briefs in support of the validity of this theory of government.

TENNIS RANKINGS MADE FOR SEASON

Wickersham Is Leading Player of City and Edgar Numbers Tenth.

Portland's ten ranking tennis players have been selected by the joint committee selected by the Irvington and the Multnomah Tennis clubs, and were officially proclaimed yesterday. The ranking committee was composed of A. D. Wakeman of the Multnomah club and Ralph Gerrill of the Irvington club, who in turn, selected H. W. Wither as the third member.

FANS AT BANQUET HONOR N. Y. GIANTS

(United Press Special Wire.) New York, Oct. 28.—Two hundred died-in-the-wool fans, who didn't even lose heart because the Giants lost the world's series, were present tonight at the Hotel Imperial at a banquet given to the players in recognition of their achievement in winning the National League pennant.

MOUNT'S NAME MAY BE CHANGED TO TAKHOMA

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Taft's recent sally on the long drawn out controversy between the cities of Seattle and Tacoma over the name to be bestowed on what is now officially known as Mount Rainier, will, in all probability bring about an early day an attempt to persuade the United States geographic board to reverse its findings.

POLO SEASON FOR LOCALS IS CLOSED

Boise Players Will Not Meet Locals Until Next Spring.

The Boise, Idaho, polo team will not visit Portland this season as was announced some time ago, but will make a trip here next spring when the Portland club opens the season in April. The new grounds at Garden Home will be completed then and some very fine games are expected. They will no doubt draw large crowds, as the English game is a new sport in the northwest and much curiosity is prevailing over it.

WASHINGTON HAS TIME WITH IDAHO

(Special to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Oct. 28.—The University of Washington football warriors smothered, ran over and crowded the Idaho men off the field during the first period of their football game at Natatorium park this afternoon. At the end of that time the score stood 11 to 0 in favor of Washington. Luck did not enter into the battle. There was no such thing as a fumble. It was all matter of superiority of weight, skill and team work.

WASHINGTON HAS TIME WITH IDAHO

Idaho came back in the second period with some of the hardest and most stubborn playing ever witnessed here, trying a search for the Washington boys, preventing further gains and time and again bringing the enthusiastic spectators to their feet in excitement. Washington failed to score again until the last period, when with some five looks they broke down Idaho's line for a touchdown and successful goal, and as a result the score ended 17 to 0.

WASHINGTON HAS TIME WITH IDAHO

Doble's Men Unable to Swamp Supposedly Weak Gem State Eleven.

(Special to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Oct. 28.—The University of Washington football warriors smothered, ran over and crowded the Idaho men off the field during the first period of their football game at Natatorium park this afternoon. At the end of that time the score stood 11 to 0 in favor of Washington. Luck did not enter into the battle. There was no such thing as a fumble. It was all matter of superiority of weight, skill and team work.

WASHINGTON HAS TIME WITH IDAHO

Idaho came back in the second period with some of the hardest and most stubborn playing ever witnessed here, trying a search for the Washington boys, preventing further gains and time and again bringing the enthusiastic spectators to their feet in excitement. Washington failed to score again until the last period, when with some five looks they broke down Idaho's line for a touchdown and successful goal, and as a result the score ended 17 to 0.

WASHINGTON HAS TIME WITH IDAHO

Idaho came back in the second period with some of the hardest and most stubborn playing ever witnessed here, trying a search for the Washington boys, preventing further gains and time and again bringing the enthusiastic spectators to their feet in excitement. Washington failed to score again until the last period, when with some five looks they broke down Idaho's line for a touchdown and successful goal, and as a result the score ended 17 to 0.

MOYER WHY Pay $20.00 or $25.00 in Uptown Stores for a SUIT or RAINCOAT When You Can Buy One Equally as Good at Any of OUR Stores for $15 If you examine the windows you will frequently find identical garments in other stores at $5 to $10 more than we ask. For years we have been giving the best clothing values in the city. Our reputation has been built on values. That is why we sell more clothing than any other house on the Pacific Coast. When You See It in Our Ad It's So THIRD AND OAK 87-89 THIRD STREET FIRST AND MORRISON FIRST AND YAMHILL SECOND AND MORRISON