

AFRICAN CAMPAIGN THREATENS THRONE OF KING EMMANUEL

Reports That Turks Have Re-occupied Tripoli Seem to Be Well Confirmed—Loss of Life Thought to Be Heavy.

(United Press Special Wire.)
London, Oct. 29.—Messages received here today from Tripoli indicate that the Italian army there has suffered a heavy reverse, but Rome officials deny the report that the Turks have reoccupied the city of Tripoli after a terrific battle.

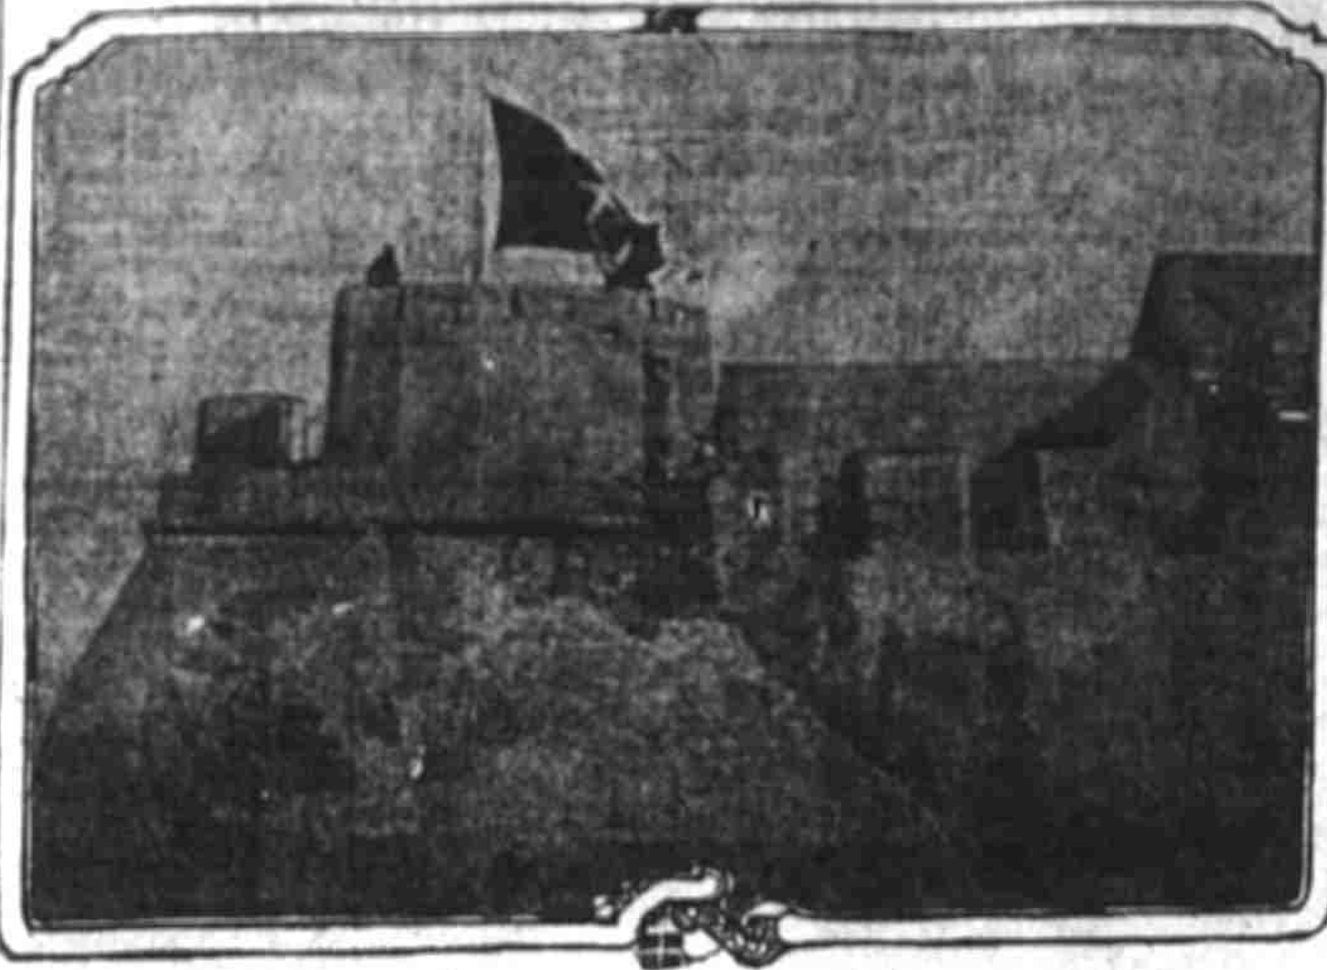

Great danger to Italy is seen here in the disaster which it is almost certain Italian arms have suffered in the African campaign. The anti-militarists are eagerly awaiting such an opportunity to start an outbreak, which it is feared may ultimately prove as serious as to cause a revolution, endangering the throne of King Victor Emmanuel.

Constantinople, Oct. 28.—In a desperate attack upon the Italian cordon outside Tripoli on Saturday the Turks drove the Italian defenders back into the city in wild disorder, according to a dispatch to the Turkish newspaper Sahah today.

The dispatch states that 200 men were killed and several hundred wounded. The Italians are reported penned in the city, and are in imminent danger of annihilation.

(United Press Special Wire.)
Rome, Oct. 29.—The situation of the Italian troops in Tripoli is exceedingly barren, according to unconfirmed dispatches reaching here from the scene of the fighting. A hurry call for reinforcements to relieve the troops there has been granted. Details are lacking but it is feared that another severe battle has been fought with heavy losses to the Italian army.

Arabs Are Slaughtered.
Malta, Oct. 29.—Systematic slaughter of Arabs in the oasis outside Tripoli has been carried on for three days by the Italians, according to dispatches from that city reaching here today. Every Arab met is said to have been shot down without trial and many were killed.

The same dispatch states that immense damage was done to the fortifications following the Italian bombardment of Benghazi on October 23, 200 civilians, half of whom were women, having been shot down.

COMMISSION HERE TO SECURE IDEAS ON CENTRAL BANK

Commissioner discussed the plan with members of the committee, Messrs. C. and W. of the Hotel Portland. Chairman proposed the national credit by providing a safe repository for the reserve funds of the banks of the United States.

"At present," said Mr. Vreeland, "the reserve of the country banks are sent to New York, where they are loaned out to Wall street, which furnishes stocks and bonds as securities. This is all right as long as the financial atmosphere is clear, but the minute anything happens, credit becomes strained everywhere. If a New York bank goes under banks all over the country begin to fail and the suffering resultant is hard on the business and working man."

to be short time loans on conventional basis—approximately—on loan to be for more than 15 days. In that way a portion of the money put at interest will be circulating constantly.

"With such a reserve on hand at the disposal of the banks at all times the danger would seem to be practically nullified. We have taken the place of all of great central banks of Europe, creating and adapted them to the needs of the United States as best we could. Our proposed association would be a bank for all the United States and with its numerous branches should be of great help in quieting local disturbances, by facilitating the movement of money and protecting the public generally against the evils of hard times."

MILITARY SCHOOL FOR CHINESE IS DENIED

(United Press Special Wire.)
Honolulu, Oct. 29.—Governor Frazar has just refused F. W. Bogert permission to open a military school here, on the ground that the Chinese would be chiefly benefited. Bogert had not stated that the intention was to establish it with the idea of assisting militant Chinese in the rudiments of military gunnery, but it is generally understood that such was the plan.

Residents of peace China are in a high pitch of excitement over the Chinese rebellion and a latent threat for fighting is felt. Bogert is said to have been acting for Chinese patriots who wish to see the disbandment of the Marine Corps and intended drilling the troops here under the guise of school cadets.

Another petition on behalf of the Koreans who would like to "drill for physical and mental improvement" was treated in a similar manner.

Seeks to Enjoin Strikers.
Austin, Texas, Oct. 29.—In the federal district court here today a hearing was held on the petition of the Houston & Texas Central Railway company for an order to restrain officers of the striking shopmen at Austin, Waco and other points from interfering in any way with the employees of the railway.

BONDS TAKEN 5 DAYS AFTER BIDS ARE ASKED

An interesting phase of the recent sale of improvement bonds by the city of Portland has been noted by E. L. Page, secretary of the Portland Trust company.

"It is a remarkable tribute to the city that the bonds sold last Monday amounting to $11,833, were taken just five days after they were first advertised at figures ranging from 102.50 to 103.50. These bonds were signed by the mayor on October 15, were first advertised October 18 and were sold at advertised premiums on October 23. The fact that only five days elapsed shows that Portland capital is becoming interested in the city's welfare for bonds were taken up even before time had elapsed to give eastern bond buyers a chance to more than learn of the sale."

NEVADA WOMEN MAY PLAY BRIDGE FOR PRIZES

(United Press Special Wire.)
Reno, Nev., Oct. 29.—Gamblers here are gleeful today over the discovery that a joker in the crime and punishment act adopted by the last legislature, ostensibly for the purpose of permitting society ladies to play bridge for prizes, lets them in on the deal also, so that they may resume their practice openly after January 1. All games except poker, seven and a half, stud and seven up are allowed.
