Champion and Terrible Turk Entertain Portland Fans With Exhibitions.

Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Iowa, U. S. A. listed in the directory of that rustic village as plain "farmer" but known over the rest of the world as the champion wrestler, hippodromer for the benefit of the Portland fans last night with a 218 pound lump of bone and sinew named Hober, beating his opponent in an aggregate of 14 minutes and 45 seconds.

Quite a crowd of Portland fans gathered around the ringside to say goodbye to the champion and take a peep at the torturing Turk. It was a good natural crowd, and the wrestler was given a walk with a little more of the ropes.

The real match of the evening was between Walter Arndt and Kid Williams, two local welterweights. Williams getting the verdict because Arndt couldn't toss him once in 15 minutes.

A pleasurable feature of the show was the absence of the usual insipid huriling of challenges by clamorous wrestlers.

CRIPPLED TEAMS TO PLAY TOMORROW

Jefferson and Lincoln Will Have Good Men Out of Scrimmage.

Although each team is suffering the loss of some of the star players, the game between the Lincoln high school and Jefferson eleven will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Multnomah field at 3:15 as scheduled.

Both teams were out yesterday afternoon in scrimmages with the second eleven. Jefferson is suffering the loss of three or four best players and on this account wanted to have the game postponed until next week.

Patterson's ankle is giving him a little trouble, but the star backfield man of the Cardinals is giving the weak member a great deal of attention and thinks he will be able to play. Tyson is limping around with his left leg in a patent shin guard and plans to play in the game Friday as long as his leg will stand the strain.

Vesper and Bibbe are the two players that will be missed by the Jefferson team, although each may try to start the game.

In case Vesper is unable to play Magnus will take his place at right end. Ashworth's place at center will be taken by Johnson, who played on the second team last season.

Coach Rheinhart of the Lincoln team, made a wise move by putting Young and Olson at the end positions in Friday's game.
