New Departure

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embolming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of 125 to 175 on each funeral.

> Never in the history of Portland's piano industry have Standard Pianos been offered at such low figures as we now offer you at our present store, 304 Oak Street

Our intentions are not to move one single piano, player plane or grand piano into our new store, because when we open our new display rooms we shall have the greatest exhibit of artistic instruments ever displayed under one single roof in the Pacific Northwest.

We are determined to sell everything in the line of pianos, fixtures and other merchandise in our present quarters. When moving day comes we want to take nothing from this old store but our hats and the pleasant memories of old friends and customers. The latter we hope to have the pleasure of renewing in our new home, where the same old policy of fair dealings to all will continue to appeal to old patrons as

We have been in the plano business since 1873, controlling the exclusive agency for the largest number of the high-grade makes handled by any one firm in the West.

It is quality that has put us in the leading position. Quality has always been the first thought in the selling of any instrument by the Wiley B. Allen Co.

If you are really looking for bargains in high-grade planes come in today or your earliest convenience. Remember, the stock includes practically every well-known make piano-all are offered at our removal prices, which are lower than any ever before offered in the City of Portland. The entire lot will be sold-none will be moved to our new store. For this reason we will arrange special terms at this time if
