About the only public statement he has made in that there has been a mistake in identity, which he thinks will be cleared later. However, to attaches of the where he is staying and where he is under surveillance by persons afred by Mrs. Leiberg, he stated today regarding his condition.

Marvin, or Lewis, is to all appearances a perfectly rational and normal American sitiaen. His dress speech and manner are those of a widely read man of the world. He discusses various topics of public interest with the intelligence of a college professor. He does not appear even to have been a not appear ever to have been a weakling, as Mrs. Leiberg alleges, and on that account some people here are of the opinion that she may be mistaken as to his identity, although a local physician who has examined him says he is confident he is Mrs. Letterg's son. Williamson will not arrive here until after I o'clock.

Mrs. C. E. Leiberg, mother of Bernard Marvin, was in Portland Hillsborn yesterday, endeavoring to ascertain whether her son at the latter place some time ago received an injury that might have resulted in loss of memory.

Marvin called at Mrs. Leiberg's door, up the McKenzie river valley, last week, and when hailed by Mrs. Leiberg as her son persisted in identifying himself as Lewis, finally leaving when his mother insisted he was Marvin.

Marvin then went to various lumber towns in the county, Mrs. Leiberg and her husband, Marvin's stepfather, being unable to locate him until he was found handling lumber for a mill at Hilsboro, Or., Nov. 7.—Bernard Marvin disappeared September 11 from Hillsboro. It was first believed he had and water, and then into this pour one and water, and then into this pour one ounce beta-canthol. This makes a full pint of elegant hair-and-scalp-tonic at little cost. Massaging the scalp frequently with this beta-canthol tonic was positively identified at Biletz, a few weeks later where he gave the name of Lewis. This is the name he is said to have given at Eugene. Letters in his baggangs showed he had a sweetheart at Oregon City, Nov. 7.—The funeral of the late Marion Naught was held here yesterday under the auspices of Meade Post No. 2, G. Ai R. He was born in Illinois, March 29, 1838, and crossed the plains in 1852 to Oregon, settling in Folk county, where he lived until he enlisted at Fort Vancouver in the First Oregon regiment. He served through the Civil wars At the close of the struggle Mr. Naught went on a farm at Milk Creek, Clackamas county, but had been a resident of Oregon City for the last 14 years. He was married the last 14 years. He was married three times and is survived by the following children: Mrs. W. A. Kutch, of Milton, Or.; John L. Naught, of Los Angeles: Leonard Naught, of Hatton, Wash.; and Frank F. Naught, of Bickledered unconscious for a time, and was taken to the Eugene hospital, where a trephining operation will have to be performed. His nose was broken and face hadly bruised and out, besides the dent in the skull,

A heres census taken in Paris this year showed 72.458 animals as compared with 95.888 in 1901, a decrease of about 23 per cent for the decade.

(Recipe by Mrs. Mary J. Linesta)
Mix four cups sifted pastry flour, one level teaspoons soda, two level teaspoons mixed spices (except cloves), one-fourth level teaspoon sait and two cups seeded and quartered raisins. Add also one-haif cup nuts chopped fins, if you like. Blend one-haif cup Cottolens with one cup brown sugar and one cup white sugar, add one cup molesses, one cup milk and then the flour mixture. Beat well and bake in two pans.

You will find this fruit cake as light, moist, flavory as any you ever made with butter. You save something, too, by using Cottolene-the perfect shorten-
