

Progressives Are Victorious in Eastern Elections.: Voters Slap President Philadelphia Turns Out Grafters.: Tammany Hall Is Hard Hit in New York

I REGRET TO REPORT

EASTERN ELECTION RESULTS

Massachusetts—Eugene N. Foss, Democratic incumbent, re-elected governor. Republican state candidates leading by small margins.
Ohio—Newton D. Baker, Democrat, elected mayor of Cleveland; Henry T. Hunt, Democrat, elected mayor of Cincinnati; Brand Whitlock, re-elected mayor of Toledo. Progressives have majority of delegates to constitutional convention, assuring initiative, referendum and recall. Socialists elected mayors in many cities, showing big gains throughout the state.
New York—Legislature goes Republican, throwing off Tammany's grip. Tammany county ticket elected by narrow margin. Republican fusion ticket swept Brooklyn judicial district. Socialists show heavy gains.
New Jersey—Legislature goes Republican, taking control away from Governor Wilson.
Rhode Island—A. J. Fether, Republican, governor, and entire state ticket elected. Republicans gain seven in legislature.
Virginia—Democrats carried customary legislative districts; Republicans held their usual representation.
Maryland—P. L. Goldsborough, Republican, leads over Arthur Poe Gorman, Democrat, for governor; result uncertain.
Kentucky—James R. McCreary, Democrat, elected governor by 34,000. Big Democratic majority in legislature, assuring Ollie James, Democrat, to best United States senator.
Mississippi—Earl Brewer, Democrat, elected governor without opposition. J. E. Lester, Socialist, polled 1000 votes for lieutenant governor, making the first opposition the Democrats ever had in the state.
New Mexico—William C. McDonald, Democrat, elected first governor and entire state ticket elected. Indications Republican legislature, which will elect United States senator.

GREAT EVANGELIST COMES TODAY FOR GOSPEL REVIVAL MAYOR DECLARES FRAMERS SHOULD AGREE ON IDEAS

Gipsy Smith Will Be Met at Vancouver by Local Committee in Charge of His Meetings, Opening Friday.
If People's and Simon Committees Fail to Agree in Time Two Plans May Defeat Commission Form.

The religious forces of Portland are in a fever of anticipation today. Gipsy Smith, the foremost evangelist of the world, a man who has stirred nations with the gospel message, comes to Portland this evening, at 8:30 o'clock. His banners were swung across Morrison and Washington streets at Eighteenth street today, pointing the way to the auditorium, built especially for the Gipsy Smith meetings which begin Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This auditorium contains 1400 seats in addition to the choir loft and speakers platform, and the committee and inquiry rooms. It has the largest seating capacity of any building ever erected in Portland, and was constructed because no other building in the city is large enough to hold the crowds that will come from throughout the state and city, and from southwest Washington, to hear the great evangelist during his meeting, November 10 to 12.

Wonderful Results Achieved.
Messages of the gypsy evangelist's wonderful efforts in the cities visited during his present tour—Spokane and Seattle—have preceded his coming. Four thousand conversions were reported at Seattle. The conversions during his world ministry have totaled well up into the hundreds of thousands.

The advance reports of the gypsy's power with men and women and younger folk have increased the interest attendant upon his coming to Portland. Many who ordinarily would not attend religious services will go to hear him to satisfy their curiosity as to his personality and power, if for nothing else. He himself has defined it thus: "I have no power save of God and

Without a word of comment or dissent the council unanimously voted this morning to postpone the special commission plan election 45 days. This means that the election will be held February 18 instead of January 8.

In a more significant sense the action of the council means that the commission plans of the people's and Simon's charter committees will be submitted side by side for popular approval or rejection, or that by the time of the election some way will have been found of inducing the two committees to forget their differences, bury the hatchet and submit jointly a charter combining the strength of the work done by the people's committee as originally provided, January 8. At a meeting of the Simon committee last night—a meeting that was expected to be its last—no vote looking toward postponement of election or consolidation with the people's committee was taken.

Grand Popular Interest.
The members of the committee frankly asserted that their haste was chiefly for the purpose of finishing their work so that their charter plan might alone be considered at the time of the special election.

The resolution submitted this morning by Councilman Baker originated in action taken by the people's committee. Because of the great popular interest in the action of council Councilman Baker secured the advancement of the

PROGRESSIVES ARE REJOICING OVER MANY SUCCESSSES

Members of Both Parties Jubilant—Local Incidents Do Not Change Face of Victory—Wilson Really Upheld.

NEW YORK SHAKES GRIP OF TAMMANY; RECOUNT WANTED

So Small Is Majority for Organization That Republicans May Demand That Votes Be Relisted.

(Washington Bureau of the Journal.)
Washington, Nov. 8.—Progressives of both parties in Washington are rejoicing over the election returns, which give evidence that the voters are determined to rebuke the political bosses. There were some local incidents in certain states that seemed to be inconsistent with this view, but when the facts are known it is shown that the general result is satisfactory to the progressives.

Two great political machines were dealt solar plexus blows—Senator Boies Penrose in Philadelphia, Pa., and Senator Lodge in Massachusetts. Other great anti-machine triumphs were the smashing of the New York legislature from Tammany and the defeat of Gorman, Democrat, for governor of Maryland.

President Taft's open support was not enough to save the day for the ticket of "Boss" Cox in Cincinnati, one of the worst machine rulers in the United States.

Reverse Not Seen.
In New Jersey a superficial view would indicate a reverse for Woodrow Wilson, who seems to be partially repudiated by the election of a Republican legislature. But those who know local conditions realize that Wilson has a better prospect of getting his pro-

New York, Nov. 8.—With their county ticket barely scraping through, with their judicial ticket in Brooklyn overwhelmed, and with the assembly going Republican, Tammany Hall is badly frightened over the election results today. The loss of control of the New York legislature and the loosening of Tammany's grip in New York city is causing prediction of the passing of the rule of Boss Murphy.

Republican County Chairman Samuel Koenig threatens to demand a recount of the vote, so small was the margin of victory for Tammany in the county.

It is expected that William Barnes of Albany will now retaliate on the Democrats who probed his political rule in the capital by demanding that the new Republican legislature investigate the administration in New York city. Barnes blames Murphy for the Albany probe, and with the Republicans controlling the legislature here opportunity for retaliation has come.

The ballot for both houses of the legislature gives the Republicans 119 members and the Democrats 82.

It is believed that the proposed investigation will be directed against the Brooklyn judicial candidates who, it was charged, are candidates for the supreme bench, paid Tammany $32,000 for their nomination.

The Socialist vote was a surprise. In Schenectady, H. H. Merrill was elected as the first Socialist assemblyman in the New York legislature. Schenectady also elected Munn, Socialist, mayor.

Opponents of Machine Rule Celebrate Victory of Blankenburg, Elected Mayor by Good Plurality.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Opponents of the gang rule, which for years has made the name of Philadelphia a synonym for the supremacy of the boss, are still celebrating here today the victory of Rudolph Blankenburg, who is elected mayor by a 3000 plurality.

Blankenburg was the head of a coalition of the Keystone, or independent, Republicans and Democrats. He carried his entire ticket to victory and the old-time Quay element was swept from the field.

When the certainty came that Blankenburg had been elected his adherents started a wild celebration. The clergy of the city led hymns of praise and the whole town kept up the jubilation until nearly dawn.

A serious riotous demonstration marked the victory of the reform element. Enraged at a report that the Republican machine was counting Blankenburg out, a mob of several thousand men invaded the city hall and stormed the doors leading to the offices of Director of Public Safety Clay, hissing and hooting vigorously. Dispersed by the police, the mob reformed outside the Broad street station, where a free for all fight ensued. Scores were arrested.

ROLPH CANDIDATES MAKE CLEAN SWEEP IN SAN FRANCISCO

All but Two Members of New Board of Supervisors Are of Faction Identified With the New Mayor.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Swept into office on the same wave of sentiment—"It will be good for the fair"—that elected James Rolph Jr. mayor of San Francisco at the recent primaries, San Francisco today has a board of 17 supervisors, who, with two exceptions, are of the faction which was identified with the Rolph campaign. Only two purely labor candidates, Andrew J. Gallagher, secretary of the San Francisco Labor council, and Edward L. Nolan, president of the Bricklayers' union, will have part in the government of the city under the Rolph regime.

Majorities in the contests for auditor, sheriff, coroner and district attorney were close. In two of these contests the labor party candidates—Charles M. Fickler for district attorney and Thomas F. Boyle for auditor—won. Fickler defeated Ralph Hathorn by less than 2000 votes, while Boyle led his opponent, John Lackmann, by about 4000.

The hottest fight of the election was that between Thomas Finn, incumbent, and Frederick Eggers, for sheriff. Eggers won by less than 1000 votes.

For coroner Dr. T. W. B. Leland defeated J. M. Toner, the labor candidate, by more than 4000 votes.

WOMAN ACCUSES SON-IN-LAW PHIPPS OF ATTACKING HER

Portland Woman, Mother of Former Hazel Wolfe, Brings Charges Against Belligerent Husband of Beauty.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Horton Forrest Phipps, husband of the former Miss Hazel Wolfe of Portland, is being sought by the police here today for an alleged attack upon his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dowd, last night, while trying to induce his wife to return home. A divorce suit, it is said, may follow.

According to Mrs. Dowd, who is well known in Portland, Phipps made a somewhat startling entrance into her home by smashing through a window. Then followed verbal pyrotechnics and physical protests, after a demand and refusal that his wife return home.

Neighbors called the police and the mother-in-law and her daughter retired into seclusion. Phipps claimed it was merely a "little domestic friction" and he went home, turned out the lights and answered all telephone calls in reference to the disturbance by posing as a plumber.

This is the third chapter of Phipps' belligerence. He broke into print two years ago when he unloosed some fiery remarks to Mrs. C. O. Alexander, then social leader here, over his beautiful wife's appearance as a Spanish dancer in a society Kermis. Later he pitched his cook and her trunk out of a window. This was followed by Mrs. Phipps' professional appearance on the stage in her Spanish dance. Prior to that time she was prominent in society.

JEALOUSY OF TWO WOMEN A CAUSE OF REVOLUTION AMONG CHINESE

Bitter Hatred Which Is Mutual Between Wife of Prince Regent and Mother of "Little Emperor," Reflected in the Fighting of Factions—Missionary New Idea Propaganda Another Contributory Reason for Outbreak, It Is Said.

"The jealousies of two women are largely responsible for the revolution in China," said F. O. Liser, who has just come from Canton, arriving in Portland yesterday. The wife of the prince regent is jealous of the mother of the "Little Emperor." The venom of their dislike has developed the fighting instinct over the kingdom to an intense degree of bitterness.

"But above every other contributing cause of the revolution is the influence of the missionaries," declared Mr. Liser, who explained this surprising statement by saying: "The missionaries have been quietly, systematically, spreading the spirit of democracy, the new ideas. They have been leaders in the new education.

"Yet, strange to say, the lives of foreigners are in no danger. Both sides carefully keep hands off other races because they desire no foreign intervention."

Students Executed.
"It is an intelligent uprising, altogether different from the Boxer rebellion, where fanaticism swayed the empire. The best of China's young men are fighting against the Manchu dynasty. The students are the ones who are being executed by the imperial troops. A dozen of these were led from the walls of the city for execution. One of them said, calmly: 'If my death helps bring about a new China, I die gladly.'

"It is because the new China is inevitable that the revolutionists will be completely successful. Ever since I went to China to serve as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Canton I have felt the revolution coming. It is a good thing. The Chinese will progress hereafter more wonderfully than any other nation, except perhaps our own, in the history of the world. It is costing greatly in human life, but in a land where life is the cheapest commodity, 'For our part we the Chinese have been held down,' declared Mr. A. Kees who was with Mr. Liser in China. "It has been accounted a crime, according to the religion of Confucius, for a man to excel his ancestor. And now 98 per cent of China's difficulty is lack of Chinese leaders."

Contributing Causes.
Mr. Liser mentioned as contributing causes to the revolution, the effort to nationalize the railroads which brought the business interests into the conflict; the ungranted demands for the early opening of parliament, and the grafting of Manchu officials. The railroads had been partly built by the provinces, partly built by private inter-

STREET IMPROVEMENT RESOLUTIONS RESCINDED; FREE COMPETITION NOW

Mayor Rushlight believes that property owners of the city will save hundreds of thousands of dollars because of the action of the city council this morning in rescinding resolutions for the improvement of portions of 74 streets with hard surface pavements.

Those resolutions initiated the proceedings under the old paving law which was used by the big paving companies to throttle competition.

Proceedings will be commenced again under the competitive pavement amendment adopted by the people at the last general election.

Anticipating that the competitive paving amendment would pass, as it did, the paving corporations sought to tie up something like $4,000,000 worth of work before the end of the Simon administration. They attempted to forestall the new law by having the council adopt resolutions initiating proceedings under the old law.

Mayor Rushlight's campaign to have these resolutions rescinded has been warmly supported by Councilmen Daily and Daly. These lawmakers have waged a long and active fight with the paving companies, but they are now enjoying the fruits of their victory. The schedule for weeks finally settled on popular election and rescinded the paving

MARYLAND MAY HAVE REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR

Baltimore, Nov. 8.—For the second time since the Civil war, Maryland has elected a Republican governor, according to incomplete returns here today showing that P. L. Goldsborough has defeated Arthur Poe Gorman, Democrat, by 5000 votes.

Three constitutional amendments, one for the disfranchisement of negroes, were defeated.

U. S. COURT APPROVES REORGANIZATION PLANS

New York, Nov. 8.—The United States circuit court of appeals this afternoon approved the reorganization plan of the tobacco trust proposed by the department of Justice. Only a few slight modifications were required.

The decision of the court was signed by Judges Ward, Lacombe and Noyes. They ruled that they had no power to insert into the reorganization plan of the trust the five-year injunction asked by Attorney General Wickesham, during which time the government might take the case back into court and demand other changes.

SACRAMENTO SELECTS DEMOCRAT FOR MAYOR

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 8.—In the hardest fought municipal election ever held here, M. R. Beard, Democratic incumbent, was re-elected for a third term by a plurality of 1400. Allen R. Stuart, Socialist, ran second and F. R. Stulliff, Republican, third. The Socialists made a remarkable showing. Two years ago their vote in the municipal election was less than 400; yesterday Stuart received more than 2700. Seven out of nine standpat Republican city trustees were elected. With three precincts to be held from the new charter providing for the commission form of government early Friday was 140 votes to the good.
