

ELECTIONS IN EAST INDICATE GENERAL PROGRESSIVE GAIN

Victory for Insurgents Shown Nearly Everywhere, New Jersey Giving Only Severe Setback—Democrats Happy

(United Press Special Wire.) Washington, Nov. 8.—Victory for the Progressives is everywhere shown today in the returns from the elections throughout the east, the only severe setback being in New Jersey, where the Democrats lost control of the legislature, which will have a Republican majority.

The Democrats are jubilant over the Democratic gains in Ohio, especially in Cleveland, and hail the election of Governor Wilson in Massachusetts as a victory for the people's party.

The Republicans, on the other hand, are rejecting over the result in New Jersey, and claim that the gains of their party in cutting down a Progressive majority in Massachusetts will forestall the return of Massachusetts to the Republican fold.

The Socialists are enthusiastic over their gains and predict that the national vote next fall will break all records. They are also anxious to know the unfavorable outcome in New Jersey will affect Governor Wilson's chances for the Democratic presidential nomination next year.

CLEVELAND ELECTS JOHNSON'S CLOSEST FRIEND ITS MAYOR

(United Press Special Wire.) Cleveland, Nov. 8.—Though Tom L. Johnson is dead, that his soul is marching on is said by his friends to be indicated here today in the victory of Newton D. Baker, closest friend of Johnson, who is elected mayor of Cleveland by the largest plurality ever registered in the city.

It is a monument to Johnson, said Baker today. Johnson and his policies were the issue, as much as though he were alive today.

Another Johnson triumph was the authorization by the city of a $2,000,000 bond issue for a municipal lighting plant, a measure for which Johnson fought throughout his entire career.

Harry Schilling was elected mayor of Canton by the close plurality of three votes. Henry T. Hunt, the Democratic candidate for mayor of Cincinnati, won a victory over Louis Schwab, and his backers, Boss Cox and the Republican machine, by a plurality of 4000 votes.

Mayor Brand Whitlock was re-elected in Toledo by a plurality of 4000. George Karb, Democrat, was elected mayor of Columbus with a plurality of 5000.

James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior in Roosevelt's cabinet, was defeated by Fletcher Mason, progressive candidate, for constitutional delegate by 500 votes. Garfield refused to sign a pledge demanding the initiative and referendum.

MAYOR DECLARES FRAMERS SHOULD AGREE ON IDEAS

(Continued from Page One.) consideration of the resolution from a related place on the calendar to among the first items of business. It was assumed by the people's committee that an extension of 40 days would make it possible to submit a complete charter draft such as the people might safely approve in line with the general desire for a system of municipal administration that will handle city business like business, economically and honestly.

At last night's meeting no vote was taken by the Simon committee in recognition of the vote of cooperation taken by the people's committee.

Mayor Russell, in an interview this morning, reiterated his desire, that the two committees might be gotten together.

"I do not believe that it will be possible to secure a commission plan for Portland," said he, "if one plan is submitted in advance of the other, or if both are submitted together. One action will inspire distrust and the other will invite the same."

Some time ago the mayor suggested that the Simon or official committee be increased to 30 members, so that members of the people's committee appointed by the East Side Business Men's club, might be included. He is now considering definite action along the lines of this suggestion.

ROOF-SKIMMING AIRMAN WAKES OAKLAND BABES; POLICE STILL PUZLED

(United Press Special Wire.) Oakland, Nov. 8.—That to do with an aviator who flies so near the roofs of houses that he disturbs the rest of infants is the peculiar problem which is confronting the police here today. The aviator, the maiden of Cook, who it is claimed, is being coming a nuisance to the residents of the Elmhurst suburb.

Mrs. H. W. Fording complained that for a week the aviator had been skimming over her roof at a rapid speed. The police are at a loss to find what recourse they have in law to stop a man from flying where he wants to.

SOON ESTABLISH FARM IN CROOK

$10,000 Fund Donated for Experimental Farm Work in Arid Oregon Section.

(Special to The Journal.) Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 8.—A branch experiment station is soon to be established in Crook county under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural college.

The board of regents of the college, at a recent meeting, voted to undertake the project and have directed President Root to proceed with the work.

The station will be established on a 100-acre tract near the town of Prineville. A fund of $10,000 has been subscribed and turned over to the college to be used as the authorities see fit in beginning the experimental and demonstrative work in Crook county.

Of the amount $2000 was subscribed by the business men of Prineville, $2000 by the O-W. R. & N. Co. and $2000 by the Oregon Agricultural college.

TWO OF McNAMARA JURORS EXCUSED; TRIAL DRAGS ON

First Real Setback in Case Comes When Clark and Mendenhall Are Let Go, Three Men Only Remaining

(United Press Special Wire.) Hall of Records, Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—The first setback to the progress of the trial of James H. McNamee for murder in connection with the destruction of the Los Angeles Times came today when two of the five men who had survived the examination for cause and the preliminary challenges of both sides had to be excused. They were William F. Clark, a retired undertaker, Grand Army veteran and an ideal type of juror, and Samuel Mendenhall, a wealthy farmer. Clark is subject to heart disease and has been declared that if he were to serve on the jury would certainly endanger his life.

Mendenhall's mother is seriously ill and constantly calling for him and the family mental ideas set out in the letter of Sept. 10 to be followed. However, there is not the least desire on our part to dictate in this respect, and you are at entire liberty to disregard any or all of these suggestions if you deem proper.

The reason is that the crux of the fight was largely over the Essex county delegation. The Democratic ticket there was so bad that Wilson refused to go there to speak for its election. The delegation, it is understood, that was elected from Essex is made up of progressive Republicans.

The Wilson policies, which have had the united support of the progressive Republicans, will be in a better way than they would have been had the full Democratic ticket been chosen, with the bad Essex county delegation elected. No one informed on New Jersey politics questions that the state will give Wilson an enthusiastic endorsement next year for president.

In New York Tammany has been stopped in its plan to dominate the politics of the Democratic party nationally. "Nothing could have stopped Charles Murphy, Tammany boss, from getting a deciding voice in 1912 in the Democratic national convention, had he won the victory he aimed at in New York, but his chances were diminished materially by the rout of Tuesday.

It is apparent that there was not one scintilla of comfort for the Taft administration in any of Tuesday's elections. The majority of the constitutional convention delegates were chosen from among the progressives, largely on the issue as to whether or not the initiative and referendum should be written into the proposed state constitution.

Why Wet Shampoos Are Injurious to the Hair (Guide to Beauty.) "Avoid wet shampoos, if you would have soft, lustrous hair and plenty of it. More or less free alkali in shampoo mixtures robs the scalp of its necessary oil, and this, in a measure, causes hair to grow dull, brittle and unmanageable.

"The dry shampoo is rapidly gaining favor because of its cleansing and invigorating effect on both hair and scalp. If 4 ounces either of orris root or corn meal and 4 ounces of ether are mixed together and a tablespoonful sprinkled over the scalp, then brushed well through and out of the hair, all traces of dust and dandruff will be removed, and the hair will take on a silken sheen and richness of color impossible by any other method."

BALFOUR RETIRES AS CONSERVATIVE CHIEF London, Nov. 8.—Arthur Balfour today caused a great sensation in English politics when he resigned as leader of the conservative party. Balfour announced his retirement at a meeting of the London Conservative committee, giving as his reason that he was getting too old for the place and that his health was rapidly falling.

Dandruff Goes Falling Hair Ceases, Scalp Itch Vanishes, New Hair Grows Profusely and Becomes Fascinating. Don't say "I've read all that before" —Just go to Woodard, Clarke & Co. Right away, lay down 50 cents, say, "I want a bottle of that PARISIAN SAGE that so many sensible people are using. Then take it home and use it as directed and then if you are not satisfied that it is just as advertised, take back the empty bottle and Woodard, Clarke & Co. will refund your money."

"Pretty risky offer," you'll say; not at all. Woodard, Clarke & Co. know just what PARISIAN SAGE will do and they have the promise of the American makers, the Giroux Mfg. Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., that they will back them up in their strong guarantee. Pretty fair and square offer, isn't it? And only 50 cents for a large bottle at Woodard, Clarke & Co., and druggists America over.

Mrs. J. G. Franklin, Fulton, Mo., writes: "PARISIAN SAGE eradicates dandruff, cleans the scalp and makes the hair fluffy and beautiful; also is a good hair grower. I shall continue to use it as long as it gives such perfect satisfaction."

Indictments to Be Kept Secret. (United Press Special Wire.) Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—No indictments in the case of John J. and James H. McNamee and Otto H. McNamee, in case any are found here by the United States grand jury, will be published until after the McNamee cases are disposed of in Los Angeles.

This announcement was made here today by United States District Attorney Miller, who is directing the grand jury investigation here into charges that the McNamees violated the federal law by transporting explosives from state to state in pursuit of a conspiracy to blow up common plants. Miller admitted that if the McNamees are acquitted in Los Angeles of the charge of destroying the Times, he plans to bring them here to face a trial in the United States courts.

The grand jurors who are investigating the case under Miller's direction are being guarded with unusual care.

Wife With Broken Heart. His wife was so sad and lonely that she had to leave her home and go to the McNamee family doctor. Mrs. Mendenhall was greatly agitated, and as her husband watched her face and in a hard frozen. The father had been his usual, and had died only a few weeks ago, and now his mother also was believed to be on her death-bed.

Judge Bordwell finally quietly excused the excited juror that he would probably consider his case, and the five men were sworn.

Darrow then asked that the court take up the names and disposes of them one way or the other.

"It's your job to both sides," he said, "that we know what to expect and just who are to be jurors."

Judge Bordwell decided to dispose of the matter and a recess was ordered while he interviewed the three men in his chambers.

MAC VEAGH TO OPPOSE HOLDING COMPANY PLAN

(United Press Special Wire.) Washington, Nov. 8.—Secretary of the Treasury Franklin MacVeagh announced today that he is unalterably opposed to the proposition of having national banks control the stock of other banks through a holding company. He declared that permitting such a system would be tantamount to the destruction of the national monetary system as it is now constituted. He said that any such plan would be a step toward a modification of the Federal Reserve Act.

The secretary said he believed that the sentiment in favor of a national reserve association is growing, and that any such plan would be a step toward a modification of the Federal Reserve Act.

BEATTIE UNRUFFLED AS DEATH DRAWS NEAR

(United Press Special Wire.) Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Henry Clay Beattie Jr., convicted of the murder of his wife here, was removed to the Virginia penitentiary today, where he died in the electric chair on November 24, 1909. Governor Mann interfered on the ground that the young man, a new trial. Beattie preserved the same calm, unruffled demeanor which characterized him throughout the trial, and smiled as he took his last farewells from Cleveland, Ohio, bearing the indignities of the electric chair.

Beattie's last words were: "I'm a dead game sport, all right, but I could turn on the current with a vengeance."

The chair contained a picture of an electric chair.
