

THE JOURNAL

Published every evening except Sunday... Subscription rates: $10.00 per month, $30.00 per quarter, $100.00 per year.

THE CAMERON RECALL

It is of no advantage to recall District Attorney Cameron with another Cameron. If there is to be a change in the office, let it be a real change.

MR. MOORES' LETTER

The very excellent letter of Charles B. Moore on this page approves the Simon charter committee's plan of raising initiative and referendum petitions to ten per cent.

CHINA

The issues on which the tremendous conflict in China is being fought out are gradually growing clear. The series of revolutionary successes whereby one great city, one provincial center after another, have fallen into their hands, have brought them within striking distance of Peking, the stronghold of the Manchu race.

WOMEN IN COURT

In Vancouver a young woman, acting justice of the peace, has presided in a civil suit involving about $100, and has taken the issues under advisement. As stenographer in a lawyer's office, she was familiar with legal terms and procedure, and the account is that she acquitted herself creditably on the bench.

THE BLOODY SCYTHE

MR. ROOSEVELT returns to the attack on the Taft policy of international arbitration. Meanwhile, describing the atrocities at Tripoli, the Italian foreign minister at Rome says in a statement: "An Italian surgeon was killed by the Arab father of a girl he had treated and saved from death."

THE COMMERCE COURT'S INJUNCTION

NO public agency in the country enjoys a wider confidence than does the interstate commerce commission. The sincerity and capacity of its membership has never been questioned.

Where Taft Stands

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I did not vote in the Journal's straw ballot but when it comes to a final test I will be there. I live and am able to get to the polls.

Great Britain Leads

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—There being a heated discussion in our family as to which country holds first, second and third place in the line of battleships, men and guns, please publish the following statement.

OPPOSED TO WORKING CONVICTS

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I read of convicts working on the roads, without "knocking" Governor West at all.

Single Tax and Trusts

St. Johns, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—What is the incentive and motive of all this single tax, and who is paying for the single tax campaign?

Where Taft Stands

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I did not vote in the Journal's straw ballot but when it comes to a final test I will be there.

Where Taft Stands

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I did not vote in the Journal's straw ballot but when it comes to a final test I will be there.

Where Taft Stands

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I did not vote in the Journal's straw ballot but when it comes to a final test I will be there.

Where Taft Stands

Portland, Oct. 29.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I did not vote in the Journal's straw ballot but when it comes to a final test I will be there.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Editor of The Journal: I am very glad to see that the Sherman law, the market value of steel stock shrank nearly $100,000,000 in three days.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

The Humbert Case. One of the biggest and most profitable of the recent years was that of the Humbert case, in Paris, in which the impostors were able to borrow the sum of $12,000,000 upon the security of a safe containing a paste diamond worth perhaps $1,000,000.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

Small change. Oregon highlights. Medicine schools have decided against more study in the fall.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

The Humbert Case. One of the biggest and most profitable of the recent years was that of the Humbert case, in Paris, in which the impostors were able to borrow the sum of $12,000,000 upon the security of a safe containing a paste diamond worth perhaps $1,000,000.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

SEVEN HISTORIC FAKES

At this time there died at Nice a New York millionaire, named Robert Henry Crawford, who was the wife of a fortune of $10,000,000 because she had once nursed him through a bad illness.

Four Hundred Per Cent Dividends

For over two years now there has been some talk of a dividend which would mean a 400 per cent increase in the price of the stock.

Always in Good Humor

OVERHEAD IN VENICE. "Isn't it romantic, John, dear," said she, as they sat in the little Venetian garden.

Always in Good Humor

"If I buy you a seat in the stock exchange will you agree to go to work?" "I ain't crazy for work, dad. Make it a seat in the senate."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Always in Good Humor

"What's happened?" "I found a $10 bill in my last summer's suit."—Toledo Blade.

Always in Good Humor

FOR WHOM HE PRAYED. From the Cardiff Mail. One of the stories told by Mr. Spencer Leigh Hurton in his speech in the house of commons the other night tickled everybody.

Always in Good Humor

Seeing the Equator. From Harper's Weekly. A lady who was about to start on a trip to the southern part of the world was advised to be sure to look for the equator.

Bob Burdette

Bob Burdette, who kept men grinning in the days when we were young, urges men to quit their sinning, with his gentle pen and tongue.