The chief trouble appears to be over the question of whether or not Miss Stevens shall rule the school. With a determination to be boss. Miss Stevens started the term last fall, and has had several clashes with unruly pupils. These clashes have been less frequent the last month, and her, popularity among the pupils is on the increase. Rose Tannier, a 16-year-old pupil, re-fused to "stay in at recess" last Monday, and Miss Stevens says she held her in her seat. The mother of the pupil had a complaint filed in the justice court against the teacher, which com-plaint was dismissed upon the motion of the district attorney. Mrs. Tannler then took her complaint to the grand jury, and several witnesses were before that body yesterday. Miss Stevens was there with her witnesses and announced she would fight the matter to a finish.

S. S. MINNESOTA ABLE TO MOVE HOMEWARD

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 11 .--- Advices to-day state that the Great Northern liner Minnesota, which went aground on the Japanese coast yesterday morning, has proceeded on her return to Seattle, having arrived safely at Kohe today. The cable does not state how long the big steamship remained hard and fast but it is assumed that she is not injured to any extent or she would have been un-able to proceed. Had drydocking been necessary the vessel would nave gone to Nagasaki, where there are facilities. Officials state that the liner will arrive here on schedule time. On her next voyage to the Orient, every inch of space is already taken, this being the first full cargo the Minnesota has had since operating from this port.
