Portland Wholesale Market, Eggs firm. Turkeys steady. Heavy hogs weak. Dressed yeal steady. Grape market supplied. Cranberries steady. Hops firm. Butter down cent,

The price of turkeys is more mystifying than ever before. While a small amount of sales have been made along Front street at 22c to 25c a pound for selected dressed birds, few sales were reported.

to let go today; in fact, some of the leading handlers refused to make a price until tomorrow.

Receipts today were quite fair again, but were not nearly as heavy as some had expected. The bulk of the shipments is due tomorrow and Monday. The formal Thanksgiving price will be set tomorrow morning.

Owing to the fact that consumers have their ideas set for low priced turkays this season, it is not believed that the market can be forced very high. It is stated that one of the leading hear packers has been offering and filling selected dressed turkeys to the frade here for Thanksgiving delivery at 22c to 23c a pound.

Northern buyers are not yet in the market, but are said to be "feeling" the pulse of the trade here. It is again reported that some Texas turkeys are due at Puget seund points within the next day or so.

BUTTER DOWN 1 CENT TODAY

Price of local creamery butter dropped to a pound today, all makers joining in the movement. It is now stated that the recent advance of 11/2c here was not justified; conditions being adverse to such a movement.

LOW PRICE MOVES CHICKENS

Low prices are helping to move chick-en supplies along Front street. Re-ceipts continue liberal. Some receiv-ers that were not willing to accept the cut quotation, carried over quite lib-eral supplies from yesterday. HEAVY HOGS WORRY TRADE

Receipts of heavy hogs in the dressed meat trade at this time is causing much worry to receivers. With the market not very good for even the better stock, sellers are finding much difficulty in their quest for buyers even at sharply Dressed veal shows steadiness with no change in prices.

PLENTY OF GRAPES

Front street market is very well sup-plied with fresh grapes. Receipts from the south continue liberal and stocks held at this time are sufficient for all the wants of the holiday trade. Prices are unchanged,

MORE SWEET POTATOES COME

Another car of sweet potatoes came forward to the Front street trade to-day. The stock was in excellent con-dition and sales are reported at previprices General potato market is steady.

Protest was made regarding the article by the Hood River firm said to have shipped the apples under its own label and upon investigation it has been found that the report had no foundation.

The information on which the article was based was given to The Journal by a person who professed to know that the truit was being sent out as the product of Hood River, but after a thorough investigation it has been found that the apples were sent out with the regular Wallace orchards label, which bears the inscription in large type: "Grown and packed at the Wallace Orchards, Salem, Or.," thus giving credit for the quality to the section that produced them.

In response to an appeal from Dan Kellaher and August Berg, representing the Portland Horseowners' association, Mayor Rushlight this morning directed City Engineer Hurlburt to devise some plan of protecting horses from injury due to slipping on wet pavements.

The city engineer will submit estimates on the cost of some kind of rough top dressing for the pavements in slippery weather. Provision for the liberal use of this in the interests of dumb animals during the ensuing year, will be made.

nominal tens in all lines of livestock at North Portland today.

Some very poor sheep and lambs which had been carried over from yesterday found a sale during the early morning at prices that fitted snugly the feeder class.

Buyers complain that practically all of the shipments of sheep from the home territory recently have been of so poor quality that they were sent back on feed for finishing. In their present form they were not worth anything to killers.

The lambs that were sold this morning averaged 61½ pounds and sold at $3.55, while some cull ewes that averaged 91 pounds went at $2.35.

A German Allegory. From Lippincott's,

On a recent trip to Germany, Dr. Harvey Wiley, the government's pure food expert, heard an allegory with reference to the subject of food adul-teration which, he contends should cause Americans to congratulate themselves that things are so well ordered in this respect in the United States. The German allegory was substantial ly as follows: Four flies, which had made their way into a certain pantry, determined to One flew to the sugar and ate heartily; but soon died, for the sugar was full of white lead. The second chose the flour as his diet, but he fared no better, for the flour was loaded with plaster of Paris.

The third sampled the syrup, but his six legs were presently raised in the air, for the syrup was colored with aniline dyes.

The fourth fly seeing all his friends dead determined to end his life also, and drank deeply of the fly-poison which he found in a convenient saucer. He is still alive and in good health. That too was adulterated.

GIRL 17 YEARS OLD IS SENT TO ASYLUM

Miss Eda Dillon, 17 years old, and employed in a local department store, has been adjudged insane and taken to the state insane hospital for treatment. The cause of her mental trouble is attributed to constant attendance at the Gipsy Smith meetings. When the girl reported for work Thursday morning she approached a customer and implored the person to embrace the religious faith. Fellow employes noticed the strange actions of the girl, and had her taken in charge by the police. She was examined yesterday afternoon and ordered to be immediately given treatment in the state institution.

SENT TO ROCKPILE

What is considered the worst gang of "yegg" men arrested in this city for some time, and who were picked up in two crews by Detectives Coleman and Snow and Deputy Sheriffs Leonard and Phillips, was disposed of this morning when Judge Taxwell found every member guilty and sentenced each to terms varying from 30 to 90 days each.

C. B. Lewis, one of the gang, who was sentenced to 90 days, was arrested in the court room this morning by Detective Coleman while talking to an attorney, whom he intended to engage as the legal representative for several of the members of the gang.

Frank Nolan, alias "Big Johnnie," who was said to be implicated in the Sellwood postoffice robbery, was given 30

The other sentences were as follows: Neil McNamara; Charles Carroll, alias George La Verne, who admitted this morning that he escaped early this year from Kelly's Butte, and J. J. Johnson, 90 days each. Frank Wilson, Fred Wilson, Jeff Cornell, 60 days each. John-Lee, Frank Hill, Curtis Charles, Jack Hayden and Al Stevens, 30 days each. Alleged Thieves Arrested.

John Campbell, aged 17 years, and Tom Waltes, aged 18 years, were ar-rested last night by Patrolman Black charged of disposing of stolen goods, and John Guman, a Greek, at 275 Burnside street, was arrested for receiving stolen goods. The boys are suspected of the robbery of the Lillis Bros. grocery store at 631 Union avenue north several nights ago, when a quantity of cigars and tobacco was stolen

PRESS CLUB FEED

Breakfast in Honor of Portland Bar Association First of Winter Series.

As befits an affair at which legal lights are to shine, the invitations to the Portland Press club breakfast in honor of the members of the Portland Bar association, to be given at the Portland hotel tomorrow noon, are in the form of a subpena to appear be-fore his henor, Judge Epicurus Gastronome, to answer to the state of the Sunday appetite. As many of the invitations were delayed, these who have not answered as yet are, requested to telephone to Chairman Charles Ryan, at the Empress theater, today.

That the affair will not be solemn as court proceedings sometimes are, a stringed orchestra will play the liveliest tunes and two quartets will war-ble catchy ditties. Other musical numbers will also serve to what the appetites. As is customary at Press club "jinks," there will be stunts. The members of the Press club have been plan-ning these for some time. In order to show that the lawyers also have a keen sense of humor a committee of the Bar association is also planning a few select ones to spring and there will be some fun and hilarity.

This is the first of a series of break-fasts to be given by the newspaper men this year and they promise to be even more popular than they were last year.
