OREGON ELEVEN TO BE STRENGTHENED BY PRESENCE OF MICHAEL

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 23.—The University of Oregon football team held their last regular practice of the season this afternoon...

The injury will be practically the same as that of the Washington game. Great will probably take the guard position left vacant by the death of Noland...

The Oregon team is going into the game determined to win, and not with the spirit that they are fulfilling a distasteful duty.

With Bradshaw and Michael on the ends and with latourette's injured ankle completely healed the team will probably play a much stronger game than they put up against the Northern university.

The Oregon team, while admittedly completely outplayed by Washington, certainly did not put up the game they were capable of. The attack seemed organized and the defense was woefully weak for an Oregon team which has always excelled in this department.

In the game with the club the team will probably put up a much stronger game than they displayed against Washington. While the lineup will be of about the same strength, the weaknesses of defense exposed in the last game will in part be remedied.

WEATHER DECIDES SCENE OF BATTLE

Coffroth Declares McFarland-Murphy Fight May Be Switched About.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Whether the Packey McFarland-Tommy Murphy fight will be held in the open air on Thanksgiving afternoon or in Dreamland rink at night depends upon the weather...

Coffroth is inaugurating a system of giving double tickets for all advance sales, one ticket good for the Eighth street arena, which is in the open air, on Thanksgiving afternoon, and the other good for a reservation in Dreamland rink at night.

If the day is clear, the fight will be in the afternoon, said Coffroth, but in case of rain or threatening weather, it will be held at night. I am not worrying about rain, however; I am simply taking precautions for the benefit of the public.

Training virtually ends today for both McFarland and Murphy for their 20 round bout. Murphy ceased boxing yesterday, fearing an injury to his hands, which might lessen his chances with Fucky. McFarland had his last whirl with the gloves today. The remaining two days will be devoted to light road and gymnasium work by both boxers.

Both men declare they are fit and strong and confident of victory. Each says he will go after Wolgast and the title if he is returned winner in the Thanksgiving mixup.

PHILADELPHIA JACK O'BRIEN NO "COMEBACK"

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien is today regarded as finally disposed of, so far as boxing is concerned, by fans here, as a result of his six round bout last night with Harry Samsey. O'Brien made a desperate attempt to come back and in the first three rounds had all the better of the milling, showing the old time cleverness and ring generalship...

O'Brien is declared to be down and out for good.

SCHOLASTIC TEAMS TO PLAY TOMORROW

Hill and Lincoln Are in Great Shape for Final Clash of the Season.

Hill's first game with a local high school eleven for a number of years will be played tomorrow afternoon on Multnomah field, starting promptly at 2:45 o'clock.

The Hill team has been training carefully for the last week and Coach Wolf and Emily are satisfied with their men's condition.

Coach Rhinehart and his team tried several new formations yesterday afternoon on Multnomah field, during practice and the mentor was satisfied with the way the team reeled off the new plays.

This will be the last appearance of a number of the Lincoln high school players and will probably be the last game to be played on the local field between interscholastic teams this season, unless Seattle sends down an all-star interscholastic team.

Boyd will referee tomorrow's game between the two teams and Hulbert will umpire. Plowden Stott will act as field judge.

The teams will line up as follows: Lincoln High. Hill Academy. Korrell. L.E. Gorman. Turek. L.T. St. Martin. Riddigh. L.G. George. Tyson. C. Mearns. Condit. R.G. Williams. Bronson. R.T. Holden. Olsen. R.E. Blakstone. Patterson. Q.B. Metcalf. Groce. L.H. Stiles. Thatch. F.B. Jackson. Newman. R.H. Jones.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 23.—Denver Ed Martin, black pugilist, who has turned to wrestling, will tackle Jack Leon, Seattle burly, who met Gotch there on the champion's recent trip. Martin does not think Leon can throw him three times in 60 minutes.

"Bart" in Japan. The latest postal card from Nelson Bartholomew, familiarly known as "Bart," dated November 1, at Kobe, Japan, says he was having a great time in the "rickshaws." Bart doesn't think much of Japan as a place to live. By this time he has reached his destination at Manila, where he has charge of the sporting goods department of the American Hardware company.

Among Bart's many duties will be that of teaching the "goo goos" how to play baseball.
