"Lens" Credit to School-"The Caliper," a magazine published by the students of the high school of Stuyvesant N. Y., and recognized as one of the best of its kind in the United States, in commenting on "The Lens," published by the students of the Washington high school of this city, ranks it as the second publication of its kind in the United States and speaks very highly of the paper in an editorial. "The Lens" is entirely the work of the students and is edited without thought of remuneration on the part of its editors. The November issue was one which received the favorable comment. The December issue of "The Lens" is a credit to its editors and the school. It also deserves very favorable comment. The cover design, depicting Santa Claus, in colors, is befitting at this season. Throughout it has interesting stories

In Grip of Morphine Habit-Chief of Police Slover this morning received a letter from a man in Caldwell, Idaho, who in the most pathetic terms begged the chief to aid him in overcoming the morphine habit, which he said he contracted at a local hospital some time ago, where he was confined with broken leg. The man states that he has a young daughter for whom he is trying to care, but gradually he is is being dragged down by the morphine habit until he is unable to work. The man states that he has just enough money to get to Portland, and once here, he black boots, tend horses, or furnaces or any other work he can get, in order to support his daughter and get funds for treatment at some institution where the morphine habit is cor-The chief will make an endeavor to aid him in getting work.

Ho Pavoritism Shown-After pleading guilty to a charge of selling liquor Sunday, F. Sims, steward of a colored men's club at 347 Flanders street, was yesterday morning fined $100 by Judge Tazwell. Attorney Fouts who was appearing for Sims, but who was not present when he entered his plea. applied for the privilege of withdraw-ing the plea. This was allowed. Then the attorney showed that in a recent decision of a jury, in an identical case, in which the same club was involved, was decided that if other clubs of white men were allowed to sell liquor to club members on Sunday, the colored men would have the same privilege. As a result of this showing, Judge Tazwell dismissed the charges against Sims.

We have this remarkable record to show our thousands of friends. In 10 months we have shipped in 2920 Pianos.

274 Pianos were brought in by our next rival.

21 Pianos were brought in by one rival.

EASY TO SEE why we are satisfied with a very small profit on each sale.

NOT HARD to understand the bitter opposition of our rivals.

INVESTIGATION of our economical business methods and low prices is what brings us so many customers.

WE PAY NO jobbing or wholesale profit to any San Francisco house, nor to anyone else.

NO RENT is paid by us. We collect rent. Think what this means when it comes to making prices on pianos.

HERE YOU will find for $318 a better Piano than anywhere else for $425.

FOR $137 we furnish an instrument which could not be obtained elsewhere for less than $250.

EILERS MUSIC HOUSE sells more Pianos than all other dealers in the Northwest combined.

PEOPLE FIND it to their interest to trade at Eilers Music House, because it is the place where you can get better instruments, better prices and better terms, no matter how alluring may be the offers elsewhere.
