He also char-acterized rates offered by the Multnomah hotel as the best he had ever known for headquarters. He declared that in all circulars issued by himself he could and would speak very highly of Portland. About 60 were present. An Incident which has caused a great deal of merriment was the presentation of a beautitful bouquet of roses to Mr. Sullivan last Tuesday, which without the knowledge of the Elks had been sprinkled with a mixture to kill cock-roaches. The Chinaman employed by the lodge in obeying orders sprayed even the flowers and when Mr. Sullivan inhaled the fragrance of the roses, he inhaled the odor of this mixture as well and was overcome with emotion for few moments.
