

RELATIVES OF DEAD SUING DYNAMITER

James McNamara Named as Defendant in $50,000 Action for Damages.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Dec. 7.—James McNamara, confessed murderer, was yesterday served by a deputy sheriff in his cell in the county jail with papers making him defendant in a civil action brought by relatives of Robert L. Sawyer, a telegraph operator, who lost his life when the Times building was destroyed. The damages demanded are $50,000.

When served with the papers, J. B. and his brother John J. McNamara were sitting smoking in their cell. J. B. took the papers, smiled and said: "Good, fine business. Let them go to it."

This original action was brought against the Times-Mirror company; the Los Angeles Gas & Electric corporation; the Western Union Telegraph company and a number of John Doe defendants. McNamara is included as a John Doe defendant, and it is asserted that McNamara was included because the principals in the action desire to show that McNamara's pleading guilty does not relieve the others sure of responsibility.

Burns Strikes at Gompers.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—"The labor movement would be well rid of such a man as Samuel Gompers," declared Detective Burns upon being informed of Gompers' denunciation of Prosecutor Fredericks. Samuel Gompers, to my knowledge, was in conference in Indianapolis with the men who hired the McNamaras and others who were parties to the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times, the day after the McNamaras were arrested," said Burns.

"Burns Just Talking."

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Washington, Dec. 7.—"Burns likes to hear himself talk," declared Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers here today. "I am not in hiding, and he can find me whenever he wants me."

Ryan denied that the Ironworkers' organization is disintegrated as a result of the McNamara pleas.

Ryan returns to Indianapolis today.

 tell, and if I had I would not aid these people in any way. Neither their threats nor their promises will have any effect on me, or Jim, either, for that matter."

Hope to Get Glines.
 However, it was known that Lawyer and his associates hoped they might get responses to certain questions at least that would put them on the trail of the men higher up in the various "blow ups" which have taken place throughout the United States, but more especially on the western slope, during the past five years.

That the present investigation is expected to involve many well known labor leaders of San Francisco and the northwest coast was made known by the flat statement that certain of these men have already engaged counsel in the expectation that an attempt would be made to indict them. This counsel is former Judge O. N. Hilton of Denver, formerly chief counsel for the Western Federation of Miners, and one of the best known criminal lawyers in America. It is stated that he is in Denver ready to start for this city just as soon as he gets word that the men who have retained him have been or are about to be indicted.

Every effort was made by the federal officials to keep secret their intentions. The grand jury room was guarded by picked men and when information was asked regarding the intentions of the government, Lawyer, Reagan and their assistants refused to talk. They endeavored to create the impression that the grand jury was not to be hurried and whatever it did it would not permit anything to leak until all indictments were drawn and reported to the court.

While the federal grand jury was working on the general conspiracy and the Los Angeles authorities were working on the bribery charges which precipitated the crisis in the McNamara cases. Assistant District Attorney Ford was marshaling his witnesses in the proceedings against Bert H. Franklin, chief detective for the defense, who will be given a hearing next Monday morning in Justice Young's court on the charge of having bribed Robert F. Bain, one of the permanent jurors in the case, and attempting to bribe George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror.
