

LANDMARK GIVES WAY TO PROGRESS

Springfield Store Built Half Century Ago Had Interesting History.

(Special to The Journal.)
Springfield, Or., Dec. 8.—A landmark of a half century was removed this week when workmen completed the demolition of the old store building for a long time occupied by Joseph Stewart, the pioneer merchant. The building was erected in the early '60s on Mill street, when the lane along the bank of the Willamette was the principal business thoroughfare of the town.
Joseph Stewart, John Stewart and Samuel Rosenblatt, now in business in Portland, were the original owners of the building, and of the mercantile establishment housed there. At that time there were but two stores in this part of the city—the Stewart-Rosenblatt establishment, and that of A. G. Hovey, who figured as a prominent pioneer in the history of Eugene. Supplies had to be brought from Portland by ox team on a trip that required two weeks to the metropolis and back. Mr. Rosenblatt was the first to sell his interest and later John Stewart retired, leaving his brother in charge.
The twentieth century automobile is to be housed in the building to be erected on the old store site.

RUSS AUTHOR PREDICTS GREAT PEASANT REVOLT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Petersburg, Dec. 8.—An inspired article in the ultra-conservative Novoye Vremya gives warning that the Russian revolutionaries are preparing for a fresh upheaval in 1912, which is to take the form of a gigantic peasant rebellion. The revolutionary propagandists, the newspaper declares, have gone about the country telling the peasants that the czar has promised to give them all the land to celebrate the victory of Russian arms over Napoleon.
The author of the article is the notorious Mienszkykoff, who concludes with a tirade against the Jews who, he says, are the chief cause of the unrest. In progressive circles it is affirmed that the article was intended to prepare the public mind for a number of reactionary measures, one of which is to make it a criminal offense for members of the Orthodox church to become Protestants or Roman Catholics.

RUNAWAY BOY CAUGHT BEFORE HE SEES MUCH

(Special to The Journal.)
McMinnville, Or., Dec. 8.—When Section Foreman Bowers and his crew were coming home Wednesday night on their handcar, they picked up a little boy with a bundle under his arm who was trudging along the track toward this city. When asked where he was going he said to McMinnville, where he lived. Bowers, however, stopped the car before reaching town and phoned ahead for policeman Venable to meet him at the station, which Venable did. Taking the boy in charge to escort him to his home, he was led a merry walk over the north part of town, the boy failing to find the house, so he was taken to Sheriff Henderson who recognized the boy as Johnnie Helleskes, whose parents live on a farm east of Whitson. The sheriff then phoned to his parents and found that the boy had been gone from home two days. The boy is about 12 years old and had taken a bundle of clothes and started to see the world. He was turned over to a friend of the Helleskes to take home.

SUPPLIES ORDERED FOR MALHEUR CANYON WORK

(Special to The Journal.)
Boise, Idaho, Dec. 8.—A rush order for large quantities of supplies was placed with a Boise wholesale house today by the Utah Construction company, the supplies to be delivered at Vale, Or. The order is taken to mean that construction of the Oregon and Eastern through the Malheur canyon is to be pushed.

Incendiary Given 25 Years.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., Dec. 8.—An impassioned plea delivered in his own behalf by Charles E. F. Hubbard, incendiary by his own confession, failed to gain clemency and he was sentenced by Judge Wells to 25 years in San Quentin. Hubbard pleaded guilty to setting fire to a house in East Oakland last October, in which his brother, William Hubbard, was sleeping. It was contended that he fired the house in order that his sister-in-law might collect $5000 insurance and flee with him to Europe.

CHICAGOANS EAT OREGON'S APPLES

(Special to The Journal.)
Chicago, Dec. 8.—Oregon apples scored a big hit yesterday when visitors to the Chicago land show at the Coliseum here were each presented with one of the big luscious prize winners by the officials of the Union-Southern Pacific railroad. The apples had been sent to the show by Oregon growers, who were anxious that their fruit should be put into the mouths of as many Chicagoans as it was possible to reach in one day.
The program of speeches and music which had been prepared was given in one of the Union-Southern Pacific halls. J. H. O'Neill acted as Governor West's personal representative. Tom Richardson of Portland made the principal speech, and pounded home the minds of his auditors the fact that Oregon is the best and fastest growing state in point of population and wealth per capita of any in the Union.

Tells Consumptives How He Got Well

Tuberculosis is said to be curable by simply living in the open air and taking an abundance of fresh eggs and milk. Undoubtedly, some persons are benefited in this way; but the appropriate remedy for Consumption is Eckman's Alternative. Do all you possibly can to add strength and increase weight, eat wholesome, nourishing food, and breathe the cleanest and purest air—then, to the sensible things of right living, add the tonic and curative effects of Eckman's Alternative. Read what it did in this case:
609 West Street, Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen: In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners here, said that it was lung trouble. I took eggs and milk in quantities, but I got very weak, and I kept on working in the store. The doctors said I would not gain in weight as long as I stayed in the store, but I kept on working and prayed each day that I might get well. I believe my prayers were answered, for Mr. C. A. Lippincott, my employer (Lippincott & Co., Department Store, 406 to 414 Market street, Wilmington, Del.) had learned of a remedy called Eckman's Alternative that I had done great good, and upon his recommendation I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs, which appeared to be old chunks of blood coming up. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life. I sent my spittle later to the state board of health to be examined for tuberculosis bacilli, and none were found.
"My mother died from consumption when I was about two years old.
"I make this statement so that others may learn of the wonderful merits of Eckman's Alternative. I regard my recovery as being miraculous.
(Signed affidavit.) JAS. SQUIRES.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by The Owl Drug Co. and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

ENTRY TO TILLAMOOK ASKED BY P. & W. C.

(Special to The Journal.)
Tillamook, Or., Dec. 8.—The Portland & West Coast railroad has petitioned the city council for a franchise to enter this city. The petition asks for the use of Front street, now occupied by the Pacific Railway & Navigation company. The West Coast company was organized to build a railroad from Sheridan to Tillamook Bay. A franchise was recently granted by the city of Sheridan for the use of a street in that city. The survey of the road follows the Little Neetsum river and passes through Pacific City, Beaver and Hemlock before reaching this city. A. H. Malaney of Pacific City is one of the prime movers in the organization of the road.

Little Boys! Little Girls!

Santa Claus wants you to come to Gill's tomorrow for YOUR present—an attractive Book entitled "Santa and His Aeroplane"—absolutely FREE.

This pretty book is cut out the shape of dear old Santa's head, with story in rhyme telling how he used a 20th century aeroplane to make his regular Christmas eve deliveries. How well he succeeded can never be guessed without reading this fascinating story.

The book is a delight to the children, as there are clever illustrations on every page. The type is large and plain, and the printing is in four colors. Size 7½ by 10 inches. It is not for sale, but will be given FREE tomorrow. Read on!

There are no "strings" to this offer. You do not have to buy anything. Our purpose is to acquaint you with our newly enlarged and improved Second Floor JUVENILE BOOK STORE. Santa Claus himself will be on hand tomorrow from 10 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m., to present one of these attractive books to every boy and girl who is accompanied by an adult. There is only one provision, namely, that the name and address of adult be written on a slip of paper, size about 3.5 inches, before coming to the store; this merely to avoid duplication.

Santa Claus sends greetings to every good boy and girl in Portland and hopes to see you all at Gill's tomorrow—welcome!
