

WEDDING

EDITED BY AVIS LOBDELL

Mrs. T. C. Spencer, wife of Lieutenant Spencer of Vancouver Barracks. Mrs. Spencer was Miss Jeanet Klaunder of Philadelphia.

YES, indeed! There was plenty going on in the realm social last week and some there were who were busy all the time—but it was not for the society editor. It was just another of those weeks when three or four friends joined forces for the theatre, a game of bridge or informal luncheon. The one really large event was the subscription dance Friday evening, which proved to be the most delightful of any so far given. The attendance was large, very large, and many attractive gowns were in evidence. The wedding of Miss Meta Buehner and Robert Noble claimed the attention of society the first of the week, as did Anna Held at the Hellig. An event brilliant socially as well as musically is "The Girl of the Golden West," grand opera entertainment at the Hellig this week. Society is planning to be there in full force for all of the performances—at least such society as still remains in town, for this is the month when the wanderlust claims and the travelers are many.

Miss Katherine MacMaster and Miss Louise Burns shared honors at a charming luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd. The table was beautiful with its arrangement of pink bouvardia and white freesias. Including the honor guests and the hostess places were marked for Miss Hewitt, Miss Isabella Gault, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Hazel Dopel, Miss Barbara Mackenzie and Miss Evelyn Wilson.

Mrs. Elsworth Taylor, of New York, who has arrived to be the guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Whidden, is being welcomed by her many friends with affectionate compliments. This is Mrs. Taylor's first visit to Portland since her marriage, four years ago. Monday Mrs. Frank E. Hart has invited guests to tea in her honor and Wednesday evening Miss Isabella Gault has planned a bridge for her. Miss Claire Houghton will be another hostess complimenting her in the near future.

Mrs. Robert W. Lewis and her sister, Miss Martha Hoyt, have asked guests to play bridge with them on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Katherine S. McCamant was hostess Wednesday for the annual meeting of Multnomah chapter, D. A. R. Election of officers was the business of the day, with the following results: Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, regent; Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, vice regent; Mrs. John Pearson, secretary; Mrs. H. M. van Deusen, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Hockey, registrar; Mrs. W. P. Gannett, historian. Mrs.

Many Portland people will be interested in the betrothal announcement of Baroness Margareta von Wittolden of Medrow, Pomerania, and Baron Gustave von Hagenow, her cousin. His estate, Langenfelde, adjoins that of the Baroness and is only three hours from Berlin. The wedding, the Baroness was much complimented guest of Miss Margaret Montgomery three years ago.

The Philip Buehner home was the scene of a second pretty wedding when Dr. John Cudlipp read the service last evening which made Miss Meta Buehner the bride of Robert P. Noble. The vows were exchanged in the drawing room with its beautiful decorations of pink chrysanthemums and Easter lilies. The bride came in on the arm of her father and her brother, Henry Buehner, played the wedding march. She wore the same wedding robe of silver brocade satin with its beautiful decorations of pink chrysanthemums and Easter lilies. The bride's bouquet was also orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian Buehner was the maid of honor. Her gown was fashioned of batiste embroidered net over green satin and her flowers were pink roses. Little Misses Jane Talbot and Ann Elizabeth Warren were the flower girls. They were frocked in white lingerie with pink sashes and hair ribbons. They carried baskets of pink posies. Carl Wernicke was again the best man as he was for Mr. Sallor. Between 100 and 150 guests attended the wedding and reception. The hall with its beautiful decorations of pink and red carnations and the dining room was graced with Richmond roses and red shaded candelabra. Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. Frank M. Warren Jr., Mrs. Donald E. Munro and Mrs. C. U. Gannett presided at the table, assisted by Miss Leslie Wedder, Miss Claire Houghton and Miss Elizabeth Beno, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Noble left last evening for Chicago where they will make their home for the next year or two. Miss Cornelia Cook caught the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Buehner wore a handsome gown of black chiffon embroidered in silver and velvet with touches of pink.

Mrs. Sallor (Miss Margarita Buehner) was in pink chiffon cloth.
